"Mom Takes A Vacation" Theme for SOC Week End

Ashland – "Mom Takes a Vacation," will be the theme for the Mothers' day week end at Southern Oregon college, May 12, 13, and 14, it was announced by Miss Linda Wright, Ashland, president of the Associated Women Students who sponsors the event annually.

Mothers' week end provides parents an opportunity to come to the campus for a series of meetings and social activities climaxed by a luncheon followed by a style show.

Various committees have been formed. Included in the committees is the organizing of the assembly, to be headed by Miss Elizabeth Pramann, Ashland. Miss Beverly Westlund, Klamath Falls, was elected chairman of the programs committee. The invitations to be sent to all mothers and other honored guests will be supervised by Miss Judy Bell, Medford, while Miss Judy Pohl, Klamath Falls, will be in charge of all registration.

Publicity, entertainment, and campus tours, are to be organized by Miss Jan Travis, Winchester; Miss Janice Birdwell, Fort Jones, Calif.; Karen Elle, Lakeview; and Miss Joan Isham, Grants Pass. The style show chairman is Miss Sue Clark, Klamath Falls, with Miss Judy Goss, Lakeview, and Miss Carolee Brantley, Medford, organizing the accompanying tea. There will be a luncheon, supervised by Miss Sharon Washburn, Lakeview, and a coffee hour headed by Miss Phyllis Briggs, Shady Cove.
