Unity Rites Wed Couple On Thursday

Miss Dorothy Elisabeth Schoenemann became the bride of Dr. Paul Judson Dix, 1256 Eureka circle, in a ceremony Thursday, November 24, at the Unity Center of Medford, 995 South Oakdale avenue. The Rev. Katharine Bosworth officiated at the double ring rites held at 11:30 o'clock in the morning.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Schoenemann, Route 1, box 224, Gold Hill, and until recently was the social directress for the Matson Lines aboard the SS Mariposa. Dr. Dix, a Medford dentist, is a son of Mrs. Alton Peterson, Oak Park, Ill., and Paul B. Dix, Minneapolis, Minn.

The bride wore a ballerina length frock of pale blue French lace designed by Augustine of Papeete, Tahiti. Her face veil was blue and held by a pearl band. She carried a bouquet of white orchids.

Following the ceremony a dinner was held for members of the immediate families of the couple at the Crown room at the Mark Antony hotel, Ashland.

The couple will be at home in Medford after their return December 18 from a trip to Chicago and Minneapolis. For traveling the bride wore a grey suit with white orchid corsage.

Pictures Of Hawaii To Be Shown

Pictures of Hawaii will be shown by Mr. and Mrs. Edward Canoose at 1 p.m. Monday at the Arm Chair Travel Club at the Senior Activities center, 601 East Jackson st. They also have pictures of the children's zoo at Disneyland and of Marine Land.

The Rev. Locklen Gregory, Gold Hill, showed colored pictures of mountains and valleys in New Mexico last Monday. Among them were unusual scenes taken in Carlsbad Cavern, Santa Fe, and at Presbyterian Mission school in a remote part of the state where there were no public schools.

Club members have expressed their thanks to the persons who have shown pictures at their meetings.

Busy Week

Monday will begin a busy week at the center. The Arm Chair Travel club meets in the afternoon and the beginning Spanish class is from 7:30 to 9 p.m. Oil painting is scheduled Tuesday from 1 to 4 p.m.; wood carving, Wednesday, 1-3 p.m.; conversation Spanish, Thursday, 1-2.

The center is closed Friday and all senior citizens are invited to the weekly social meetings of the Medford Fifty-Plus club at the Episcopal Guild hall, Fifth street and Oakdale avenue, from 12:30 to 4 p.m.

Shuffleboard games are played from 10 to 12 a.m. Saturday.

All those interested are invited to visit the center and to browse through the book, magazine and record collections.

Shoppers Find Food Plentiful

(The following guide to the nation's plentiful food buys for the week ending Nov. 26 was prepared for United Press International by the U.S. Department of Agriculture and Interior.)

Washington —(UPI)— Post-holiday food shoppers will find a plentiful array of first-rate foods to choose from this week end.

Turkeys continue one of the outstanding buys, along with broiler-fryers. Red meats will be plentiful, too, such as beef roasts and steaks, and in pork, roasts, chops and bacon and hams.

Many markets will feature legs of lamb and lamb chops as budget items. Dairy products also remain in abundant supply, with many choice items to choose from.

At the vegetable bin, most old-time favorites are still available. These include brussels sprouts, cabbage, cauliflower, cucumbers, onions, potatoes, sweet potatoes, turnips, radishes, squash of several kinds, snap beans, celery, and lettuce.

Many markets have good supplies of green peppers and carrots.

In the fruit line, look for excellent supplies of cranberries, grapes, pears, apples of numerous varieties, oranges, grapefruit, lemons, limes, bananas and avocados.

Teacher Booked On PTA Program

Mrs. Angus Todd, teacher of Bible history in Medford Public schools, will present the Christmas story in flannelgraph at a meeting of Griffin Creek Parent-Teacher association Thursday, December 1.

A short business meeting at 8 p.m. will open the program. Group singing will be led by Miss Patricia Leek, accompanied by Mrs. Mariece Lindsay. "Mystery entertainment" also is planned.

Mrs. Arthur Savage, ways and means chairman, has asked members to gather clothing and miscellaneous items for the rummage sale which will be held December 2 and 3 at the Fehl building. Articles may be left at the school.

The meeting will be held in the gymnasium. Refreshments will be served by mothers of pupils in Mrs. Ethel Cummings first grade room. Mrs. P. K. Nelson and Mrs. Thomas Carlton are in charge.

Degree of Honor To Hold Election

Election of officers will be held Monday, November 28, during the meeting of the Degree of Honor Protective association at 7:45 p.m. at the Girls Community club.

Following the business meeting officers will serve as hostesses for the social hour.

Couple Married Recently In California Ceremony

A wedding of interest to valley residents was held November 12 at St. Stephen's Episcopal church, San Luis Obispo, Calif., when Miss Susan Arlene Wright, daughter of Mrs. Hazel Wright, 3321 Jacksonville highway and Clifford Horn, 101 South Keeneway drive, Medford, became the bride of Thomas Allen Henderson, son of Mrs. Cliff La Follette, San Luis Obispo, Calif.

The Rev. Kenneth Bradford Brown officiated at the one o'clock afternoon rites, attended by 40 friends and relatives. Baskets of white zinnias decorated the altar, and white sat in bows marked the pew ends for the double ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her parents, wore a white silk organza frock styled with a pleated cummerbund which ended in a back bow, three-quarter length sleeves, square neckline decorated the altar, and white sequins, and flared skirt. Her fingertip length veil of illusion was held by a crown of seed pearls and sequins and her single diamond necklace was a gift from her mother. She carried a bouquet of white rosebuds encircling a white orchid.

Miss Loretta Foard, Mt. Diablo, Calif., was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Marcella Moore, San Luis Obispo, and Miss Pamela Marlett, Englewood, Calif. Miss Foard wore a frock of pink tafefta, Miss Moore wore baby blue taffeta and Miss Marlett was in champagne-beige taffeta. They all wore tiny net veils to match their dresses and their flowers were pink carnations.

Mark Wright, Medford, Oregon, brother of the bride, was ring bearer.

James Little, El Centro, Calif., served as best man and seating the guests were Craig Wright, brother of the bride, Medford, and William Goldsberry, nephew of the bridegroom, San Luis Obispo.

For her daughter's wedding and the reception which followed in the church, Mrs. Wright wore a deep lavender wool dress with black accessories. Mrs. La Follette wore a blue wool suit with black accessories. Their corsages were of white orchids.

Mrs. Walter Hailey, San Luis Obispo, cut and served the wedding cake and Miss Carol Force, Lafayette, Calif., served punch, both assisted by Mrs. Earl Henderson, San Luis Obispo, sister-in-law of the bridegroom. Miss Paddy Force, Lafayette, was in charge of the guest book.

The couple traveled to Salinas, Calif., on their wedding trip, the bride wearing for traveling a grey wool suit with bone and black accessories. They are making their home at 916 Branch, San Luis Obispo, Calif.

The bride is a 1957 graduate of Crater High school and is now a junior, majoring in elementary education at California State Polytechnic college. The bridegroom attended San Luis High school and is now employed at California State Polytechnic college.

Among the out of town guests attending the wedding were Mrs. Otto Kalie, grandmother of the bride, Bell, Calif.; Mrs. Eddie Jacobs, aunt of the bride, Santa Barbara, Calif.; Mrs. Robert Gallatin, aunt of the bride, Anaheim, Calif.; Miss Barbara Read, Medford, and Mrs. Kathryn Mayben, Ashland.

Women To Hold Day of Prayer

Each year women of all the Baptist churches in the vicinity of Medford are invited to share in a Baptist World Day of Prayer. This year the service will be held at Eastwood Baptist church Friday, December 2, from 10 to 11:30 a.m.

Program materials for the Baptist World Day of Prayer have been written by the Baptist women of Australia and New Zealond. The theme is "Jesus Shall Reign."

A nursery is provided for children during the prayer service.

To increase the life of wallpaper, cover with two coats of lacquer. The added cost is offset by the wallpaper's greater durability.

General Meeting Slated By Local Voters' League

The first general meeting this fall of the Medford League of Women Voters will be held Saturday, December 10, at the Red Cross building. The event was postponed from December 3. Luncheon will be served at 12:30 p.m.

Frank Van Dyke, Medford attorney, will be guest speaker. His talk will concern his work as a member of the legislative interim committee on judicial administration in Oregon. Members of the nonpartisan women's voters group have been studying aspects of the state constitution dealing with judicial administration. Mrs. Robert Hiatt is in charge of the study.

Two meetings of discussion units of the League are scheduled this week. The Monday evening unit will meet at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Thomas Rutter, 1033 Queen Anne avenue, and the new Ashland evening unit will meet at 8 o'clock Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Donald Moore, 496 Beach street.

Mrs. Dunbar Carpenter, league president, stated that the group is anxious that new members and others interested attend the coming general meeting and units.

A meeting of the board of the League is scheduled for the evening of December 7 at the home of Mrs. Fred Burich, 2303 Hillcrest road.

Camp Fire Girls

Okizu Group

Okizu group held a meeting at the home of Cheryl Lyons. The girls held a Thanksgiving ceremonial where they lighted six candles from the main candle which was America. They discussed the meanings of the candles. The girls then received the honor beads they had earned.
