Week End Accidents Fatal To 11 Persons in Oregon

By United Press International

Oregon counted at least 11 persons dead in accidents over the week end, seven in traffic, three by drowning and one tractor fatality.

A 75-year-old woman and her grandson were killed and two other persons injured seriously in a one-car crash Sunday on the Baldock freeway south of Portland. Dead were Mrs. Dora Fisher, Spokane, the grandmother, and Bruce Melendy, 12. Mrs. Arthur M. Todd, 42, Eugene, Bruce's mother, and another son, 17-year-old Gary Melendy, were in "fair" condition in a Portland hospital.

The car plunged off the Wilsonville bridge about one-half mile south of Wilsonville junction.

Other Sunday Crashes

There were four other traffic victims Sunday.

They were Michael Nietling, 79, Sublimity, whose motorscooter collided with a car near Stayton and threw him into the path of a second car; John Scott Barker, 5, Vernonia, a passenger in a car that collided with another auto on highway 47 three miles north of Vernonia; Larry Michael Leinonen, 17, whose car left the highway four miles east of Clatskanie, and David J. Steinnacher, West Linn, who died in a Portland hospital of injuries suffered when his motorcycle skidded into a curb near the Ross Island bridge on the west approach.

A 28-year-old Canyon City logging fire operator, Keith McKenna, died in the crash of his pickup truck Saturday night on highway 395 about 14 miles south of John Day.

Harold Keith, 44, Dallas, died in a Portland hospital Sunday night from injuries sustained Saturday morning when he was pinned under a tractor on his farm.

Drownings Listed

Drowning victims included Thomas Van Duesen, Aumsville, who apparently slipped struck his head on a rock and toppled into the Santiam river late Sunday while fishing with companions. Dragging operations for the body, called off because of darkness Sunday night, resumed at daybreak Monday.

Fred A. Murray Jr., 18-year-old airman from Portland airbase, vanished in the Columbia river Saturday night after deciding to go for a swim at Rooster Rock state park with other airmen. Murray's body was located about one hour and 40 minutes later by sheriff's deputies. It was the first drowning at Rooster Rock since the park was dedicated last July.

Ronald Edwin Decker, 10, Portland, drowned in the Sandy river Saturday during a family outing when he attempted to retrieve a floating stick.

Paris—(UPI)—Errol Flynn, who blew 7 million dollars while living high on the hog, is back in the chips and feeling chipper again.

Vernon Scott

"I'm worth about 4-million bucks right now," he boasted between takes of his new movie. "But three years ago I was stone broke and up to my ears in hock.

"How did I get that way? By spending money as if there were no tomorrow," he said, answering his own question. "I have a great talent for spending. The public expected me to be a play-boy, and I didn't want to let people down.

"When I was broke, I didn't let it worry me. There was a time when I couldn't afford to buy an automobile, but I managed to hang onto my yacht, the 'Zaca' no matter how badly things went."

Plays Boozer

Flynn's luxurious yacht, which won him more headlines than a South American revolution, now is anchored in the Mediterranean available for Flynn's own brand of parties.

Beneath the actor's superficial bon vivant facade lies a strong determination to prove himself as an actor.

"For the first time I'm serious about my work," he said. "For years I used to dash on and off camera wielding a sword and rescuing pretty girls. This was acting?

"I didn't deserve all the money they gave me, but I was willing to spend it. Now I'm acting instead of swashbuckling."

Flynn, never adverse to a belt of the grape in real life, plays a boozer in Darryl Zanuck's "Roots of Heaven" for 20th Century-Fox in which he is co-starred with Trevor Howard and newcomer Juliette Greco.

He owes much of his comeback to mogul Zanuck, who hired Flynn for "The Sun Also Rises" last year when it appeared the actor's career was just about finished.

The Four-Million

About the four million dollars?

"In addition to my salary several investments have begun to pay off," he grinned. "I have property in Jamaica that proved to be a drain for years. Now it's coining money—probably worth three million today.

"I'm 48 years old now. I've lived hard, spent hard and behaved as I damned well chose. You'd think I'd be ready for the wheel chair set after the last 20 years of hell-raising, but I never felt better.

"The future looks bright and busy for me, too. However," he added in his faint English accent, "I am disturbed by my next picture assignment.

"In 'The Boy Friend,' I'm required to play a total abstainer. That, old bean, will call for all my powers as an actor!"

Red China Starts Nuclear Reactor

Tokyo — (UPI) — Communist China announced today that its first experimental nuclear reactor has gone into operation.

The New China News agency in a broadcast monitored in Tokyo said "China's first reactor of the heavy water type has gone into operation in the course of the current big leap forward in socialist construction."

The agency said that a cyclotron has also been completed and is ready for research work.

"Those two items of equipment have been built, with considerable and valuable assistance by the Soviet Union to promote China's scientific and technological development in the sphere of atomic energy," the agency added.

"With their completion China moves into the age of atomic energy."

SINGER IMPROVES

Hollywood — (UPI) — Singer Roberta Linn was reported in "satisfactory" condition today at Cedars of Lebanon hospital where she was hospitalized with pneumonia.

You can move mountains!

Wherever you live, blight is a danger to your personal and economic security. Slums breed silently, strike swiftly, reach out faster and further than you think.

That's why so many people have banded together to fight blight. They've won many a victory, helped move many a mountain.

In Chicago, one woman organized fifty Block Clubs to prevent neighborhood decay. In Norristown, Pa., the real estate board got 500 substandard housing units improved, 50 hopeless slum units destroyed. In Dayton, Ohio, high school students analyze neighborhood problems, publish a neighborhood newsletter to keep residents alert to blight.
