Nazarene College Group Scheduled

A group of young people from the Christian Worker's band of Northwest Nazarene college, Nampa, Idaho, will be in Medford this week end for National Youth Week services at First Church of the Nazarene, 520 North Holly st.

The services, under the young people's direction, will be held tonight at 7:30 o'clock, Saturday at 7 p.m., which will be a zone rally, and Sunday at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m.

Monday night the Nazarene youth of this area are sponsoring a skate night at the Ashland skating rink. This will conclude the Youth week activities.

The Rev. Harold M. Sanner, pastor of the local church, has announced that Galen Olsen, Eugene, a member of the college group, will be the guest speaker tonight and in each of the services during the week end. A mixed quartet will accompany him. Piano accompanist, also from the college, who will play during the services is Marilyn Shepard of Medford.

Along with the music by the college quartet the sanctuary choir of the local church will sing during the Sunday morning service, "A Charge to Keep I Have."

Two features at the 6 p.m. Family Hour Sunday will be the musical program in the Young Adult Fellowship, and the Senior High Fellowship's program, which will be conducted by the young people from the college.

Junior church director, Bill Brewster, has announced that the speaker for the Juniors Sunday will be the pastor, Mr. Sanner. Music will be presented by Cherie, Lori, and Gina Newman.

The Men's Fellowship will hold its monthly dinner meeting at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday. Speaker for the evening will be George Reed. Election of officers for the new year will also take place.

Activities Noted At Four Churches

Ashland – Newly elected officers of the United Presbyterian church, Ashland, were installed at the Sunday morning services, Jan. 20.

At the 9:45 a.m. service Mrs. David Fletcher and Ronald Kirsher were ordained and installed deacons. At the 11 a.m. service five elders were ordained and installed. Taking office on the session were Mrs. Glenn Revel, John Cady, Mrs. Alta Poley, Clyde E. Smith and Mrs. C. A. Stothers. Arthur M. Peters, a previously ordained elder, was installed with them.

Central Point – Dr. Earl William Benbow will speak on "The Counsel of Patience" at the Sunday 11 a.m. worship service of the First Presbyterian church, Central Point. A nursery for preschool children is provided.

A coffee hour will follow in the fellowship room.

Church school with classes for all ages meets at 9:45. The church is located at First and Oak sts.

Jacksonville–The Rev. King Jones will return to the pulpit Sunday morning following a three-week vacation. He will begin a trilogy of sermons entitled "A Light from the Dark Past."

The individual sermons are: "How to Fail Without Really Trying," "Hen-Pecked," and "The Mastery of Moods."

The annual meeting of the church will be held following a potluck dinner at the close of the worship services. The meeting will begin approximately at 1:30 p.m. The purpose of the meeting will be to elect officers, adopt a budget, and conduct other business which might properly come before the congregation.

The church night fellowship meeting has been cancelled for this Saturday evening.

Phoenix – During the 11 a. m. worship service at the Phoenix Presbyterian church Sunday, the Rev. William Saladin will conclude his series of "How To" sermons with the topic, "How to Give." The choir will sing.

Sunday school classes for all ages will begin at 9:45 a.m. Sunday the adult class will study the third and fourth chapters of Mark and will discuss "Why Jesus Taught In Parables."

Bible Quiz Planned Sunday by Church

The Free Methodist youth group, under the direction of Mrs. Everett Malott, will participate in a Bible quiz Sunday evening in preparation for a playoff with the Springfield quiz team at a Youth rally to be held in Sutherlin on Feb. 2.

The Sunday school has for its theme during January, "For Times Like These -- Evaluate".

In the Sunday morning worship service pastor Roland Stewart will present a message based on Philippians 4:6 titled "The Answer to Anxiety".

Following the family hour in the evening, the monthly singspiration will be conducted by Mrs. Loyal Smith.

Bethel Assembly Scheduled Events

"The Christian's Life and Death" will be the subject of the message at 11 a.m. Sunday at Bethel Assembly of God.

The subject for the 7:30 p.m. evangelistic service will be "Trouble Ahead." The pastor, the Rev. L. D. Krause, will speak at both services. The church is at 1225 East McAndrews rd.

At 6:15 p.m. Sunday the youth department will conduct a gospel service at the Veterans Administration domiciliary, White City.

'Abundant Life' To Be Subject

The Rev. Fredrick Ross Evans will preach on "Abundant Life" at the First Christian church Sunday morning.

At the first service the youth choir will sing "Wonderful Word's of Life." The chancel choir will sing Haydn's "The Spacious Firmament on High" at the 10:55 a.m. service.

Mrs. Floyd Cary and Mrs. A. L. Paul will be hostesses at the coffee hour.

At the church school opening program music will be given by a girls' quintet composed of Anne Bannister, Mary Bannister, Linda Johnson, Sarah Matthews, and Suzanne Brooks.

Parents of the Chi Rho Fellowship members have been invited to their 6 p. m. meeting when an installation service for new officers for the coming six months will be installed. Jim Perry will lead their study on " "Responsibilities of Freedom in the Church."

James Savard and Douglas Mann will lead the study and worship at the Middlers Fellowship meeting at 6 p.m.

Advent Christian Activities Listed

"Hot Water or Gold Water" will be the 11 a.m. message by the Rev. Fred Sapp Jr., pastor of the First Advent Christian church, Sunday.

A quartet composed of Mrs. Howard Watkins, Mr. and Mrs. Sapp, and James Clark will sing. The chilren will go to the Junior Church chapel at 11:30 a.m. for a mission study.

"Step Ahead Month" in the Sunday school will end Sunday. The last foot steps for visitors will be placed in the center aisle this week. A nursery for children under three is provided.

Zion Lutheran Elects New Council Members

At the annual congregation meeting of Zion Lutheran church Tuesday four men were elected to the church council.

They are Bruce Braaten, David Hannaford, Frank Kuoni, and Walter Seiffert. These men with five present members will constitute the council for the coming year. The members will be installed during the morning worship service Sunday.

The sermon to be given by the Rev. H. C. Coovert Sunday, is "Jesus Relieves Distress." The senior choir will sing the anthem, "Go Not Far From Me, O God."

The Intermediate Luther League will meet at the church at 6:30 p.m. Plans for the evening's entertainment include a taffy pull and a backward party.

Elections Held by Ascension Lutheran

At the annual meeting of Ascension Lutheran congregation last Sunday Richard Melum was elected president. Others elected were William Petersen, vice president; Harold Kizer, secretary; Mrs. Kenneth Dixon, financial secretary; and James Ristau, treasurer. A budget of $15,430 was adopted for the year.

Sunday afternoon the Luther League will travel to Grants Pass for a joint meeting there with the League of Calvary Lutheran church.

METHODIST SERIES

Gold Hill — The Rev. Lochlen L. Gregory, pastor of Gold Hill Community Methodist church will present the third in a series of sermons on "Jesus," Sunday at 11 a.m.

HOLDS MEETING—The Rev. J. Austin McNaught, an elder in the Church of the Nazarene, is conducting an evangelistic revival at the Chapel in the Pines Nazarene church in Prospect. The service will continue nightly at 7:30 p.m. through Feb. 3.

Evangelist To Hold Services in CP

Central Point – A series of meetings with Evangelist J. Q. Hunter opens Wednesday, Jan. 30 at 7:30 p.m. at the Community Bible church, Fourth and Alder sts., Central Point.

The meetings will continue through Feb. 10 nightly at 7:30 p.m. and Sundays at 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m.

Evangelist Hunter has had an extensive ministry and during the past few years has been associated with Village Missions as their area evangelist.

Last summer he ministered in this area having served as camp speaker at Union Creek Bible camp.

THE REV. J. Q. HUNTER
Meetings Start Jan. 30

Ed McCullough To Speak at Service

National Youth week, Jan. 27 to Feb. 2, will be observed in both services Sunday at the First Church of God, 2000 Crater Lake ave., according to the Rev. W. E. Martin, pastor.

"Filling the Emptiness", the theme of the week, is also the topic of Sunday morning's sermon to be given by the Rev. Ed McCullough.

Mr. McCullough and his family recently moved to Medford from Fairfax, Va. where he was pastor of the Church of God for the past 4½ years. A graduate of Medford High school, he is presently associated with Atkin-McCullough Insurance company and attending Southern Oregon college.

As a part of the Sunday evening service the youth fellowship will present a short skit introducing youth week. Mr. Martin's message will continue the central theme, "Filling the Emptiness".

Witnesses Slate Week's Activities

The theocratic ministry school and service meeting of Jehovah's Witnesses will be held at 7:30 p. m. Friday. The theme will be "Keep Proving What You Yourselves Are."

The various reasons for belief and disbelief in God will be discussed in a Bible lecture Sunday entitled "Basis For Belief In God," by J. H. Morris, Ashland.

A study in the Watchtower magazine will follow entitled "Strong Reason For Faith In God's New World." Sunday's meeting will begin at 4 p.m.

Study groups will meet at 8 p.m. on Tuesday to discuss material in the textbook "Let Your Name Be Sanctified."

MEN'S GROUP

Selma — The Men's fellowship of the Selma church met recently with pictures of wildlife being shown. Seventeen attended.

Former Pastor To Speak at Medford Adventist Church

Lyle W. Cornforth, former pastor of the Medford Seventh-day Adventist church, will be guest speaker at the church's 11 a.m. worship hour Saturday.

Mr. Cornforth left his position here last June to assume the principalship of the Milo academy, denominational boarding school located at Milo, Ore. Mrs. Harvard Bresee will be vocal soloist at the service.

C. C. Weis, present pastor of the Medford church will address the Milo academy students at their worship hour Saturday. Approximately 300 students attend the school, and a number of Medford young people are enrolled there.

At 7 p.m. Saturday, in the Medford church, Evangelist Duane Corwin will present the subject, "The United States and Rome in Bible Prophecy."

Sunday at 7 p.m. a color film entitled "More than Singing" will precede a lecture by Evangelist Corwin, "The Seven Seals of Revelation."

Richard C. Schwartz, public relations department secretary of the Oregon Conference of Seventh-day Adventists, with offices in Portland, will meet with the press secretaries of the Medford and vicinity churches, Wednesday, Jan. 30. The gathering will be held at 7:30 p.m. in the Medford church, 1900 Greenwood st.

New Unity Book To Be Studied

A new Unity book, "How to Live a Prosperous Life," by Catherine Ponder, a minister, is in the book department at the Unity Church of Medford, Holly and Haven sts., and the Unity center, 995 So. Oakdale ave.

All study classes will begin the study of this new book.

The Rev. Katharine Bosworth, minister of the Unity church of Medford, will speak on "Be A Doer of the Word" at the 11:15 a.m. Sunday service. The text is taken from James 1:22.

Steve Whipple, of Santa Rosa, Calif., will be guest organist.

Mrs. H. H. Bresee will sing "I Shall Not Pass Again This Way," by Stanley S. Effinger.

Wednesday, Jan. 30, the prayer ministry will meet at 11 a.m. at the Unity church. Those attending are to take their lunch. At 1 p.m. the study class will meet.

Study on Asia Set At St. Luke's

Mrs. Clarence Byrd, chairman of the commission on missions and social concerns at St. Luke's Methodist church, has announced a study on Asia to be held at the church for four Sundays.

The first meeting will be Sunday at 7 p.m. The study will be the problems of the Chinese along the rim of Asia. An Asian festival is planned for Feb. 17.

The text for the study will be "On Asia's Rim" by Andrew T. Roy. Leaders are Harry Chipman, Robert Kyle, the Rev. Charles R. McDonald, and Hugh Rogers. Chipman will lead the first session on Korea.

Sunday at 11 a.m. Mr. McDonald will continue his series of sermons on the Book of Amos when he preaches on the theme: "Prophetic Journey to Samaria."

Gaub, Hutchison Families Scheduled

The Rev. Kenneth Gaub evangelistic party of nine, will appear at the Foursquare church, 2200 Roberts rd. Wednesday, Jan. 30, at 7:30 p.m.

The Gaub family play such instruments as the accordion, banjo, guitar, ukulele and tamborine. They have appeared on television, radio and in crusades throughout America.

Also appearing with them is the Ray Hutchison family. They will also sing during the evening service.

Mr. Gaub will be guest speaker for the one night service.

C. E. REDFIELD
To Leave for Taiwan

School Principal To Be Speaker

A high school principal whose next position will be in Taiwan will be the guest speaker at Trinity Baptist church Sunday at the 1 1a.m. worship service.

C. E. Redfield is preparing to serve at the Morrison academy, Taichung, Taiwan. He has had experience both as a teacher and a principal. He served for seven years at the Mt. Baker High school, Deming, Wash., and for two years at the Klamath Union High school, Klamath Falls. He is a graduate of Linfield college, McMinnville, and has his master of education degree from the University of Washington.

At 7:30 p.m. Sunday the youth groups will meet and the adult Studies in the Gospel of Mark will be held. The study in Mark will be, "Jesus Evaluates Knowledge, Attitude, and Action", Mark 12:28-44.

Trinity Baptist church is located at Griffin Creek and South Stage rds. An attended nursery is provided during the Sunday school and morning worship service.

Missionary Hedal To Speak Sunday

Missionary John B. Hedal, representing the Reorganized church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, will be the guest speaker Sunday at the Medford Branch of the RLDS church. Mr. Hedal will preach on "Increased Vision," selecting for his scripture Proverbs 29:18.

The guest minister was raised in Coeur d' Alene, attended Graceland college at Lamoni, Iowa, and Eastern Washington College of Education, Cheney, Wash.

His first assignment was missionary to Columbia River district with residence in Portland. In January, 1961, his assignment was transferred to missionary of Southern Oregon district.

Church Building Plans Announced

Ashland–Plans for erection of a new church building at the corner of Garfield and Iowa sts., were approved by members of the Assembly of God church at their annual meeting. Groundbreaking is set for Easter.

According to the Rev. R. L. Cornwall, contract for the building has been given to the J. C. Construction company of Eugene.

The minister was reelected for ten years. He has served the Ashland church for the past six years. Officers chosen were Ennis Lane and Gilbert Elder, deacons for a three-year term. Department heads approved were Mrs. Mary Conger, Sunday school superintendent; and Mrs. Frances Farrington, Mrs. Betty Lane, Ennis Lane, Miss Pauline Wilkins and Mrs. Cornwall.

UNITARIAN SPEAKER

The Rogue Valley Unitarian fellowship will hear an address Sunday by David Alexander of Southern Oregon college. His topic will be "A Treatment of the Theology of Bultmann with three Paintings by Gauguin and Picasso". The fellowship meets at the Red Cross building, 60 Hawthorne ave. at 11 a.m. Anyone interested in the fellowship is welcome to attend.

College Choir To Sing Here Monday

The California Baptist college choir of Riverside, Calif., will present a choral program of sacred music Monday, Jan. 28, at First Southern Baptist church, 794 Lozier lane.

The 40-voice choir will present its program at 7 p.m. under the direction of James H. Walker. A feature of the evening will be the girls a cappella ensemble under the direction of Mrs. Walker.

The program will be preceded by a potluck dinner at 6 p.m. at the church to be served by the congregation.

Sunday is Layman's day observance at the church. The Rev. Gilbert O. Skaar will speak at the 11 a.m. worship service on "God Wants Men." Fred Everson will give a testimonial on "What it means to me to be a Christian." A song service will begin at 10:45 a.m.

For the evening service Earl Covey will speak on "Men Can Witness." Don Goddard, Royal Ambassador leader, will present "Serving Christ by Working With Boys" and James Paul Funston will give a testimonial. The evening song service will begin at 6:30 p.m. and the youth choir will sing.

JAMES H. WALKER
Choral Program Director

Fourth in Series Scheduled Sunday

"The Essential Ingredients for a Christian Home" is the theme of the message to be given by the Rev. Bernard E. Andrews, pastor of the First Baptist church, Sunday at 11 a.m. It is the fourth in a series of messages on the Christian home.

All services of the First Baptist church are being held in the Wilson school auditorium while the new building is under construction.

At 7 p.m. the pastor will speak on "Kingdom Parables" in a message from Matthew 13. The church is making a complete study of the New Testament in 1963.

A trumpet duet with David Wooten and Danny Jack, and a junior trio with Marilyn Zimmens, Cindy Cain, and Steve Andrews will provide music for the service.

First Baptist church is sponsoring the concert by the Westmont College of Santa Barbara, Calif., Tuesday evening in the Medford High School auditorium. The college is non-denominational.

St. Peter's Lists Coming Activities

Services at St. Peter's Lutheran church, 1020 East Main st., will be at 8:15 and 11 a.m. Sunday.

The sermon topic, announced by the pastor, the Rev. John E. Simon, is "Jesus' Credentials Prove Him To Be The Son of God and Savior of the World."

The church council meets Monday at 7:30 p.m. in the conference room. A church orchestra, new at St. Peter's, will rehearse for the first time Saturday, Feb. 9, in the church's basement auditorium. Al Huntemann will serve as director. All interested in joining this group, whether young or old, may attend.

TRAIL REVIVAL

Trail — The Rev. Price, pastor of Williams Community church, is conducting a series of evangelistic services at the Trail Community church. The services will be held each evening at 7:30 p.m. and on Sundays at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m.

FRANK T. HORD
Public Lecturer

Christian Science Activities Listed

Frank T. Hord, Washington, D. C., will discuss the power of spiritual enlightenment in a public lecture Tuesday, Jan. 29, at First Church of Christ, Scientist, 100 Windsor ave.

The talk will be at 8 p.m. and on the subject "Christian Science Dispels Fear and Expands Horizons."

Hord was serving as Christian Science commission on publication for Kentucky when he was first named to the board of lectureship in 1951.

"Truth" will be the subject of the lesson-sermon Sunday at the church at 11 a.m. The text will be from Psalms 43:2, 3.

Persons up to the age of 20 are invited to attend Sunday school. All are welcome to the services.

Visitation Event Set by Eastwood

The Eastwood Baptist church school teachers are starting a visitation program Sunday, according to Superintendent Dean Anderson.

The objective will be to have the teachers visit the home of each pupil to share the church school program with parents in the home.

Sunday the pastor, the Rev. Clifford J. Young, will speak on: "The Influence of Prayer," using Mark 1:35 as his scriptural background. The chancel choir will sing "Brother James Air," a rendition of Psalm 23.

At the 6 p.m. Junior Baptist Youth Fellowship meeting Dan Little will be the guest speaker. At the 6:30 p.m. Senior High BYF meeting, the youth will discuss, "How to Take Faith to School." President is Carol Anderson.

At the 7:30 p.m. service the pastor will speak on "The Leper," with Mark 1:40 as his scriptural background.

The Gideons plan to have their monthly camp meeting at Eastwood Monday, starting with a potluck dinner.

Series To Continue At Central Church

Minister John V. Heberling will continue his series of messages from the book of I Peter Sunday at 11 a.m. at Central Church of Christ, 1440 South Oakdale ave. This week's message from the second chapter will be entitled "Privileged Position."

Mr. Heberling and his family are attending the annual conference on evangelism in San Jose, Calif., this week. At the 7:30 p.m. service Sunday, Mr. Heberling will speak on the conference theme "Making Men Perfect in Christ." His message will share inspirational thoughts from the conference.

Sermon, Dinner Set

Gold Hill — "The Mystery of Godliness" will be the title of the sermon subject by Dewey V. Jeffrey, minister of Gold Hill Christian church, Sunday at 11 a.m.

Election of officers, a devotional period and singing will follow a 7 p.m. dinner.

It was announced that the contest is tied between the Green Mountain and Red Blanket Tribes in the Sunday school contest.

1957 Award of Merit Winner

CHURCH NEWS
National Religious Publicity Council

Presbyterians Set Youth Sunday; Ordination Event

Both the 9:30 and the 11 a.m. services will be conducted by the youth of the First Presbyterian church Sunday. Ushers and greeters will also be from the youth groups.

The Rev. David Brown will direct the combined youth choirs in the anthem, "Gloria in Excelsis" from the 12th Mass by Mozart and a sextet will sing, "Awake My Heart." Singing in the Sextet will be Cindy Anderson, Philip Frohnmayer, Ann Gaston, Dru An Graff, Johnnie Linn, Donna Marin. Greg Smith will be at the organ.

Sermonettes on the theme, "To Fill the Emptiness" will be given by David Housel, Greg Carlson and Michael Arant.

At 7:30 p.m. Sunday the public is invited to a concert by the Lewis and Clark college band.

Thursday noon is regular men's luncheon. President Dale Coverstone invites all men to attend and take a friend. Dr. D. Kirkland West will give a short inspirational talk and the meeting is over promptly at 12:50 p.m.

Westminster

The ordination and installation of the newly elected elder-trustees and deacons will take place at the 11 a.m. worship service of the Westminster Presbyterian church Sunday.

The new elder - trustees elected at the annual meeting last Wednesday are: H. D. Christensen, Karl S. Clinkinbeard, John C. Collins, Stuart V. McQueen, Brian B. Mullen and James P. Rowan. The new deacons are: Mrs. Gordon Barker, James V. McGoodwin, and Mrs. Rowan.

The sermon will be given by the Rev. John O. Reynolds on the theme "Live Up to Your Names". Lawrence Clark will be the lay assistant and the church choir will sing the anthem "Like As a Father".

There will be a children's sermon and separate church for boys and girls from 5 to 10 years of age. Nursery care is available for pre-school children.

All church school classes meet at 9:45 a.m. The adult class meets in the pastor's office and Sunday will study and discuss "Luther's Crisis of Faith."

Westminster Presbyterian church is located on Oakwood dr. between Barneburg and Groveland aves.

BOX SOCIAL

Talent – The Junior Methodist Youth Fellowship of Talent Methodist church are planning a box social Saturday, Feb. 2, from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m. Everyone is invited to attend the event in the Methodist annex. Girls are to take box lunches to be aunctioned off by Jim Rutherford and George Moore.

CONCORD CHAPEL

Gold Hill — "Why People Turn to Spiritualism" will be the title of the address by Sidney Jones at Concord Spiritualist chapel, Sunday at 7:30 p.m. Robert Routh will assist with the service of spiritual experiences, Mrs. Bianca Corona will play a piano solo.

Congregational Topic Announced

"But Some Prayers Are Not Answered" is the title of the sermon to be preached Sunday by the Rev. Robert W. Tull, minister of the Congregational church. The 11 a.m. service of worship will be in the auditorium of Hoover Grade school on Siskiyou blvd., just east of South Modoc rd. The school is the temporary meeting place of the church while plans are being made for the construction of a new church and educational unit at the corner of East Jackson st. and Berkeley Way.

The church school will meet during the worship hour. Children younger than three-years-old will be cared for in the health room of the school. Three, four and five-year-olds will have their class in the school bandroom. Classes for the first through sixth grade young people will be held in the school cafeteria.

This week a new junior high class will meet for the first time. Under the leadership of Dr. John R. Watson and Mark Smith, seventh, eighth and ninth grade young people will meet from 11 a.m. to noon in the lobby of the school office.

The Laymen's Fellowship will meet for breakfast on Wednesday at 6:30 a.m. The regular meeting place for the laymen's breakfast is the Town House cafe, 127 South Central ave.

Wednesday the choir will hold its rehearsal at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Allen, 2115 Capital ave. at 8 p.m.

OPEN HOUSE

Wilderville — All members of the Wilderville Methodist church have been invited to attend open house Sunday at the Emanuel church parsonage at Cave Junction from 2:30 to 5 p.m.

First Baptist Church
Conservative-Fundamental
A Friendly Church with an ETERNAL Message
On the Air KBOY 11 a.m.
B. E. Andrews, Pastor
Byron Evans, Youth Dir.
Meeting Temporarily at WILSON SCHOOL Grand & Corona
SUNDAY, JAN. 20
9:40 A.M. Sunday School for All
11:00 A.M. "The Essential Ingredients for a Christian Home"
7:00 P.M. "Kingdom Parables"
Wednesday "Through the New Testament in 1963"

Christ CENTERED
The Heart of God is in love with you.
The Christ-Centered Life is the Happy Life.
LET GOD'S LOVE FILL YOUR HEART
SUNDAY
January 27th
1963
9:30 & 11:00 a.m.
YOUTH SUNDAY
First PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
Eighth and Holly
DR. D. KIRKLAND WEST, Pastor

An Invitation
the WESTMONT COLLEGE Choir and Quartet of Santa Barbara, Calif.
Will Present
an Outstanding Musical Concert
TUES., JAN. 29 7:30 P.M.
MEDFORD HIGH SCHOOL AUDITORIUM

First Church of Christ, Scientist
100 Windsor Ave., 1 Block South of East Main
"Truth"
Church and Sunday School Services at 11:00 a.m.
Wednesday Evening Service, 8 p.m.
You Are Always Welcome
Listen to: "The Bible Speaks To You"
Station K-SHA SUNDAYS—9:00 A.M.

The MEDFORD ALLIANCE CHURCH
Welcomes You
Lincoln School Auditorium—608 N. Bartlett
SERVICES:
Sunday School 9:45 A.M.
Morning Worship 11:00 A.M.
Youth Service 6:00 P.M.
Evening Service 7:00 P.M.
Mid-week Service —7:30 P.M. Wednesday (Place announced each week)
"There is a real and positive help for your every problem"

Pastor ZWEIGART Ph. 779-1067

Lift up your hands in prayer and your hearts in song.
Week-End SPECIALS
• BOXED CARDS & STATIONERY
• SCRIPTURE TEXT
EVANGEL CENTER
230 S. Central

UNITY
Corner Holly and Haven Streets
Affiliated with Unity School of Christianity, Lee's Summit, Mo.
REV. KATHARINE BOSWORTH, Minister
Worship Hour — 11:15 a.m.
"Be A Doer of the World"
James 1:22
Sunday School, Youth of Unity, Adult Bible Class 9:45 a.m.
Office open daily, Monday thru Friday, 10 a.m.-4 p.m.
995 S. Oakdale Ave. — Phone 772-6902 — Everyone Welcome