hey asserted that McAdoo had arm.

Aimself with a revolver, announcing that he would kill Schuyler on sight should his sister return to him. After three months' estrangement the couple had just effected a reconciliation, and were in fear of the consequences.

The couple told an unusual story. They attributed the brother's dire threats to his jealousy of his sister's husband. McAdoo seemed to faink, they said, that Schuyler was held uppermost by the sister, and he proclaimed that to be unmatural and wrong, insisting that a brother should come before a mere husband.

That's the reason he wants to kill me—he says his sister cares more for me than for him,' said Schuyler. 'We asy lived happily together until he walt. Police Captain Moore detailed an officer to escort Mrs. Schuyler to he room, while she secured her effects. Schuyler rouble.

will of Ann Sollers, who died I

21, 1996, was filed for probate in the County Court yesterday. Deceased left property in Clackamas County valued at $1000. The will bequeathed Ldzale Sollers Jones $5, the balance of the property being devised to the husband, George Sollers, who was named as executor.

Frank Melvin, O. M. Hickey and M. Armstrong, of Portland, have been appointed appraisers of the estate of P. R. Tiffany, deceased.

Judge Webster yesterday signed an order discharging Henry Johnson as administrator of the estate of Joseph N. Carlson, affairs having been wound up.

FAMOUS ARTIST IS COMING

Charles H. Harmon Will Paint Pictures of Oregon Scenery.

Charles H. Harmon, the painter of Colorado scenery, is due to reach Portland within a week and it is expected he will make pictures of some of Oregon's scenic attractions. Mr. Harmon has been making paintings of Colorado Scenery for the use of the Colorado Midland Railway and he has made a great success of a picture of Heil Gate on the line of that railway. This point is one of the most famous scenic points in America and is the highest point reached by any transcontinental broad gauge line. In his painting, Mr. Harmon has succeeded in catching the sweep and grandeur of natural mountain scenery, for which photography is entirely inadequate. Charles H. Harmon, the painter of

ORDINANCE PROVIDING FOR ELECTRICAL INSPECTOR.

Ways and Means Committee of Council Acts-Assistant Building Inspector Allowed.

Steps were taken yesterday by the Council committee on ways and means to provide for the office of electrical inspector, whose province it shall be to ex-amine all who wish to follow the trade of electrician. There appeared before the committee at its meeting representaore-and of the Electrical Workers' Union, who presented the advantages and necessities for having such an inspector. These men urged that the city adopt such regulations for electricians as are embodied in the rules of the Board of Fire Underwriters, but the Council committee preferred to draft the rules for such an office themselves, Accordingly, Councilmen Masters, Rush and Bennett were appointed a special committee to were appointed a special committee to draft an ordinance for presentation to the Council providing for the creation of the office of electrical inspector and such du-ties as they deem it expedient to give

TEACHERS TO MEET HERE State Association Will Convene in Portland Next November.

At a meeting of the executive com-mittee of the State Teachers' Association held in the City Hall yesterday afternoon plans were laid for the annual convention of the association which will be held in this city November 26 to 28 inclusive. Just the bare skeleton of the programme for the convention was discussed and the features cannot be announced for some time as they must be arranged by correspondence. #### Burke's Celebration Annoys Neighbors

He Smushes Furniture and Shoots Holes in Celling, but Is Sleeping Quietiy When Policeman Arrives on Scene.

AMES BURKE, of 782 Kelly street, had the time of his life yesterday morning, breaking up the furniture of his home, shooting a few shots into the ceiling and otherwise conducting himself in an unladylike manner. Wnile Burke was drunk enough to do these things he was sober enough to evade arrest; although if he repeats the performance the neighbors say they are going to take the matter up and have him put in fall for disturbing the peace. Burke's disturbances commenced at 2 o'clock in the morning and word of the trouble was sent to the police station over half a dozen different phones. In fact the whole neighborhood was aroused. Patrolman Fones was sent to the house in haste. He got there to find the house as quiet as a cemetery.

Stepping inside the officer noted a chaos of ruined furniture while the air was still thick with powder smoke, draft an ordinance for presentation to the Council providing for the creation of the Office of electrical inspector and such duties as they deem it expedient to give him.

An assistant to Building Inspector Spencer was allowed with a salary of Spencer was allowed with a salary of 125 a month, to take effect Angust 1. William K. Benvie will receive this ap-to some of the aroused neighbors, though, and reports that they will get out an arrest warrant if Burke gives another such serenade.
