KELLY CLAN REUNION.—The Kelly Clan will hold its annual reunion today at the home of Dr. Richmond Kelly, at Kenilworth, on the Woodstock Railway. It will take place regardless of the weather. It is too wet for the banquet will take place indoors, provisions having been made for such a contingency. The clan represents the descendants of four Kellys, all of whom were Oregon pioneers, and these descendants are scattered throughout Oregon and California. For several years preparations have been going on at the homes of the members of the clan for the banquet that will be spread. There is usually a show of business, and the evening is followed by the banquet at 7 P. M. Then comes the reading of the records of the past year, which includes marriages, births, deaths and other incidents. Rev.
John Flinn, an honored pioneer, will be the guest of honor and deliver the principal talk after the banquet, and will be followed by talks by members of the clan.
The reunion is the feature of the occasion. Unpropitious weather does not dampen the spirits of the clan, especially the younger members, who are looking forward to the year to which they look with pleasure and with delight. Mrs.
Van B. DeLashmutt will have charge of the program.

FOUND BY DRUGGIST STRUCK BY LAMBS.— Ernest Ingbersten, 40 years old, in a complete stupor due to intoxication, was picked up yesterday probably keep his money at home in the future when going out on a spree.

EXCHANGES SAILOR'S SUIT FOR CIVILIAN

seems to have been the motto of a sailor and donned a new suit of clothes belonging to Mr. Mann, and leaving a very dirty pair of overalls, a jumper and an army blouse. The name of the sailor was probably H. R. Brown, as that is the name which appears on the inside of the jumper. Before leaving he drank some milk from the pantry but did not touch anything else in the house. He was seen leaving the house at 9 o'clock yesterday morning as he was leaving the house by a neighbor and is described as being of middle stature, clean shaven and of very dark complexion. Police Officer Smith, who investigated the affair, thinks the man is a deserter from one of the war vessels.

Officer C. H. Wheeler this morning inspected the conditions long Hawthorne the presence of the water there is not menace to health, as had been feared.

The slough is a very shallow body of water in the slough at this time, constantly fed from the pure spring water from Hawthorne Springs, and the water constantly removes and leaving a very dirty

ROB AND STAB HIM

George S. Dingman Victim of

THIRTY DOLLARS SECURED

While Resisting Dingman Is Cut Across the Left Hand and the Highwaymen Make Good
Their Escape.

George S. Dingman, a resident of Minnesota, and a visitor to Portland to determine the advertising business, was assaulted, stabbed in the left hand and robbed of $30 by two men at Tenth and Madison streets at 10:30 o'clock last night.

Mr. Dingman is an old man and the accident of being robbed and cut worked greatly on his nerves. He was taken to a physician's office and the wound dressed.

From his boarding place at 212 Seventh street, Dingman started for a walk about 10 o'clock and after wandering around for some time he started home. At Tenth and Madison streets, while walking leisurally, his hands behind his back, he was grabbed by two men who had stolen up behind him. While the men were holding him tightly with one hand each they used their disengaged ones to search his pockets. One of the men procured $30 from his trousers pocket.

Dingman grasped and held one of the robbers when they attempted to run, and in a hand to hand fight which followed a knife was drawn and Dingman was badly cut across the top of his left hand.

The holdup broke from the old man's grasp and fled down Madison street.
Before going to a physician Dingman notified Captain Glover of the holdup and the latter sent Detective Smith to try to locate the thugs. The detective has suspicions which he will not divulge.

Both Held Under Peace Bonds.

Two Hundred and Thirty-six Happy Brides to the Altar.

THE doings of Dan Cupid have enriched the income of the County Clerk's has caused a general feeling of relief and
