Burdick Not To Annul Marriage To Ex-Secretary

Washington—(UPI)—Elderly Rep. Usher L. Burdick (R.-N.D.) has decided he doesn't want to annul his marriage to his young blonde former secretary, after all.

Why the 79-year-old Congressman changed his mind remained a mystery. Burdick was not commenting.

But an aide said no reconciliation was involved.

Asks Suit Be Dropped

The assistant, C. J. Berry, said Wednesday Burdick had sent a telegram to the clerk of the Cass County District Court in North Dakota asking that his annulment suit be dropped.

The wealthy rancher-politician and 30-year-old Mrs. Jean Rodgers were married here on Feb. 28. He has said she agreed to marry if he promised to give her his Washington home and provide for her four-year-old son by a previous marriage which ended in divorce.

A few weeks later, however, Burdick filed an annulment suit in Fargo, N.D., contending the nuptials had never been consumated.

Mrs. Rodgers promptly filed a suit of her own here asking for $400 temporary monthly alimony.

Burdick's attorneys argued that the woman's suit should be dismissed. They said the lawmaker was unable to consumate the marriage because of physical disabilities, Mrs. Rodgers herself never intended to consumate it, and her Reno divorce from her first husband was inadequate.

EXPERIENCED

Sharon, Vt.—(UPI)—Don E. Moore, 87, was re-elected for another three-year term as town lister and said "I guess it's experience that counts." Moore was first elected to the job in 1889 and has held the post ever since.

Adams Case Seen Boost To Demos

Springfield, Ill. — (UPI) — U.S. Sen. Paul H. Douglas (D.-Ill.) told Illinois Democrats Wednesday the Sherman Adams case should boost Democratic determination to "really clean up the moral mess created by the Republicans."

Douglas, speaking at a $25-a-plate dinner in connection with the party's state convention, said the Adams case also "should cause our Republican friends to be less self righteous and less vitriolic in their denunciation of Democrats."

The Senator said Adams was "guilty of a cheap and tawdry action" which brought the Presidency into "disrepute" and hurt the United States in the eyes of the world."

Mink predominates in the fine fur field and in an average year about 60 per cent of all raw furs purchased in the U. S. are those of the mink.

Skelton, Family Will Visit Tokyo

Hollywood— (UPI) —Comedian Red Skelton, whose 9-year-old son Richard, died early in May after a long battle with leukemia, left Wednesday night with his family for a five-week vacation which will take them to Tokyo.

First stop for the red-haired comic, his wife, Georgia, and their 11-year-old daughter, Valentina, was Seattle. From there, they planned to go to Anchorage, Alaska, and then to Tokyo.

Skelton must be back to open at the Hotel Riviera in Las Vegas Aug. 4.

HOUSE HITS CAR

Seymour, Ind. — (UPI) — Ralph Pardieck, 29, escaped uninjured when his house ran into a car. Pardieck was towing a cabin down a city street when a projecting corner smashed the fender of a parked car.
