Schillers All but Defeat Portland Ball Team.

M'CREDIE'S

Find Themselves Hard Pressed by Crack Amateur Organization. Score Stands 2 to 1 After Nine Full Innings.

It took the full nine innings yesterday for McCredie's aggregation of balltossers to put Manager Gardner's fast bunch of amateurs, the Schillers, where they could do no more harm. To while away the time pending the arrival of the recreant Los Angeles team, a game was arranged for between the Schiller team and the professionals. The game had not gone far when it became painfully apparent that the professionals were up against the real candy in the baseball business. Not until "Irlsh Mike" Mitchell had performed his usual feat of slamming one to the fence and later sneaking home did the Beavers feel they had the game safely vest-pocketed. As it was, the cigarmakers hore off the honors. They made seven hits to three for the Portlands, and earned their one run, while the Beavers crossed the plate twice only through gifts.

Phil Knell offered his services for the game, and helped to make the mastch, which was not at all slow otherwise. Interesting by hurrying it through in an hour and thirty minutes. Not many of the fans were present. It took the full nine innings yester-professionals showed the results late inactivity on the field and at. They ran bases slowly and at the pat. They ran bases slowly and were badly faded by the blonde twirler. Toren, whom McCredle recently decided to be not fast enough for the rest of the company. Three hits was the best they could do with Toren, and these were widely scattered. The crowd howled with delight when Toren growd hawled with delight when Toren sent McCredie to the bench struck out with ease. Jud Smith celebrated his initial appearance in a Portland suit by trotting around with the first run and letting the only chance coming to him go through him. He shows the results of being out of the game, and it will take him some time to get into old-time form.

French, Henderson and Califf held the center of the stage, in the dia-mond, and all performed well. Charlie Moore was switched to second base and took care of everything that came his Portland jumped to the lead in its half of the second. McCredie drew a walk. Smith forced him at second, but was safe on the play. A moment later the lanky dentist stole second and scored from that station on Gray's poor handling of Donahue's smash.

Henderson Relieves French.

Henderson relieved French in the sixth, and the Schillers went right after him With one down, White sapped one to the left-field fence for two bases. Chapla struck out and it looked black coffee for the kids, but Oliver has his eye on a choice bender and drove it into the right garden for two bases. the play. Stavin struck out and ended the ceremonies.

From this point till the ninth the game hurried along. Toren and Califf vieing with each other on strike-outs. In the last half of the closing session In the last hair or the closing session Mitchell hit one on the nose, which ticketed him through to the second bag. In an attempt to catch the wild Irlshman asleep at the switch, Toren heaved the ball wild to the scoreboard and Mike raced home with the decid-PORTLAND.

Money on the Dane Goes Begging at 10 to 7.

Herrera Says He Will Force the Fighting, and Nelson Has Never Away From Opponent.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., May 34.—(Battling Nelson still rules favorite over Herrera, the odds remaining at 19 to 7, in favor of the Dane. A bet of $1000 on Nelson to $550 found no takers today and there are other big bunches of Nelson money that may not feel the stakeholder's touch, in spite of the arrival of a large contingent of Herrera's admirers from San Francisco.

Manager Tom McCarey, of the Pacific Athletic Club, placed 1000 $20 gold pleces on exhibition today in the show window of Greenwald's cigar store, the $20,000 being the purse the club has put up for the contest.

Both men are in fine fettle. Nelson continued his training this afternoon at Santa Anita, but Herrera took things casy. Both being at the weight, they are casy. Both being at the weight, they are doing only enough to keep within the mark until 6 o'clock tomorrow evening, when they will weigh in at the office of Manager McCarey. Each must make 131 pounds then, or forfeit his $1000. Of the $30,000 purse Nelson will receive $4000 as a bonus for making the match, the remainder of the amount to be di-vided, 60 per cent to the winner and 40 per cent to the loser. Should Nelson win. his portion will be $13,500, while that of Herrera will be $4500 Herrera as winner would get $9500 and Nelson as loser $10,600. The men must be in the ring by 8:20 o'clock tomorrow night. Soft bandages for the hands and Marquis of Queensebury rules, revised, will govern, permitting the men to fight themselves free from a clinch, but they cannot hold and hit. Charles Eyton, official referes for the Pacific Athletic Club, will referee the contest.

Eddie Graney, Jim Coffroth, Mark Shaughnesay and several other San Francisco aports arrived today, as did Jack Welch, Harry Corbett, Dick Walsh, and others are expected by boat and train tomorrow.

Herrera says he will force the fighting from the start. Nelson never backed away from an opponent, and the programme, if followed, will be that both will pound away at each other in the center of the ring until one goes down. center of the ring until one goes down. Billy Nolan is so sure that Nelson will force the fighting to the Mexican's cor-ner that he offers to bet $1000 and leave ner that he offers to bet $1990 and leave it to Eyton to decide which man first breaks ground.

Wild reports went East last night that Nelson was a nervous wreck. They were fakes from the air. The stories were scoffed at in the Nelson camp today.

"The Bat eats, sleeps and works like a top," said Nolan, "There is no chance of his going stale. There isn't a trace of nervousness in him. If the Dane is beaten it will be because the Mexican has a lucky punch or is the better man. We a lucky punch or is the better man. We won't roar under such circumstances, but will ask for a return match."

The seat sales indicate that the house will be sold out before the men enter the ring. There will be no preliminaries.

SALEM TEAM IS COMING.

Portland High School Balltossers

Have Work Cut Out. Three Years Ago Repaid.

Portland High School will go up against the fast team from Salem High School this afternoon on Multnomah Field at 3 o'clock. No games are being played off in the Interscholastic League this week and Manager Cason arranged to bring the Salem boys down to furnish sport in the interim. The Salem nine showed what they could do in the field and with the enough men to round out a team, for he has secured players from the San Fran-Indians several days ago, 7-6.

has secured players from the San Francisco, Oakland and Fresno clubs, who have been loaned him until players can be secured from the East to take the places of the recalcitrant players who listened to the promises of Morley.

The men who will arrive with the Amgele this morning are: Pitchers Bergemann, of Los Angeles: Steltz and Schmidt, of Fresno, and Hopkins, of Cakland: Captain Dillon, who will play first base: McClelland, a youngster who will hold down third base; Jack Gochnauer, the crack shortstop of the San Francisco team; Bert Delmas, of the Fresno team, who will fill in at second, and Outfielders Ellis, Bernard and Cravath.

The Oakland Club has been notified to send either Jack Bliss or Tom Hackett to Portland to catch for Los Angeles until other arrangements are made, and in the event that one of them does not report this morning, Pat Donohue will be lent Dillon for today's game.

Things are likely to go hard with the Los Angeles players who have paid no heed to the instructions of President Best.

COLLEGE ATHLETES OF FOUR STATES WILL COMPETE.

Joint Track Event on May 30 Will Be a Most Representative Gathering.

Probably the greatest, certainly the most representative athletic event ever held in the Pacific Northwest will be heid in the Pacific Northwest will be pulled off at Seattle the afternoon of Decoration day. The Universities of Oregon, Washington, Montana and Idaho will compete in a joint track meet for the championship, and the meet promises to be close and exciting with a decided advantage resting with no one of the schools.

Oregon showed what she could do last Saturday when she took the strong farmer aggregation down the line with a bump. Washington and Idaho are always there when it comes to an athletic event of any kind. Montana is an away with the sprints and broad jump no one can doubt. His friends hope to see him cut still further into the rec-ords in these events, which he sent staggering last week. This athlete is phenomenon and he is in royal shape weights, Hug and McKinney can hold their own with any man the other colleges can send against them and there is no reason in the world why Bill Hayward cannot send Friessel why Bill Hayward cannot send Friessel and Moores in to clean up the hurdles and place second to Kelly in the dashes. In Edmundson, Idaho has a man who demonstrated, his ability last Summer to run with anybody in the distances. Oregon is weak in these events anyhow and it will simply be a question of Washington and Idaho fighting it out for these points. In the question are for these points. In the quartet men-tioned above Oregon ought to clean up enough firsts to give her the meet with what seconds her other men can This is the first meet of its and in this section of the country, and is somewhat of a financial risk for all parties concerned. College athletics have been receiving a growing interest in late years, however, and with the collegians directly interested and the people who will attend from the Sound cities a crowd sufficient to pay all expenses can be expected.
