The Beavers won yesterday's game handily, 6 to 1. There were two very noticeable features. The first was that the Beavers have recovered their batting eyes; the second that the Siwashes need a little education in baseball ethics. It is not usual for a big hulk of a back to the beach and for nine. player to sit on the bench and for nine player to sit on the bench and for nine innings bandy questionable personali-ties with fans in the grandstand, par-ticularly when there are at least 100 respectable women scattered within respectable women scattered within hearing distance, who come out to see the game played and not to hear a flow of Bowery slang.

Russ Hall has shown himself to be a level-headed, capable manager and it is not befitting him to stand any such despicable work by his hired men. Vickers is the player who was guilty. He is, as he says, harmless, but just the same a harmless individual sometimes becomes thresome and offensive. Householder also has shown no disposition to shut off his flood of fan-baiting. Householder may have been right in the bat episode, but that is neither here nor there. It is very poor business for him to keep the matter stirred up by getting mean at every oppertunity.

Publicus Virgilius Garvin got an awful drubbing yesterday and it was really drubbing yesterday and it was really too bad, but the old boy had absolutely nothing that the Beavers could not lay into for smashes of the ripe, solid kind. Fourteen binglets in all—long, scratch and bunched. On the other hand Henderson pitched as pretty a game as the could wish for. He was right there one could wish for. He was right there all the time and had the Siwashes fad-ed from the clang of the gong.

The home guard did some pretty fielding work, not an error being chalked agains them, Sweeney, Mitchell and McHale being the bright particular stars.

Jimmy McHale crossed the dish in the first and Charile Moore, who, by the way, since his rest is playing the game for your life at second, did likewise in the third. In the next Sweeney slashed one through second, Manager Mac got one by a fielder's choice and Jud Smith wired, a concluse to the left field fence.

swiped a cuckoo to the left field fence for three sacks and then came home on Donny's timely fly to Van Buren. Moore and Henderson trotted around in the fifth by some clever team hitting and Mitchell made another in the sev-

Scattle's tally came in the fourth, Van Buren making the circuit on hits by himself and Householder, After that Benny Henderson decreed curtains and black coffee for the visitors. Bill Sweeney made a clean sheet in the hitting line, tearing off three choice es and Charlie Moore ran a good secwith three out of four, including a vo-bagger. Gum will be pitted against Welch or Vickers this afternoon, This series is the hottest and most bloodthirsty seen on the local grounds this year and the grandstand was filled with red-hot par thans yesterday.
