Young Persons To Conduct Services

High school young people of the Senior Christian Endeavor Sunday will conduct the 7:30 p.m. worship service at the Friends church. Pat Leek, president, will preside, with Gary Smith as song leader and Virginia Walters as pianist.

The young people will present musical selections and will conclude the service by devotional selections and will conclude the service by devotional talks. Included in the program will be reports from the Intermediate and Junior Christian Endeavor workers. This service is in observance of CE Booster day, sponsored by the Christian Endeavor union of the Friends church in the northwest.

Following the worship hour the seniors are invited to a social gathering at Talent Friends church, given by the Senior Christian Endeavor there.

Sunday marks the third week of the Sunday school contest between Medford church and Piedmont Friends church, Portland. The Piedmont church is ahead in attendance increase so far. An eight-member visitation team called on homes in the Howard district Sunday with an invitation to attend Sunday school.

Subject of pastor Clynton Crisman's message in the 11 a.m. worship service will be "The Lord Omnipotent Reigneth." The choir will sing. Junior church will be conducted by Mrs. Raymond Brood for children in the first through fourth grades.

Phoenix Church Pastor Resigns

Phoenix—The Rev. J. Gordon Buller, pastor for the past 10 months of the Phoenix Presbyterian church, will give his farewell sermon at the church Sunday, Oct. 31, at 11 a.m., church officers announced today. His topic will be, "The Reformers Flaming Faith." All members of the church and friends are invited.

A reception at the close of the service will be held at the church rooms.

While at the church the Rev. Mr. Buller has participated in enlarging the attendance of the church, reorganizing the boards of the church and in increasing the number of members on the board of trustees, deacons and elders. The choir also has more members.

A young persons' group which meets each Sunday has been organized, with Arthur Griggs as leader.

At a recent meeting at which the resignation of the Rev. Mr. Buller was accepted a pulpit-seeking committee and a pulpit supply committee were appointed. The members of these committees will be in charge of worship services until a regular pastor is secured.

The Rev. Otis Swisher, assistant pastor of the Medford Presbyterian church also will speak and assist with some of the worship sevrices during the interim.

First Baptists Plan Family Day Services

Family day will be observed Sunday at all services of the First Baptist church. All family members are invited to Sunday age groups, and a nursery with school. Classes are held for all an attendant is provided for babies. A goal of 500 has been set.

At the 11 o'clock morning worship service, Dr. F. Carl Truex will speak from the Book of Jonah on the subject, "Jonah's Commission." The adult choir under the direction of J. Robert Cochran will sing an anthem and Miss Betty Shaw will be soloist.

Family groups are also invited to attend the Baptist league study groups, which meet at 6:30 p.m. Classes are provided for juniors, intermediates, senior and college age, and adults.

The evening service will be at 7:30 o'clock with the pastor preaching on the subject, "He is Coming Soon." Music will be provided by the youth choir. Dr. Truex will present a gift to the mother with the most members of her family present at the evening service.

THE REV. E. C. TAYLOR
At Nazarene

Nazarenes Add New Minister to Staff

Officials at the Church of the Nazarene announced this week that a minister of education is being added to the church staff. Edward C. Taylor has accepted the position and will be present for the services Sunday, Nov. 7.

Formerly, Mr. Taylor was associated with Northwest Nazarene college at Nampa, Ida. He served as dean of students. Prior to that, he served as minister of education and music in several churches.

He was graduated from Oklahoma university after four years in the Air Force during World War II. He earned a graduate degree at Boston university.

Mr. Taylor with his wife and young daughter, Patrice Elaine, will arrive in Medford on November 5. He will be in charge of the training program and the music, Pastor R. W. Hurn said.

Congregational Sermon Announced

Reformation Sunday will be celebrated at the Congregational church Sunday with a sermon, "What Protestants Believe."

At 7 p.m. Dr. and Mrs. Paul A. Davies will show slides of a trip to Europe which they made during the summer. Dr. Davies is minister and superintendent of the Congregational conference of Oregon. He is a frequent visitor to the young Medford church. The trip to Europe was given to Dr. and Mrs. Davies by the conference in celebration of the completion of ten years as superintendent.

Church Will Note Luther Anniversary

St. Peters Lutheran church members will observe the anniversary of the Lutheran Reformation Sunday at two events, according to the Rev. Kenneth Korby, pastor.

Five minutes before 11 a.m., Sunday, the congregation will gather outside the church and the elders and the pastor will fix a "Lutheran Manifesto" to the church door.

The congregation will hear a reading of the manifesto and then enter the church led by the choir, singing "A Mighty Fortress Is Our God."

Holy communion will be observed at the service.

An illustrated lecture on the theology and life of Martin Luther will be given at 8 p.m., Sunday. A filmstrip based on still pictures from the moving picture, "Martin Luther," will be used. The public is invited. A discussion period also will be held.

Sunday evening at 6 o'clock, the choir of St. Peters will participate in a service at Camp White. At 7 o'clock, the two youth groups of the congregation will each hold a Hallowe'en party, one at Singler home, the other at the Gemaehlich home.

SCIENCE SERMON

"Everlasting Punishment," will be the title of the lesson-sermon Sunday at the Christian Science church. The service will be keyed to the golden text from Psalms 130:7. A reference will be read from page 11 of "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy.
