He Keeps Britt Fighting All Through Ten Rounds, and Draws Blood.

BOTH ARRESTED AT FINISH

Ten-Round Go Without Decision in New York Proves Live Through-out-McGovern Has Advantage in Close Work.

NEW YORK, May 28.—Terry McGovern of Brooklyn surprised everybody tonight by his wonderful showing against Jimmy Britt of California in his ten-round bout before the Twentieth Century Club in the Madison Square Garden in the presence of four thousand people. Tim Hurst was the referee, but as no decision can be given under the law governing boxing in this State, the spectators had to judge for themselves as to the relative merits of the men.

Immediately after the fight both principals, Manager Harry Pollock, Referee Tim Hurst and ten others were arrested by order of Deputy Police Commissioner Waldo and Mathot, charged with participating in a prize fight.

McGovern Has Advantage. McGovern was not trained down fine, as he had been on other occasions. Britt looked to be in much the better condition than was about ten rounds lighter than the Brooklyn man. Britt was very clever and shifty and ducked away from some hard swings. McGovern stuck to his old bulldog style of fighting. There was great deal of clinching, holding and infighting, but whenever they indulged in a mixup, Terry seemed to have the better of it. He kept hitting McGovern on McGovern's head and face, but McGovern did not appear to suffer much from those blows.

Britt Bleeds Profusely. McGovern opened up a gash over Britt's right eye with a left hook in the second round and in each succeeding round the cut was deepened with jab and hook. Britt was bleeding from the nose and McGovern's right eye was puffed up at the end of the sixth round. It was a hurricane flap all the way, with both men giving and taking plenty of punishment.

There was a lot of clinching and holding in the opening round and the referee had a hard time pulling the men apart. McGovern got in a hard left on the body and Britt hooked his left and right to the head. In the fifth round McGovern landed short arm blows. Britt offset these with left jab and the round was even. Britt opened the second with a left to the body and Terry sent a short right to the head. Britt had the better of some exchanges on the body. Terry swung right to the head and landed two right hooks to the side of the head and neck. They were clinching at the bell.

Fast Work in Third. After an exchange of lefts in the third round they clinched and when they broke away Britt sent right and left to the head and body. A hard left to the head shook Britt, who ducked from two wild swings. Terry rushed in to the ropes, landing right and left to the face and chest punches. Britt jabbed left to the face and Terry, rushing in, sent both hands to the body. Terry sent in a straight left to the face at the bell.

Some Wicked Fighting. The sixth round was fought pretty evenly, and at the end of it Britt was bleeding from the right eye and nose and Terry's right eye was swollen. In forcing the men to break, Hurst got a blow in the stomach.

The fighting was very fast in the seventh, and Terry forced Britt across the ring, landing left, right and left on the head and body. In the eighth Terry dodged a wicked swing and shot his left to the face. They exchanged right and left punches at long range and Terry hooked his left to the head again.

Terry Forces Fight to Close. The final round found Terry forcing the fight. After a clinch both sent right and left to the head and exchanged rights far back on the jaw. There were several clinches, during which Terry had the upper hand in short-arm work. Terry missed a right swing, but landed a hard left hook to the face. They were fighting at close quarters when the bell ended the fight.

Principals Arrested at Close. Close by the ringside when the first bout was called, a preliminary between James Carter and Daniel Frazer, sat Deputy Commissioners Waldo and Mathot, Captain Hodgins and four detectives. At the conclusion of the bout both men were arrested in the dressing-room without attracting any attention. The two other preliminaries were permitted to go on, and at their conclusion the principals were taken home by their friends. Britt and McGovern were not given time to change their ring costumes for street clothes, and were driven in cabs to the West Thirtieth-street police station, clad only in trunks, shoes and stockings and raincoats. Four ticket-sellers also were arrested on the charge of abetting the fight, and two waiters for violation of the excise law. At the station house all were released on bail.

GOVERNOR FORBIDS THE FIGHT State Police Will Prevent Match Between Burns and Fitz.

HARRISBURG, Pa., May 28.—Governor Pennypacker this evening directed Captain Groome, Superintendent of the state police force, to send a squad of policemen tomorrow night to North Eastington, Delaware County, near Philadelphia, to prevent the scheduled fight between Bob Fitzsimmons and Tommy Burns in an clubroom of the Tuxedo Athletic Club.

Philadelphia, May 28.—The officials of the Tuxedo Athletic Club were surprised when informed that Governor Pennypacker had taken steps to prevent the Fitzsimmons-Burns fight at North Eastington tomorrow night, as they had no intimation that there was legal objection to the contest. It was learned here tonight that the Governor had ordered the Superintendent of the state constabulary to prevent the fight at the request of District Attorney McDade, of Delaware County.

TAKE TEN INNINGS TO DECIDE BALL GAME.

SCORE IS THREE TO TWO

Los Angeles Leads for a Time, but at the Close Portland Team Adds the Tally Necessarily to Win Struggle.

NEW YORK, May 28.—Gus Ruhlin of Akron, O., and Sandy Ferguson of Boston, both heavyweight pugilists, fought six rounds to a draw at the Marlborough Athletic Club tonight. Charley White was referee, but no decision was given. It was a hard and fast fight for big men. Neither of them was trained to the fighting notch, and while Ferguson was the cleverer, Ruhlin had the punch to offset this advantage. In the second round Ferguson knocked Ruhlin down with a right-hand blow over the heart, but Ruhlin more than squared matters by sending Ferguson to the floor twice in the following round with rights to the jaw. During the last two rounds both men fought more cautiously, and they seemed to be tired out at the finish.

Yacht Race Starts Again Today. NEW YORK, May 28.—Unless the northeast gale has increased in violence at daylight tomorrow, the yawl-rigged yachts Tamerlane and Lila, which started on Saturday, with the little sloop Gauntlet, in the race to Bermuda for the Lipson cup, were expected to turn back, will start for the second time. A new mast was delivered to the Lila today and the rigging was set up. Commodore Maier of the Yacht Club said tonight that it was ready to make a fresh start whenever the Lila was ready and they both hope to overhaul the Gauntlet.

NEW BANK OPENS DOORS Installation of Fixtures Not Completed, but Business Begins. The Bankers' and Lumbermen's Bank opened up for business yesterday in its new quarters at Second and Stark streets. The installation of the fixtures is not quite completed, but the pressure of business offered was so great that it was decided to open as soon as possible. A large amount of business was done yesterday, and a great many persons called to congratulate the officers, all of which added to their encouragement over the outlook. The officers of the Bankers' and Lumbermen's Bank are: D. C. Pelton, president; F. H. Rothchild, first vice-president; John A. Keating, second vice-president; E. C. Meers, cashier, and H. D. Story, assistant cashier.

Seek Information of Oregon. No less than six different letters were received yesterday by Secretary Giltner of the Chamber of Commerce from persons in San Francisco and Southern California cities asking for printed matter descriptive of Portland and the Pacific Northwest, and inquiring with regard to business openings. The letters are regarded as significant of the attitude of residents of the "earthquake belt" toward the northern states of the Coast.

Win French Is Released. In accordance with his expressed intention to reduce his team to 12 men instead of cutting salaries, Manager McCredie yesterday released Pitcher Win French, who now leaves the local club with four pitchers—Erick, Garvin, Henderson and Calli—who will be expected to compete the season for the locals. French is a valuable pitcher, and is rated by many of the fans as being the best fielding pitcher in the league, and he should have no trouble in getting on with one of the other clubs. Roy Toren, who was released last week, has joined the Butte club, in the Northwest League.

Portland Against Oakland. Portland and Oakland open a week's engagement at the ball park this afternoon. The Beavers have been meeting the ball hard in the engagement just closed with Los Angeles, and if they keep up their present clip they should have no trouble in disposing of the Computers. The Oakland aggregation arrived yesterday morning and saw the local crowd take the fourth straight from the Seraphs in the afternoon. Ely Cates says he will get away with his game against his old team mates just to show them he can do it. Cliff will probably pitch for Portland today.

Mount Tabor Defeats Laurelwood. On Sunday afternoon the Mt. Tabor ball team defeated the Laurelwood nine with ease by a score of 15 to 0. The feature of the game was the twirling of Merrill for Mt. Tabor, who allowed but one hit.

JUDGE McBRIDE CONDEMS INCORPORATING SMALL TOWNS. Fine of Rainier Saloonkeepers for Running Slot-Machines Is Confirmed. ST. HELENS, Or., May 28.—(Special)—The cases of Lee & Chapel, Dougherty & Clark, and defendant saloonkeepers, alleged that the state had no jurisdiction in the matter, as it came within the scope of the charter of the City of Rainier, and that the charter of the City of Rainier, under the state constitution, could not confer on any municipality the power to reduce the penalty provided by statute for the punishment of any class of crime, or in any way supersede the state law. He did not stop at the question as to whether the Legislature had attempted to confer such a right in the particular cases, but held that such an attempt was unconstitutional.

Municipal courts, it was said, could have no jurisdiction in the matter, but Circuit Courts in certain cases, but wherever this is granted there must be the same penalties imposed by the ordinance that are imposed by the state. To hold otherwise would give municipalities the power to set aside the state laws. The judge very strongly reprobated the practice of incorporating small communities, holding that to do so set a premium upon lawlessness. The judgment of the lower court was confirmed.

TRADES LAND FOR STOCK Now the Former Owners Want Realty Restored to Them. Albert Johnson and Louise Johnson, his wife, have instituted suit in the State Circuit Court against H. W. Rand and B. P. Rand to recover possession of the west 30 feet of lot 5 and the southeast 30x25 feet of lot 6, block 202, East Portland. The property was transferred for 800 shares of stock in the Attachable Ball-bearing Company, a Washington corporation, with a capital stock of $200,000. The hubs were for use on carriages. H. W. Rand is alleged to own 57,531 shares, and Byron Hume, of San Francisco, and B. P. Yoeman, of Vancouver, were also interested. Mr. Johnson avers that he was induced to purchase by Link Johnston, a defunct agent for West Coast and Mr. Johnston informed him the company would operate a large factory in East Portland and do many other things which would bring the company to the front. The defendants, through Hooford & Brice, attorneys, have filed an answer denying all the charges made in the complaint. H. W. Rand, and Mr. Johnston, allege that he is the owner of the 800 shares of stock transferred to Albert Johnson, and that H. W. Rand held it only as a trustee. B. P. Rand says he transferred this stock, which was of the par value of $800, to Mr. Johnson for the property, which the latter said was free of incumbrance, when, on the contrary, it was mortgaged to Louis Pardlow for $3000. Mr. Rand further avers that William Teghtimer claims to own a strip of ground in question 2x75 feet. Mr. Rand also avers that he is the owner of the premises, and asks the court to dismiss the complaint.

File Incorporation Articles. Incorporation articles of the Union Box & Lumber Company were filed in the County Clerk's office yesterday by J. Ottenheimer, of Salem, and S. W. Ottenheimer and Cecil Bauer, of Portland; also articles of the Beaver State Manufacturing, logging and lumber business, etc. Articles of incorporation of the Columbia Club were filed in the County Clerk's office yesterday by A. Hagen, Laurence S. Hayes and E. C. Heidbrink; capital stock $2500. The objects are: deal in meats, fish, groceries, etc.

Will Decide Cases. Judge Cleland will announce decisions this morning in the following cases: Joseph M. Healy vs. G. A. Vehr et al.; on merits. L. Wilhelm vs. City of Portland et al.; demurrers to complaint. Portland Iron Works vs. C. W. Willett; petition for rehearing.

Said to Be Old Offender Mrs. Nellie Davis Has Record in Other Cities. That Nellie Davis, the woman held at the city jail as a suspected diamond thief, in an old-timer at the game, is set out in a communication received yesterday morning by Chief Grutzmacher from the Los Angeles police department. It is set out that the woman usually works the sympathy dodge, feigning illness when arrested. She is said to have secured her freedom at San Francisco, Los Angeles, Tacoma and Seattle by working on the sympathies of the police magistrates. She is now severely ill at the Portland jail, of being completely ill. Doctors are unable to tell whether or not she is shamming.

Baseball Popular on Gray's Harbor. ABERDEEN, Wash., May 28.—(Special)—The Gray's Harbor team started this morning for Butte, where they will arrive late Tuesday night and begin a series of games Wednesday. The attendance Sunday last, when Tacoma and Gray's Harbor played two games, was the largest of any Sunday in any city of the Northwest League so far. $14 for the two games. Tacoma received $117.85 more on Sunday's games than was paid by Tacoma to Butte during the entire recent series of those teams. If the attendance continues like this a large dividend will be paid by the Gray's Harbor Association.

Indians Arrested for Drunkenness. Deputy United States Marshal Bubby yesterday morning brought Joe Bennett, a Umatilla Indian, and Alexander James, a Nez Perce, from the Umatilla reservation and lodged them in the County Jail, charged with drunkenness. They were arrested at the instance of District Attorney Bristol.

Tri-State Competition in Track Events Will Show Strength of Oregon, Washington and Idaho Contingents. Full of enthusiasm, but not overconfident, the University of Oregon track team, in charge of Trainer William Hayward and Manager W. C. Winslow, arrived in Portland yesterday afternoon and left for their destination at Seattle on the late train. The Oregon boys are to compete against the Universities of Washington and Idaho, which won the championship of the respective states, in the annual interstate track and field championship of the Northwest, and while not overconfident of victory, Trainer Hayward and the boys who took a glorious victory from the Corvallis contingent in the contest for the honors in this state are sure of their ability to make a splendid showing at Seattle tomorrow.
