Barbershop Songfest Set Saturday Night

A uniformed chorus from Brookings will open the second annual "Harmony Jamboree and Parade of Quartets" here Saturday, it was announced today.

The "jamboree" is sponsored by the Medford chapter of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America. It will start at 8 p.m. in the auditorium of Medford senior high school.

Brad Page, director of the Brookings chorus, reports they will probably sing "The Old Songs," "Whispering Hope," a Stephen Foster medley and "May the Good Lord Bless and Keep You."

30 Singers

The Brookings chorus includes approximately 30 singers. The group is made up of loggers, truck drivers, professional men, merchants and ranchers. Although few members of the Brookings organization, including Director Page, have had formal musical training, they have been well received elsewhere, members of the Medford chapter state.

The chorus plans to stay overnight in Medford and will appear in Grants Pass on Sunday. The following week-end they will sing at a similar show in Crescent City.

The Brookings chorus will be accompanied here by a quartet, the "Organairs," from the same city. The quartet consists of Mickey Gould, lead, Orval Dimmick, tenor, Stan Patterson, baritone, and Tiny Olson, bass.

13 Quartets

A total of 13 quartets and two choruses, the other one from Medford, have indicated that they will take part in the jamboree. Most recent to accept an invitation to the event was the "House Brothers" barber shop quartet of Bly. Gus Witts, president of the Medford chapter of SPEBSQSA, states that "every effort was made to have this quartet on the program because it was so well received at last year's jamboree."

Tickets for the show are on sale at Barker's Men's store, Purucker's Piano House, Pruitt's Music store and Shangles Studio. Proceeds from ticket sales will be used to purchase supplies for ambulance planes operated by Mercy Flights, Inc., southern Oregon's non-profit air ambulance service.
