On the Air

By ELEANOR WIESE

One of the liveliest TV hours of the year will be seen Monday at 9 p.m. on KBES-TV when two exuberant young ladies, Broadway musical comedy star Julie Andrews and television comedienne Carol Burnett, join in fun and music before a Carnegie Hall audience.

Highlighting the evening's entertainment are three musical satires spoofing strenuous Russian singing-dancing groups, Swiss family folk singers, and the hearty entertainers of the American West.

I happened to see the "Garry Moore Show" the night last fall when Carol and Julie nearly broke up the show with their performance as cowboys of the "Big D." Tremendous, or any other superlative, is the only way to describe their combined talent and vitality. If the rest of the show is as good as "Big D," "Julie and Carol at Carnegie Hall" should be a gasser.

THUNDERBIRD INVITATIONAL, 1 p.m. Sunday KMED-TV. The nation's best golfers compete at the Upper Montclair (N. J.) Country club for $100,000 in prize money.

MOVIE, 2:30 p.m. Sunday KBES-TV. "A Yank at Oxford," an old (1937) movie with a good cast — Robert Taylor, Vivien Leigh, Lionel Barrymore and Maureen O'Sullivan.

WIDE WORLD OF SPORTS 4 p.m. Sunday KMED-TV. The Grand Prix de Monaco, the road race whose course winds through the streets of Monte Carlo, is shown with a pre-race description of the course by current world champion driver Phil Hill.

TWENTIETH CENTURY, 5 p.m. Sunday KBES-TV. "Admiral Byrd." In films and by eye witness accounts the story of the North and South Pole expeditions of Adm. Richard E. Byrd is told.

THIS IS NBC NEWS, 5:30 p.m. Sunday KMED-TV. Reactions of American airmen and British townspeople to the evacuation of a U. S. Air Force base in Sculthorpe, England, will be shown by filmed interviews.

G. E. THEATER, 8 p.m. Sunday KBES-TV. "The Iron Silence." Ronald Reagan and Carol Lawrence appear in a story based on a De Maupassant story about a Russian army officer who must choose between duty and his natural compassion for a persecuted young girl.

STARLIGHT CONCERT, 8 p.m. Sunday KBOY-FM radio. Featured selections include: Eugene Ormandy conducting the Philadelphia Symphony in Saint-Saens' "Dance Macabre," "Toreador Music" from Carmen, and Bach's "Air on the G String"; tenor Alfred Deller singing Elizabethan and Jacobean music accompanied by Consort of Viols.

DU PONT SHOW, 9 p.m. Sunday KMED-TV. "The Movie Star." The complicated reactions of family and fans to the death of a motion picture idol at the peak of his career is dramatized. Dane Clark stars.

HOLLYWOOD SPECIAL, 10:15 p.m. Sunday KBES-TV. "The Kentuckian." Adventures in Texas in the 1820s with Burt Lancaster and Diana Lynn.

U. S. STEEL HOUR, 9 p.m. Wednesday KBES-TV. "You Can't Escape," a drama about three people trapped in a dangerous plot to help an escaped convict, will star Mark Richman of "Cain's Hundred."

DAVID BRINKLEY'S JOURNAL, 9:30 p.m. Wednesday KMED-TV. Subjects include the story of American-educated Dr. Ben Nzeribe who returned to his native Nigeria to help raise the standard of living, and a report on the high percentage of mental illness in New York City.

INDIANAPOLIS 500, 10:30 p.m. Wednesday KBES-TV. Films of the 1962 car racing classic on Memorial Day.

GERMANY: FATHERS AND SONS, 8:30 p.m. Friday KMED-TV. This program, produced in Paris, studies the "Barrier of Silence" which separates older Germans who prefer to forget their Nazi past from younger generation who are questioning their country's recent past.
