MAY SAVE THE BUILDING.-Plans to save and restore the old Logus building, on the northwest corner of Union avenue and East Washington street, now promine to be successful, although failure was predicted by many. For ten years this structure, one of the first two-story bricks to be built in East Portland, was shandoned, having been pronounced un-safe and liable to collapse. The founda-tion of the northwest portion of the walls, which stood on made ground, set-tied soon after the building was built. tied soon after the building was built, pulling the rest of the structure over in that direction so much so that the build-ing appeared ready to fall. It was tied together with iron bars, which doubtiess held the walls together. C. E. Fields and Dr. Wright recently purchased the prop-orfy, and they decided to make an effort to straighten it up, and Architect Otto Kleeman has had charge of the work. First excavations were sunk to gravel under the walls, and a solid foundation built upward. It was about eighteen feet down to solid gravel. The foundation havbuilt upward, if was about eighteen teed down to solid gravel. The foundation hav-ing been renewed, next came the more difficult and delicate operation of pushing the entire building southward to make the walls plumb. This has nearly been accomplaned by about thirty jackscrews.

secomplaned by about thirty Jackscrews. Whill Hold Awnual Picsic.—The annual picale of St. Mary's Church (Albina) Al-tar Society and the Sodality will take place tomorrow in Cedar Park, at St. Johns. Good orchestra music has been provided for the occasion. There will also be some appropriate addresses. The gen-eral managing committee is composed of Rev. W. A. Daly, Rev. D. P. Curley and Mesars. D. W. Ward, S. Collins and Oscar Allehoff. On the programme for the day Allehoff. On the programme for the day are many athletic numbers, including races for boys and girls, fat men, silm men, married women, spinsters, jumping, tug-of-war, relay race and spike-driving contest. Prizes will be given for the win-ners of these contests.

Dog POINONER AT MILWAUKIE.-The dog poisoner has been at work in Milwaukie, half a dozen valuable dogs having been poisoned within the past week. Post-master Ballard's beautiful aparilel got a dose, but Mr. Ballard poured a lot of whisky down his throat and the dog blds fair to recover from the poison. E. T. Eimer lost two dogs, one a valuable bird dog and the other a house pet. Arthur Dowling lost a valuable dog and Mr. Fry loat a bird dog also. Marshal Dowling yesterday discovered that poisoned meat had been dropped all over the streets of Milwaukie. DOG POINONER AT MILWAUKIE .- The dog Milwaukie

MAY TEST THE LAW.-It is announced that T. R. A. Sellwood, of Milwaukie, will make a test lawsuit of the recent act will make a test invesuit of the recent act of the Legislature, under which Fruit Inspector Lewis, of Clackamas County, and Commissioner J. H. Reld entered his premises and cut down about 30 prune trees, on the charge that Sellwood had not sprayed them. The papers in the case place his damage at $2,500.

PAPERS ON FRANKS AND CHASSIBIM. The class for the study of sects organized under the auspices of the Society of Jew-ish Women will hold its last meeting at 2:39 o'clock this afternoon in the Selling-Hirsch building. Papers will be presented the Franks and the Chassibim and will ollowed by the usual discussion, led by Stephen S. Wize.

SAYS SHE NEVER TRIED TO GET SPECKART MONEY.

Declares That the Story of a Fight for Possession of Letters Is Ridiculous.

After her return from Seaside yestor-day, Dr. Marie D. Equi, who is alleged to have helped to separate Miss Harriet F. Speckart from her mother, gave out the following statement, denying the charges made by Mrs. Speckart: "The charges are mere nonsense, and not to be discussed seriously. Miss Speckart has never been a patient of mine, and I have never treated her pro-fessionality or otherwise than any woman mine, and I have never treated her pro-feesionally or otherwise than any woman might be expected to treat a young girl needing deserving friends and sympathy. We have become fast friends through the fact that she confided to me her

"The story that there was a fight over the possession of the letters which I wrote to Miss Speckart is ridiculous and wrote to Miss Speckart is ridiculous and a gross exagrention. Certainly, how-ever, nobody had authority to break into the young lady's trunk and steal them. There was nothing whatever incriminat-ing in them, which is shown by the fact that they were turned over to me by the District Attorney after they came into his possession. The letters were obtained from Miss Conceptant by the stategy of his possession. The letters were obtained from Miss Speckart by the strategy of ther relatives, and given to the District Attorney to bolster up their charges against me. Would that official have returned them to me if they had con-tained anything criminal or tending to show that I was trying to secure Miss Speckart's money?

show that I was trying to secure a me Speckart's money? "I have never received a penny from Miss Speckart and have never tried to secure a penny. I am perfectly able to get along without any of the Speckart money. The idea of trying to get any of it never entered my mind." hit.

TROUBLES OF SPECKARTS.

Mrs. M. E. Daggett and Judge Frazer Makes Statements.

Mrs. M. E. Daggett, in speaking of her onnection with the Speckart case, said resterday:

"In my official capacity as an officer of the Juvenile Court I had nothing to with the Speckart affair. The Juvenile Court has had nothing to do with the case whatever. Miss Speckart came to me and asked me to care for her. She had some misunderstanding with her relatives, that is, her mother and her brother, and said

Speckart be sent to my apartments." In connection with the controversy rela-tive to the Speckart case, Judge Frazer, of the Juvenile Court, yesterday made the following statement to The Oregonian: "Mrs. M. E. Daggett's connection with the Speckart case arose merely from a desire to below any one in need of assistvery popular. desire to help any one in need of assist-ance. She is the most charitable, sym-pathetic and kind-hearted person I ever knew, without exception. Hardly a day passes that she does not help one or more women or children who are in distress. Miss Speckart represented that she was afraid of her mother; that her mother had afraid of her mother; that her mother had coerced her into signing a petition to the County Court of Multhomah County ask-ing for the appointment of herself as guardian of the property and person of her daughter. Knowing Mrs. Daggett, Miss Speckart went to her for advice and estates. Mrs. Daggett, brought her to

Mrs. Daggett brought her to me for the purpose of ascertaining what could be done relative to the matter of the petition for guardianship, and I told her what her legal rights were, just as I am called upon to advise women almost every day. to sea. Judge Cameron offered him his liberty yesterday if he would consent to ship on one of the sailing vessels that leave soon. "It will make a man of you," said the court. "You are no good now to yourself or any one else. If you took a voyage before the mast you would learn to do a few useful things, and come back a man." Young Scanlon failed to show any en-thusiasm over the opportunity. Apparent-

When a man can shoot out the light of a candle held in another man's mouth of a cannie neid in another man's mouth at a distance of about ten yards, he is considered out of the ordinary, but the large audience at the Grand yesterday saw this difficult feat performed by a man with both arms off. One of the Lutz brothers, who was here some years ago, is the armless wonder, and, besides being a dead shot, he plays on several musical instruments, drives nails, chops and saws wood, and, in fact, uses his feet better than many man can use their arms. He performed several difficult feats, and the performed several difficult feats, and the number is certainly one of the headliners in vaudeville. Another pleasing number at the Grand yesterday was the Broad-way Trio. Two pretty girls and one man, all three of whom are excellent dancers, give a mimic imitation of a baseball game which simply kept the au-dence in a continuous uproar. dience in a continuous uproar.

Pantages.

There is a long list of good features at the Pantages this week, headed by the Topsy Turvy Trio, with their comedy hit, "O'Dowd From Cohoes." Holmes hit, "O'Dowd From Cohoes." Holmes and Holmes have a good funny sketch, and the Dowlan and Ainsworth company appear with a playlet called "The Ref-eree." All three are funny, and produce fits of laughter. Jean Wilson sings a new illustrated song, and Jennett Monitor performs some difficult contortionist feats. The blograph, with some new moving plo-tures of the destruction of San Francisco, conclude the bill. The plotures are new and extremely interesting. The blouse and extremely interesting. The house was well filled, and the pictures will draw large crowds to the Pantages all this

"Too Many Friends," which, the pro-gramme says, is a potpouri of impossible facts, in two acts, is the chief attraction at the Star this week. Wills and Collins, who are the authors of this comical at-fair, have certainly managed to put bar-rels of foolish comedy into two acts, and although the farce is without a story, it keeps the audience laughing from start to finish. Everything comes out all right in the end, but while the piay lasts some one is in hot water all of the time. It all evolves around the notion that a mar-ried man can conceal from his wife what he was doing while she is away. A chorus has been introduced, with some pretty girls and good volcas. The sketch is well presented, and will undoubtedly he a strong drawing card throughout the week. The Star stock company is now an established institution, and becoming very popular.

PUTER IN ALAMEDA JAIL May Not Be Returned Immediately

to This City. According to telegraphic advices re ceived by The Oregonian last night, S. A. D. Puter is still confined in the Alameda County Jail, although United States Commissioner Heacock, of San Francisco has ordered him removed to Portland. He will not be taken here, however, by the Federal authorities of the Northern Dis trict of California, it is alleged, until the court at this place is ready for his reception; so the question of the arrival

Simple but Nutritious Foods Best for Summer Months.

The coming of hot weather is invariably accompanied by a large increase in trou-bles due to dietary indiscretions. This is almost entirely the result of over-indul-gence in food.
