National Rotana Meeting Opens in Medford Today

Rotana, national classified service club for women, opened the annual national convention in Medford this afternoon. About 100 members are expected to attend the convention, which has headquarters in the Jackson hotel. The Medford and Grants Pass clubs are joint hostess groups.

Members of the national board gathered at the hotel at 1 p.m. today for luncheon, and general registration is set from 4 to 7 p.m. in the lobby. Tonight a carnival and fun night will be held in VFW hall, Grants Pass.

National officers are Miss Helen MacQuarrie, Bozeman, Mont., president; Mrs. Mary Booth, first vice-president, Helena, Mont.; Miss Marie Barr, Salem, Ore., second vice-president; Miss Pauline Breazeale, Bozeman, Mont., secretary and Mrs. Agnes Sheridan, Butte, Mont., treasurer.

Board members are June Fuller, McMinville, Ore.; Grace Stadalman, Laurel, Mont., Lelah Partch, Medford; Beatrice Johnson, Portland; Grace Mortenson, Helena, Mont.; Laura Farris, and Vada Hill, both Salem.

Saturday the day's program opens with breakfast at the Jackson hotel and a general session convenes at 8:30 a.m. The Rev. D. Kirkland West will give the invocation, Mayor Diamond Flynn will welcome the guests to Medford and Maxine Anderson of the Grants Pass club will give the convention welcome. Miss Johnson, Portland, will respond.

Reports are scheduled for the morning and in the afternoon election of officers and general business are on the agenda.

A banquet will be held at 7:15 p.m. at the hotel, with Dr. Elmo Stevenson, president of Southern Oregon college, giving the address. Miss Hazel Swayne will be toastmistress and Miss MacQuarrie will welcome members and guests. Mrs. Burdella Blackledge of the local club will introduce guests.

Music will be provided by two barbershop quartets, Three Notes and Dad and the Harmony Wreckers.

Installation of officers will be conducted by Miss Mabel Nye, Medford, with Mrs. Stella Breed, Medford, acting as marshal. Mrs. Dora Powell, president of the Medford club and convention chairman, will close the program.

Closing event of the convention will be a lawn party and buffet luncheon at Rogue Valley Country club Sunday at 12:30 p.m. Abby Green, club musician, will provide entertainment.
