SMOOT, PARTY ISSUE

Opponents Now Quarrel Among Themselves.

DRAG IN THE PRESIDENT

Case Delayed Because Opposition Lacks Votes to Unsent Senator, Burrows May Change Front. and Spring Sensation.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Wash-OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, May 24.—The opponents of Senator Smoot, realizing the impossibility of outing the Mormon Senator, have begun quarreling among themselves and hurling accusations at President Roosevelt. The charge is circulated today that the President has brought heavy pressure to bear on the committee to prevent a report to the Senate this session, but there is no truth in this charge, for the President has taken no active part in this case. The only foundation for this report is the well-known fact that the President likes Smoot personally.

Smoot personally, The real reason for the repeated delays in this case is the fear of Smoot's oppo-nents that they cannot get votes enough to vacate his seat. Now these Senators begin to fear that Chalrman Burrows will begin to fear that Chairman Burrows will change his position and vote for Smoot. If he should do so, sensational developments are promised.

The tendency of late has been to make a party issue of the Smoot case, inasmuch as it has been impossible to prove that Smoot is a polygamist, but the minute the party line is drawn the case may be considered closed. The principal opposition to Smoot comes from Democrats, but your some of them are changing their tion to Smoot comes from Democrats, but even some of them are changing their views and now favor a declaration that Smoot is entitled to his seat. Apparently the case is being juggled to make cam-paign material for use in Idaho and Utah, regardless of what happens to

STIR ABOUT FOREST RESERVES

Fulton's Motion to Increase Counties' Share Meets Opposition. OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, May 24.—Considerable stir was oc-casioned in the Senate today over an amendment to the agricultural appropria-tion bill proposing to give 10 per cent of the receipts from forest reserves to the the receipts from forest reserves to the states in which the reserves are located, for schools and public roads. Senator Fulton proposed increasing the donation to 20 per cent, in view of the fact that the creation of reserves materially reduces the taxable area of counties, but this provoked considerable opposition, and probably this amendment will be withdrawn, as it would endanger the entire legislation and result in no donation being authorized. If the bill stands giving only 10 per cent to the counties, it will be agreed to by the Senate and probably by the House. Mr. Fulton will withdraw his amendment tomorrow, on the theory that half a loaf is better than none.

HEYBURN DEFIES DOCTORS

Warned Not to Attend Senate, but Determined to Go.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, May 24.—Senator Heyburn's physicians have warned him that it will be dangerous to resume his seat during the present session or undertake to attend to public business. Notwithstanding this, the Senator is determined to go back to the Senate as soon as he is strong enough. It is believed to be physically impossible for him to get out next week, age. He was nearly 80 years old. Mr. MoLeod was one of the army of empire-bullders that made its way across the continent in the early days to found a new country in the great West. He was born in New Brunswick in 1828. He began life as an aprentice to a shipbuillder, but, longing for the West, he gave up that occupation and started for Oregon, where he built one of the first sawmills in that state.

This mill occupied a location at the present site of the town of Forest Grove. Forty men engaged in mill work, built homes and created a city. McLeod sold his mill and some farming lands which he owned in Washington County, and moved to Dilley, a few miles distant, where he built another mill. For many years he was identified with the industrial progress of Oreson and throughout that rogress of Oregon, and throughout that tate was well known. Five years ago Mra. McLeod died, and since then the ploneer had made his home with a daughter, Mrs. Durham, of Spo-kane, wife of the editor of the Spokes-man-Review, and with Mrs. Spangler, of Scattle, another daughter, wife of Cash-Scattle, another daughter, wire of Cashier Spangler, of the Dexter-Horton Bank.

Mr. and Mrs. McLeod had been married 22 years, when death separated them.
The funeral services will be held at the residence of his son. A. L. McLeod, of this place. The remains will be interred at Forest Grove Cemetery, Sunday morning Mrs. 87 ing, May 27.

Another Great War Feared in South Africa.

HELPING REBELS BOERS

British Garrisons Ordered Out, Colonials Failing to Trap Bambata. Rebels Dodge Pursuers and Capture Several Convoys.

PRETORIA, May 25-(Special.)-The garrison here has been ordered to pre pare to take the field, and it is under stood that similar orders have been sent to every commandant of British troops in South Africa. The situation in Natal is growing more and more serious daily and advices received from the troops that are operating against Bambata show that he is receiving reinforcements from nearly every tribe in Zululand. Arms and ammunition are also being sent to him, and all efforts of the colonial sent to him, and all efforts of the colonial authorities to put a stop to this traffic have proved futile. Zulu sples are everywhere and are apparently able to keep the leaders posted as to field plans, as no sooner is a trap set for the rebels than they escape from it. They have also captured several convoys.

Boers Advise Bambata.

That Bambata has the advice of experienced fighters is known, but so far it has been impossible to learn the identity of the two whites who accompany his col-umn. They are believed to be Boers, but the colonial authorities have been unable to secure any sort of information of them to gecure any sort or description of their identity.

Fear Great Zulu War.

The fact that the colonial troops have unable to make any headway against the rebels, and that British regulars are to be called on, indicates how serious the situation is. The authorities are hardly in a position at present to enter into a great Zulu war, and it is understood that they will bend every effort to crush Bam-bata within the next few days. All the regular troops that can be spared are to take the field against him, while the colonials will act with them and will also try to prevent any other Zulu tribes from Bambata until he can be

May Have to Take Defensive.

With Bambata and his advisers killed or captured, the colonial authorities think they will be able to control the situation and prevent any general uprising. If Bambata escapes again, or if he succeeds in defeating the forces now to be sent against him, then there will be nothing for the colonial authorities to do but put their force on the defensive in Natal and await the arrival of troops now on the way to South Africa.

PRISONER FOR SUFFRAGE SAKE

Englishwoman Harangues Crowd and Denounces Cabinet Ministers.

LONDON, May 24.—Mrs. Dora Monte-flore, one of the leading woman suffrag-ists, under whose lead many women have pledged themselves not to pay their taxes on the ground that taxation without rep-resentation is tyranny, barangued a great crowd of woman suffragists from the second story of her house near London to-day. She roundly denounced Chancellor of the Exchequer Asquith as an assassin, because he stood in the way of the ad-vance of the women's movement, and Chief Secretary for Ireland Bryce, and Captain John Sinciair, Secretary for Scot-land, were also bitterly assailed. Mrs. Montellore informed her hearers that the women who were refusing to pay taxes were taking this course in order to advance the education of the Cabinet Ministers, and warned the latter of the determination of those who were con-ducting the campaign to obtain their in-disputable rights. She asserted that the Cabinet Ministers who opposed the move-ment were marked men and suggested that her hearers break the windows of Mr. Asquith's house. She would do so herself, she declared, were it not for the fact that she was engaged in defending her residence against tax collectors and
