BUTTER - Local situation un-****************** The hop market still presents a dull appearance. There was said to be a considerable amount of inquiry yesterday, but no ness resulted. Some members of the trade asserted they could buy good primes from dealers at 10 cents or even half a cent but this was disputed by others. The few growers who have holdings certainly ald not part with them as these figures and probably would not accept under 12% cents, if they would take that. With the very small demand would stimulate the market, but it does not seem possible to interest brawers at this time. A Portland dealer who is now in the East wired his office yesarday that the market there is stagnant and that browers will not consider offers at any terday stated that the lice had practically disappeared from his yard. The cold night weakened the bugs and then the hard rains washed them away. This more than made up for what damage was done to the vines by the wind. The rainfall will also enable the growers to cultivate their yards thoroughly now, and for that reason is is hoped a spell of settled weather will come.

In discussing the situation yesterday M. H. Gilbertson said:

"I think there is every reason to believe that before the new crop comes on hope will be selling again as high as they were in the latter part of April. There never was mand. The brewers are holding off now because they think there are more hops in the their mistake before long and then when they cant hope, where will they get them?

"As for the new crop market, it looks as the best prices will prevail at the first of the season. If the present conditionis continus and nothing happens to the European not put up with this long, and it would not surprise me to see them declare a boycott at any time against Oregon hope."

Drouth in Louisiana Is Worrying Planters

— Market Is Strong.

The latest advices received from the leading rice markets indicate a further sittening of values. Drouth prevails in Leuisiana that may seriously sherten the crop. The statistical position is strong. Distribution in Texas and Louisiana in May was about 300,000 pockets and the visible supply in the two states has been reduced to about 600,000 pockets. has been reduced to about 600,000 pockets. The latest report from Crowley, Lu., says of Texas rice belt is doing considerable damage at present, and unless generous downpours days, the result is not a pleasant matter for planters to anticipate. The two sections that seem to be the worse affected by the drouth is that territory in the Crowley neighborhood, in Louisiana, and the south Texas rice belt, around Bay City, Markham and Lane City. Nine weeks have passed since rain fell in the Crowley section, and a person can well imagine the condition much of the early rice

NEW FIRST-CROP TEA.

Shipment Will Arrive on the Arabia, Due

Here in a Week. first-crop Japan tea will reach this city on the Portland & Asiatic steamer Arabia, which is due here June 21. Jobbers ciate that the market this year will be about the same as last. A circular received from "The first arrivals of new-crop pickings came in on April 27, being one week earlier than last year. Reports from the interior are that the picking of the Enshut district will be short 15 to 20 per cent, due to the inclement weather. Priose at present, taking quality into consideration, are much higher than last season, and may be maintained for a short time, but we expect a lower range after the departure of the next steamer. Foreign and native firms are buying freely at present high prices, in order to rush shipments of choice early teas to the Eastern markets, Arrivals have also been very large, but stocks are not increasing. The quality of new crop up to date is inferior to last season, particularly in atyle, the leaf being eason, particularly in style, the leaf being coarse and loosely rolled; however, the cup

GOOD DEMAND FOR CHICKENS.

Large Number of Visitors Causes Active Buying-Eggs Are Firm.

The demand for chickens was exceptionally nod yesterday and though receipts were large, they cleaned up quickly. The strong inquiry was attributed to the large number of visitors in the city attending the reunions and conventions.

The same cause was given for the active novement in eggs. Arrivals were moderatelarge, but did not appear to be evenly distributed. An effort made to advance the price did not meet with general success. Several firms quoted 22 cents and one dealer put up his price to 22% cents. The advance, however, met with resistance on the part of uyers, yet the holders appeared equally indifferent, showing their faith in the future of the market. Some sales were known to be made at 22 cents, but the bulk of the day's business was at 21 to 21% cents, accordng to the size of the lots.

The butter market is drifting along without change. The output of the city creameries is heavy, but is being disposed of one way or another. Some of the local creamerymen consider the market strong, but others are of a contrary opinion. For cutside brands the tone is certainly weak.

FRESH PRODUCE SELLS BETTER.

Milder Weather Improves Demand for Fruits

and Vegetables. Receipts of fruits and vegetables were large yesterday, but the milder weather was the cause of a better demand and most of the arrivals were cleaned up. Peaches were the exception, however, and a considerable stock was still on hand at the close of the day. Quotations on this fruit were 90 cents to $1 a box. Oregon cherries moved well at $1 and California at 75 cents to $1 a box. Leone. local cherries were not in much demand. Recelpts of cantaloupes were larger and a part of the shipments were sent on. A wire from Brawley, Cal., said a crate of waterm would be shipped to Portland a week from Fancy hothouse tomatoes are now arriving from Oregon City and bring 25 cents a pound. A lot of fine wax beans from The Dalles was quoted at 10 cents. Green corn is more plentiful, but is slow at the high price. Stockton onions of fine quality are freely effered at $1.50. New potatoes sell readily.

Sugar Arrives by Ball,

There were heavy receipts of augar by rall from Ban Francisco yesterday, and sugar will arrive in this manner every day until steamer service is resumed. There were no changes in the Coast or Eastern markets yesterday.

NEW YORK, July 14.—The sharp break in today's stock market was the natural consequence of the market conditions for several days past. The failure of the Government crop report on Monday to sustain prices evidently proved a great disappointment to the epeculative operators for the advance. The speculative operators for the advance. The decline since then has brought a realizing sense of the difficulties of securing profits in the present market. Previous success in advancing prices served to obscure the narrow limits of the market. So long as selling was withheld and the professional element were agreed in buying stocks the rise in prices was not difficult to account for. But the events of the week have awakened the conductors of the campaign to the difficulty of disposing of their stocks at the higher level to which prices have been pushed. The formation of a well-organized bear party was also to be perceived in the action of the market and in the attacks on some of the stocks made vulnerable by undue manipulation. Rumor was busy with the supposed identity of the leaders of the new bear campaign and the formidable prestige attached pairs and the formidable prestige attached to some of the names used made these rumors an evil porient to the less confident holders of long stock. Among the ranks of these were some influential market organizations which had accumulated special stocks in pool holdings. That there was extensive unleading of pool holdings today was the current belief.

The falling off in domestic exports for May, due to the large declins in the value of cotton sent abroad, was not a favorable factor, owing to the large reliance placed upon foreign money sources for relief from strain the coming season. The Treasury Department's call for the return of $19,000,000 on deposit with National banks on July 10 was felt to complicate the money outlook. On July 1 falls due the requirement for the second installment of the increase in the trust company reserves made obligatory by the new state law. It is estimated that this will call for $12,000,000 in addition to the cash now held by the New York trust companies.

Flags Displayed at The Dalles.

THE DALLES, Or., June 14 - (Special)-Fing day was generally observed here to-day by the display of colors on most of the business houses, offices and residences throughout the city, together with the presentation exercises of James W. Ne-smith Post G. A. R., and the Woman's Relief Corps, which took place at the old Fort Dalles building this afternoon. At this time a handsome 24-foot flag was presented to the Oregon Historical Society by Post Adjutant J. M. Patterson on behalf of the post and corps.

A historical paper, entitled "The Flag at Fort Dalles," was read by Mrs. C. J. Crandall. B. S. Huntington responded to the presentation speech for the historical society. During the raising of the flag on the old building-the "Star-Spangled Ban-ner" was sung by Rev. D. V. Poling. Re-freshments were served by the women of the society to the post, corps and a large number of friends present.
