THE MORNING OREGONIAN, SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 1, 1906.

Guerrera's men

Whole West in Revolt.

There are many rumors in circulation ns to what may happen September 15 unless a new election is granted.

To add to the general apprehension, the American Protestant missionaries of Ha-vana, who are in general charge of the field, say that reports from missionaries outside of Havana are practically unanimous in stating that the insurrection is sweeping all the country districts in the western half of the Island and that they are unable to continue their work and ride over the routes in their several dis-

Terror of Intervention.

The increasing gravity of the situation has revived discussion of the possibility of intervention by the United States. La Discussion, the semi-official organ of the administration, in an editorial this evening, calls upon Cubans to lay down their arms and save the republic from the danger of intervention. The article appeals to the patriotism of the people leting the results of intervention as follows:

"Permanent intervention would be worse, than death. It would be preferable if the Caribbean should engulf the Pearl of the Antilles.

artiche further appeals thus to racial sentiment:

The colored race may tremble before the possibility of intervention. Americans have and daspise negroes. Even their own ne-groes, whom they have been in contact with for 200 years, are treated like dogs, lynched and hardly considered human. If it is so with negroes of their own land and hal-guage, what would happen to the Cuban megro?

As to what whiles might expect under an intervention, the article says:

Black Picture of Americans.

Our courteous comrades in the public de-partments will be supersaded by men of the type of Bliss (General Tasker H. Bliss), who, when administrator of customs, asked nobody to be seated in his office and who forced the use of the English language. Also instead of our deliberate and refined Judges we should have Judge Pitchers (alluding to Captain W. L. Pitcher, of the Eighth United States Infaniry, who in 1899 was Police Magistrate and Supervisor of Police of Havana) with their "Ten dollars of ten days." Furthermore, we shall have with us beer drinking American officers with clanking spurs, masters of all, captivating our adorable virgins. That this may occur, Cubans fight against Cubans, making room that Fin-Janders, Germans, Americans, Spanlards may come and enjoy the ferundity of our soil and air, the murmuring of our rivers, the beauty of our moonlit nights, the kiss of our sea and even the love of our women, all be cause it is said the elections were not fair is there no other remedy except placing our necks under the yoke of Uncle Sam? This war can have no other end but intervention. Surrenders in small numbers are re-ported from various places, the largest being at Venero on the boundary line of Matanzas and Santa Clara, where 25 men forsook the insurgent cause.

There is no apprehension of an uprisin in the City of Havana, although the city contains a great many insurgents. Many foreigners are registering themselves a their Consulates.

Palma Not Ready to Talk.

President Palma was asked tonight by ment. On the contrary, he protested that so far from having become conservative he was more radical than ever. What he meant by that was explained in full last night. "He is flourishing a whip to the crack of which the party will not respond. He has served an ultimatum, the answer to which will be sufficiently emphatic. The which will be sufficiently emphatic. The bombshell will shatter. There is not a state in the Union in which it will not take immediate effect. The for nomination by the Republican State Convention for United States San-

"An hour ago, so to speak, it was Bryan first, the rest nowhere. Look for a grand transformation scene, with Bryan almost Ible as a probability, scarcely visible possibility. He has disqualified him-He has at one fell swoop converted Mr. Rosewater gained steadily against invisible as a probability, scarcely visible as a possibility. He has disqualified himhimself from a sure winner into an eligibility. Determined to go faster than the President, he has left the track altogeth-Having eliminated himself, the Democratic party must look for a Democratic candidate."

Republicans Gloat With Glee,

The Republican papers naturally view the situation with equanimity and take pleasure in pointing out the alleged mistakes that will disrupt his parly on the eve of its rehabilitation. As to the politicians of all parties, they are awaiting the echoes of the Garden speech with the keenest interest. Within the next day they will probably talk more openly than at present. And right now it looks as if gave evidence of weakness, but revived at one element among them was getting once and addressed the convention. He one element among them was getting ready to be more scared over Bryan, the apostle of Government ownership, than it ever was in the past over Bryan, the apos

WATTERSON TURNS UPON HIM

Government Ownership Impracticable and Means Democratic Defeat.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Aug. 31.-(Special.) -Henry Watterson, the dean of Democ-racy, in a sharp editorial in tomorrow's Courier-Journal, takes issue squarely with Bryan on his Government ownership of raltroads and warns the twice-defeated candidate for the Presidency that the South will not tolerate the idea. The editorial continues in part: "The suggestion as a plank in a Demo "The suggestion as a plank in a Demo-cratic platform at this time is not only impracticable in the highest degree, but, if it were adopted as a fighting line, would cost us the election. It could not be carried out as a policy, even if by some cataclysin we should come to power in spite of it, and it ought not to be adopted or contemplated as a policy by any party having the real good of the people at heart."

SECRET COMPACT FOR PEACE

Bryan Said to Have Agreed With British Premier on Policy.

LONDON, Sept. 1.-(Special.)-The Ex-press, referring to William J. Bryan's declaration in his speech at Madison-Square Gatden that he carried from the President Palma was asked tonight by the Associated Press to give his view of the present situation and whether he believed there was a possibility of ar ranging a peace with the insurgents in a manner sacceptable to the government. He replied: "I regard the present time as inoppor-"I regard the present time as inoppor-

Worn Out by Losing Campaign.

Dr. Charles Rosewater, brother of the dead editor, said to the Associated Press that his brother had often expressed a wish that when he should die it be without lingering illness, and that he would prefer to pass away in the manner in which he dld. Dr. Rosewater attributed the sudden death of his brother to the results which followed the excitement at-ator. The convention was held August 22, and Mr. Rosewater, unanimously sup-ported by the delegation from Douglas his chief opponent, Norris Brown. Fol-lowing the ballot which nominated Brown, Mr. Rosewater delivered an earnest speech to the convention, thanking his friends for their support, and pledging himself to the support of Mr. Brown and the state ticket, and urged the convention to nominate a clean ticket for which no apologies would be necessary."

Indorsed Successful Rival.

Mr. Rosewater, following the convenion, announced through the columns of his paper, the Omaha Bee, that he was out of the Senatorial race. During the campaign, Mr. Rosewater, naturally, was under considerable strain, and following the announcement of the result of the ballot, which gave Mr. Brown a majority, told a close political friend that he felt little worse for the excitement of the campaign, and was strong enough to go into the battle for the election of the state ticket.

Edward Rosewater was noted as one of the most aggressive newspaper editors in the West, and long held a foremost place among Nebraska Republicans. Born in 1841 at Bukovan, a small village in Bohe-mia, he was educated at the village schoo and at the High School at Prague, until he reached the age of 13 years, when he came to the United States. He became a telegrapher at the age of 17, and from 1861 to 1863 he was a member of the United States Milltary Telegraph Corps, be-ing one of General Grant's most trusted telegraphers. In 1868 he went to Omaha any, since absorbed by the Western Union In 1871 he started the enterprise which made his fame and fortune-the Omaha Bee. It was at first a small evening pain a few years converted it into a morn-ing paper. Of late years he has left the management of it to his sons, Victor and Charles, simply retaining the title of edi-

From the beginning of his career as an editor Mr. Rosewater was active in Ne-braska politics. He was a member of the Legislature in 1871: of the Republican Na-Legislature in 1817, of the Republication va-tional Committee in 1822, and of the ad-visory board of that body in 1806, 1900 and 1904. He received many votes on numer-oug ballots for United States Senator in 1901, and made a close race for the same office in the convention recently held. He was a member of the United States Mint Commission in 1887. He represented the Commission in 1897. He represented the United States and was vice-president of the Universal Postal Congress in 1897 at Washington and in 1996 at Rome. He was the original promoter of the Trans-Mississippi Exposition at Omaha in 1897, the most successful exposition financially in America, and was a member of its execu-tive committee in charge of publicity and promotion. He was a delegate and member of the committee on resolutions of the American Conference on International Arbitration at Washington in 1904, and was a member of the executive co of the National Civic Federation.

TELEGRAMS OF CONDOLENCE

as manager of the Pacific Telegraph Com-Hundreds of Messages Received etery.

per, but by his vigorous, progressive, in-dependent policy, Mr. Rosewater built it up into one of the greatest and most in-fluential newspapers of the West, having

A Wonderful Muslin Underwear Sale

A reduction sale of Muslin Underwear at Lipman-Wolfe's always excites the widest interest, for besides the attraction of low prices you are always sure of Lipman-Wolfe quality. Every reduction advertised is exactly true-something that does not happen always at other stores.

Every garment is new, dainty, carefully made, tastefully trimmed and is sold at a price matched nowhere on goods of equal quality, workmanship and beauty. If you want to save money on the muslin garments that you always need, now is the time, and the place is the Lipman-Wolfe store. marth B 85c For women's $1.25 Gown Chemise, high-neck styles, cambric or nainsook, finished with hemstitched ruffles, lace edge, ribbon beading, short or long sleeves.

Coke's Dandruff

$1.19 For fine Nainsook and Cambric Gowns, values to $1.75, slipover and open-front styles, finished with fine embroidery, lace edges and insertion, ribbon beading, short sleeves.

$1.45 For Gowns of fine nain-sook, with fine embroidery insertion, lace beading and ribbon trimmings; values to $2.25 for $1.45.

$1.19 For Walking Skirts made of cambrie; values to $2; very deep flounce, three cluny lace insertions and lace ruffle.

85c For Cambrie Walking | Walking | Skirts; values to $1.25; made with deep ruffles, with tucks and lace insertion, others with tucked ruffle and embroidery trimming.

85c For these $1.25 Corset Cov-ers, made of fine nainsook, daintily trimmed with Valenciennes and clupy laces, insertions and embroidery.

49c For children's 75c Short Ki-monos, made of fine lawn, feather-stitched, with pale blue mercerized thread.

85c For Drawers, made of cam-brie and nainsook; values to $1.25; with yoke of French band finish, dainty lace and embroidery insertion trimmings.

$1.45 For Cambrie Skirts; values to $2.25; with deep lawn flounce, three fine lace insertings, lace-trimmed ruffle and dust ruffle; another style with deep lawn flounce, cluster tucks, trimmed with 5½-inch embroidery.

use they are the

tost

$1.69 For Long Negligee Kimo-nos; values to $2.50; made of fancy figured lawn, trimmed with ruffle and lace.

55c For these 75c Short Kimonos, made of fancy stripe dimity, yoke back and front; others made of white lawn, with fancy Persian band trimming.

98c For Short Kimonos, made of daintily figured and Persian designs, with plain color bands; values to $1.75 for 98c.

at Dorchester, Colo. It has offices at Colorado Springs and Boston. Thomas W. Goodale, of this city, was named re-ceiver. The receiver was asked for in order that the property might be held to-gether and administered as a whole. The company did not oppose this.

of Edward Rosewater, his personal friend,

BOSTON, Aug. II.--Mrs. Cassandria Artell, widow of Dr. John H. Haynes, died yesterday. Her husband was Consul of the Unkted States and field director of the Babylonian expeditions of the Uni-versity of Pennsylvania, and she was the first woman from the Occident to risit Nippur, Assyria, where she went in com-pany with her husband upon an exploring expedition. For some years she was a lecturer.

boarded, there is a printed rule that no loud or ough language shall be used to the size. This is only one illus-tration the melancholy fact that be use anstinct, or self-interest, as a softwe outruns humanity. Perhaps in time, knowledge that gentle treatment of the horse pays in dollars and cents will fliter down from the expert to the owner. Last year one of the portant races in the East, a purse of $10,000, was won by a driver while on the train on his way to New Haven. Mr. Bryan immediately sent the following message to Mrs. Rosewater: "Just learned with great sorrow of your youngest daughter could now be given the four-years' course in a Massachu-setts college which she had long de-sired. One can imagine the caresses which were lavished upon that homebred filly when she returned to her stall after her arduous campaign.

Mining Company Goes Bankrupt.

BOSTON, Aug. 31.—The Taylor Park Mining Company, a Colorado corporation, capitalized at $5,000,000, was placed in the hands of a receiver today. Clarence H. Knight, creditor for $5000, alleged that the company is hopelessly insolvent and owes $315,000.

which can truly be said

100 DOSES ONE DOLLAR

Small PIH. Small Dose Small Price.

company is engaged in mining gold Economy is a strong point with Hood's Sarsaparilla. A bottle lasts longer and does more good than any other. It is the only medicine of Boston Transcript. Boston Transcript. The modern norse is altogether too highly organized and too refined an animal to be dealt with successfully by men who are much inferior to him in these exceeds On the wall of these respects. On the walls of a livery stable in New York, where many speedway troiters and pacers are boarded, there is a printed rule that no

From Friends of Dead Editor. OMAHA, Aug. 31 .- Hundreds of telegrams of condolence have been received by the family from all parts of the United States from friends and relatives of Mr. Rosewater, among them being William J. Bryan and M. E. Stone, gen-eral manager of the Associated Press. Mr. Rosewater's eldest son, Charles, who is business manager of the Bee, will arrive in the city early Sunday morning from the East, where he had but resently gone on a vacation but recently gone on a vacation. The announcement was made tonight that the funeral will be held at 3 o'clock next Sunday afternoon from the rotunda of the Bee building. The services will be under the auspices of the Masons. During Sunday the body will lie in state for a few hours in the Bee build-ing, which will be open to the public. Interment will be in Pleasant Hill Cem-husband's death. Mrs. Bryan joins me in expressions of sympathy. "W. J. BRYAN." Noted Woman Archeologist.

No Swearing Before Horses.

Bryan Sends Sympathy. NEW HAVEN, Conn., Aug. 31 .- William Jennings Bryan learned of the death