PACIFIC COAST LEAGUE

Table with columns: Team, Won, Lost, P.C. for various teams including Portland, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Oakland, and Fresno.

If San Francisco must be presented with an occasional game, those pennant-chasers of ours should, in order to preserve the ethics of the game, make the presentation without yesterday's pose.

Up to this time, the Seals had found Gum for five hits, three of which were scattered through five innings.

How the Seals Scored.

Hildebrand was on third and Irwin on second, and Hildebrand tried the squeeze play. This muffed up Mr. Donahue greatly and the run down of Hildebrand began.

These three runs were enough to win the game. Jud Smith poled out a two-bagger in the last half of the ninth.

Table with columns: Player, AB, R, H, PO, A, E for San Francisco and Portland teams.

RIOTING IF NO FIGHT

Goldfield Miners Warn Managers Against Fizzle.

SPORTS POUR INTO TOWN

Notice Given Somebody Will Be Hurt if the Miners Don't See Fight, Both Men Train Hard.

GOLDFIELD, Aug. 31.—In spite of the wrangling and objections by overzealous managers, there seems no doubt that the fight between Gans and Nelson, scheduled for 3 o'clock Monday afternoon, will be pulled off on time.

Somebody Hurt If No Fight.

The men working in the mines in and around Goldfield are very much worked up over the situation, and are not at all backward in saying: "If we don't see a fight, someone will be hurt."

The promoters of the fight, while asserting the peaceful habits and orderly conduct of the citizens of Goldfield when things go to suit the ring, are in fine fettle as to what will be done if the fight should turn out to be a fizzle.

Both training camps were crowded late this afternoon while the lightweights trained. Gans, in particular, was in fine fettle and he worked harder than any day since the signing of articles.

Both men in good condition.

Both training camps were crowded late this afternoon while the lightweights trained. Gans, in particular, was in fine fettle and he worked harder than any day since the signing of articles.

Nelson went through his exercises, as he always does, ceaselessly and with his characteristic determination.

There was no change today in the betting and no heavy individual wagers were reported.

RUMOR FIGHT WILL BE A FAKE

Fight Promoters Hasten to Deny the Story From New York.

GOLDFIELD, Nev., Aug. 31.—A telegram from New York stating that it was reported there that the Nelson-Gans fight was to be a fake, and that it had been arranged for Nelson to win has caused some excitement and a great deal of indignation among the Goldfield men who have been handling the arrangements for the fight.

He said that the best proof that no fake was intended was that plenty of money had been paid to the visitors in Goldfield.

It is said, however, that Gans' willingness to make the weight required by the Nelson party was due to the fact that he would have no difficulty in getting under 133 pounds in this climate.

Kramer Wins Bicycle Series.

SALT LAKE CITY, Aug. 31.—The two final races in the championship bicycle races between Frank Kramer, of Newmarket, N. J., and Iver Lawson, of Salt Lake, were won tonight by Kramer.

It is said, however, that Gans' willingness to make the weight required by the Nelson party was due to the fact that he would have no difficulty in getting under 133 pounds in this climate.

Portland is liable to be without an official umpire this afternoon.

MAHAFFEY QUILTS

DECLARES $150 A MONTH IS NOT SALARY ENOUGH.

Says Other Umpires Get $200 or $250, and He Has Always Commanded Top Market Price.

Portland is liable to be without an official umpire this afternoon.

Lou Mahaffey received his monthly stipend of $150. Mahaffey has shied at the amount and last night declared that the $150 per month is not sufficient to stand for the cuss words and abuse of ball-tossers for judging balls and strikes.

Umpire Mahaffey knows that other Umps in the Coast League have received as high as $200 and $250 per month and he rightly believes that he is worth as much to the Coasters as any other judge of the game.

Mahaffey was called into service some time ago, and he has made good. His work in Portland has been splendid and he has the ability to get along with scrappy players without constantly chasing them from the game or slapping fines on them.

Judge McCredie was called up by long-distance telephone last night and, in Mahaffey's opinion, he is a quitter. The Washington mogul seemed to be greatly surprised and was at a loss to understand Mahaffey's action.

Some of the umpires were getting more than this, said Judge McCredie, "but those who were getting more agreed to accept the reduction because of the loss sustained by the league due to the earthquake." Mahaffey said he was umpiring splendid ball and I am sorry to lose him, but I am helpless in this matter because President Bert would have consent to giving Mahaffey more money.
