

ARMY PREPARING TO PACIFY CUBA

Preliminary Steps Taken in Case Intervention Is Necessary.

THREE WARSHIPS ARE SENT

Cruiser Denver Arrives at Havana, and Marietta Sent to Cienfuegos. All Available Troops to Be Sent if Needed.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—President Roosevelt is keenly alive to the progress of the revolutionary movement in Cuba and the responsibility of the United States in case the conditions grow worse and intervention becomes necessary. It is known that the President will not intervene until it appears absolutely necessary, yet steps have been taken which would make such intervention effective. The ships that have been sent to Cuba are there for the purpose only of protecting American interests and furnishing asylum for Americans who may be in danger from the warring factions.

Actual intervention would mean the use of the army and all the available forces would no doubt be needed, and will be ready if a serious situation develops. Under present conditions the army has been kept in a better state of preparation than ever before and will be ready if called upon. Correspondence between the President, the Secretary of War and General Bell, chief of staff, has provided for all contingencies.

It is recognized that intervention would not be "holiday" matter, but that an army would be necessary and, in case of intervention, every available man of the regular army will be used and will be sent to Cuba as fast as possible. Although no regular transports are available on the Atlantic coast, it is known where the transports can be obtained as soon as needed.

Some weeks ago the Sixth and Twenty-first Regiments of Infantry were ordered home from the Philippines, it being stated that their term of service in the islands was completed. The transports which sailed last week for the Philippines will bring available troops to the Atlantic coast and also the transports, which would be very necessary if the Platt amendment is involved.

MORE WARSHIPS GO TO CUBA

Cruiser Denver and Gunboat Marietta Will Guard Interests.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—President Roosevelt's policy of preparedness for any emergency in Cuba, so far as the immediate operation of war vessels is concerned, was made public today. It includes the arrival at Havana tonight of the protected cruiser Denver and the gunboat Marietta at Cienfuegos some time tomorrow. The cruiser Des Moines will remain at Key West until further orders.

In making public these facts, Acting Secretary of State Bacon said there was no disposition on the part of this Government to make a demonstration in Cuban waters, but that the insurance had attained such proportions it had become necessary to take steps for the protection of American interests in Cuba. The Department believes that for the present the Denver and the Marietta for all needs along the northern coast of Cuba, and the Marietta for the southern coast.

The exchange of messages between the State Department and Mr. Slesper, Charge at Havana, and other American representatives in Cuba, which are supposed to have told of conditions requiring that prompt action be taken to safeguard Americans and their property, will not be discussed by officials of either the State or Navy departments. It is admitted, however, that all those messages have been forwarded on their receipt to President Roosevelt, at Oyster Bay, who for several days has been directing the policy of the United States concerning the Cuban outbreak.

In this connection there was an incident concerning the Denver which was not reported. After the maneuvers in Long Island Sound, the Denver proceeded to New London, Conn., for coal, sailing on Saturday for Norfolk, Va. It was reported that the Denver was ordered to proceed to the southern coast of Cuba to Cienfuegos, where she will be stationed until further orders.

The program for the Des Moines does not call for her to proceed to Cuban waters, and it is said she probably will be used in preventing filibustering expeditions from the United States to Cuba. In spite of the sudden activity of this Government, it is declared that there is no intention to take part in the conflict between the Cuban and American forces which have been placed on the island.

That the President has considered the ultimate possibility of intervention, or, at least, the use of force in safeguarding the interests of this Government, there can be no doubt. This is known by the fact that the Navy Department has been called upon for a statement of the number of marines that might be available in the event of trouble. There are between 50 and 70 marines now in the vicinity of the West Indies. They are scattered through Santo Domingo, Porto Rico and Culebra islands, and some are on the Isthmus of Panama.

FLOOR RED WITH BLOOD

broken glass and in the mess Deputy Minto found several bullets. Through the walls were found 16 bullet holes and three of them the officers discovered were made by a large-caliber revolver. This gave them the clue to look for the man who had carried a large-sized revolver. A man was found that had seen Eastman with a 44-caliber revolver sticking from his trousers. When the Canadian was asked where the weapon was, he denied having seen or carried one.

From 3:30 until almost 10 o'clock this morning the officers kept after Seely, Eastman and Murphy. Eastman went to sleep once and used the top of an ancient piano for a bed. While the officers were putting Seely and Murphy through the third degree, Dr. Ivan Danabag, who had dressed all of the wounded, opened the piano and drew from the discordant thing several weird and uncanny pieces of music without awakening the sleeper.

Eastman Makes Confession.

For an hour Eastman slept a restless sleep. He was roused and taken to breakfast and again the officers tried to get him to tell them what he had done with the big revolver. In the meantime Murphy had admitted that the revolver was his and that he knew that Eastman had taken the weapon from behind the bar and had rushed out of the saloon declaring that he would get even with someone. This was enough for the officers.

Eastman was seated in Ray's store and Deputy Minto came after him and placed the handcuffs on his wrists. The iron was too much for the fellow, and he broke down. Eastman confessed he had taken the revolver and that when he brought it back he had put it in the liquor-room. Then he told the officers that he saw the big revolver in Bustin's hand when the shooting was going on. Revolver Found in Pretzel Barrel.

This statement confirmed what Alfred Lambert had told the officers. Eastman, who had shot at him and had killed Marshal Krechter had rushed out of the liquor-room. Lambert identified Bustin as the man he saw rush out of the room, but it was not until Eastman had confessed that he had shown Bustin where he had hidden the revolver that the officers were sure they had the right man in Bustin.

Sheriff Culver found the revolver buried deep in a barrel of pretzels. Before the coroner's jury Murphy admitted that he had hidden it there. When the officers had all the evidence ready Coroner Clough summoned a jury. Seely and Eastman told the jury that he saw Bustin with the revolver in his hand, and of having seen him once during the terrible fight, lying on the floor of the liquor room.

Bustin Charged With Murder.

After hearing the evidence of the other witnesses the jury returned a verdict, charging Fred Bustin with the crime of killing Marshal Krechter and naming Seely, Eastman and Murphy as parties to the crime. An ambulance was called from Salem and when it arrived Bustin, Seely, Eastman and Murphy were taken to the jail and placed in jail.

The murder of Joe Krechter has roused the citizens of St. Paul and the verdict of the coroner's jury was a source of rejoicing. The boy yards around St. Paul have been noted for years for the rough characters that work on the fields. Hardly a season has passed, but that the rough element look advantage of this and undertake to terrorize the town.

Marshal Not a Strong Man.

Joe Krechter, the murdered man, was one of the best known men in that section of the county. He was a tall fellow and it was known to all that he was suffering from heart trouble. The rough element look advantage of this and undertake to terrorize the town.

Krechter leaves a bride of a year, who has only recently risen from a sick bed, having lost her baby. Late tonight it was learned that Seely, Eastman and Bustin had about four weeks ago cleaned out the Savoy Saloon at Astoria. The three men had been fishing and at the close of the season had gone on a protracted drunk. It is said that Bustin had fought with a logger and when bystanders went to interfere Seely and Bustin took a hand and roughed the saloon.

Dr. Van Danabag tonight stated that both Yost and Howe would recover unless complications should set in.

EXPOSES A GRAFTER

Russian Paper Says Rennen-kampff Robbed Army.

DEFIES HIM TO SUE IT

Promptly Suspended by General's Friends—Officials Admit Troops Massacred Siedice People in Retaliation.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 12.—The Perla, an organ of the moderate Liberal party, has been suspended on account of its publication of an article by M. Demichensky, a well-known writer, attacking the bureaucratic system, in the course of which General Rennen-kampff was flayed charged with thievery and deduced to being an action for libel. The article alleged that General Rennen-kampff had filled his pockets from the military fund and with tribute levied upon his subordinates during the Russo-Japanese War, and he was asked to explain why the investigation started by General Dohobrukschitzky, which was interrupted by the battle of Mukden, was never resumed.

An official dispatch received here from Siedice today in reference to the recent massacre, asserts that the excesses of the soldiery were in the nature of retaliation and a battle of troops against terrorists. The official list of the dead embraces 44 names, of whom only one was a soldier. The report adds that the disorders have been entirely suppressed.

News has been received from Vyatka of the unrobbing of a priest named Ogoloff, who was a member of the outlawed Parliament, for revolutionary agitation. This makes two of the clerical members of the late Parliament who have been unrobbled. Father Poyarkov, a third, is reported to have been imprisoned by order of the synod.

OFFICIAL STORY OF MASSACRE

Firing From Houses on Soldiers Brought Return Fire.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 12.—Following is the text of the official version of the recent incidents at Siedice:

September 1 shots were fired at an officer from a house on Grozny street and several young persons were arrested. The night passed quietly. On the evening of the 11th an officer was fired at in Siedice street and several soldiers were killed at two houses. That night two shots were fired from a garden near the treasury and several soldiers were killed. The soldiers fired eight shots in return.

"Six injured Jews and a Jewess were received at the Christian hospital, three of whom died. In the Jewish hospital there were 17 dead and 12 persons seriously and 60 slightly wounded. Twenty-one persons have been buried in the Jewish cemetery. Fifty-four persons were arrested, 45 of whom were carrying arms in their hands.

"As a result of incendiarism 12 fires broke out, but were prevented from spreading by the firemen. Seven cannon shots were fired. Houses in the center of the town were the principal sufferers by the rifle fire.

"A considerable number of shops were plundered and house fittings were destroyed. Several persons were killed when going to neighboring towns and villages. On Wednesday perfect quiet had been restored in Siedice and other towns in the district."

FORBIDS PARTY CONVENTION

Stolypin Calls Democrats Dangerous.

Land as Bribe to Peasants.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 12.—The proposed meeting of the Constitutional Democratic party has been prohibited by Premier Stolypin. He said he considered the Constitutional Democrats to have been an underground party in Parliament, because "their respectability was a cloak for highly dangerous sedition and criticism." Preparations are already under way to hold the meeting in Finland, probably at Helsinki.

The activity of the administration in putting its land programme into force is a source of considerable alarm in the camp of the Constitutional Democrats. The organs of the party admit that the amount of land to be distributed is a dangerous factor in winning the support of the peasantry.

In pursuance of the policy of strengthening the loyalty of the guard regiments, the Pavlovsk regiment was feted today at Peterhof. The regiment was reviewed by the Emperor, who afterward entertained the officers at luncheon.

FAMINE IN THE PROVINCES

Four Governments Added to the List of Twenty-Nine.

ODESSA, Sept. 12.—(Special.)—Official reports just made by the special missions lately sent into the provinces show that four more governments, namely, Novgorod, Vyatka, Taurida and Orenburg, have been added to the 25 previously announced as famine-stricken. The central relief committee estimates the minimum fund necessary to tide the 29 governments over the next six months at $75,000,000. The Zemstvo organizations do not contribute more than $5,000,000, and the imperial exchequer must furnish the remainder. The famine is most acute in Samara, Saratov, Simbirsk, Kazan, Penza, Tambov and Ufa.

CZAR WILL GO YACHTING

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 12.—Emperor Nicholas, Empress Alexandra and their children will leave tomorrow on board the imperial yacht Standard for a cruise of the Finnish archipelago. Soon afterward the Emperor will depart for Tsarskoe-Selo, where he will spend the winter.

Suppressor of Sevastopol Mutiny Will Govern Warsaw.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 12.—General Moeller-Sakomskiy, who subdued the mutiny at Sevastopol, has been appointed commander of the Fifth Army Corps at Warsaw. The General, who stands high in the confidence of the Emperor on account of the energy shown by him in other situations, has been selected as the best officer for the task of making a victory from the troops below, but no casualties resulted. About 300 wounded persons have been cared for in the hospitals or attended by ambulance surgeons.

WOMAN readeth an advertisement in the newspaper about a sale of rugs. She goeth to the store, and behold, a rug is tagged "$38.50," with a stroke thru the figures, then "$25.00" with another stroke, then "$19.50" unstroked. She buyeth it, forsooth, for few women can resist "$38.50 for $19.50." On the next day cometh a neighbor, saying: "Lo and behold, you have bought one of those pretty $18.00 rugs at Olds, Wortman & King's, have you not? And the first woman scenteth a rodent—and the scales droppeth from her eyes forthwith; and straightway she hieeth to Olds, Wortman & King's, and lo and behold! here she findeth the same rug marked plain $18.00, in untampered figures, boldly wrote—for regular selling. ### MYSTERIOUS BILL IN JAIL

IS CHECKED.

At the Prison, Smith Hits an Officer, and Then He Is Given Several Degrees.

SALEM, Or., Sept. 12.—(Special.)—Buried away in one section of the strong boxes of the City Jail, charged with assault, is Mysterious Bill Smith, Portland's sailor-boarding-house pugilist. He took a punch at Claud Settlemier and almost disconnected the young Salemite from his left cheek. Just why Smith struck young Settlemier is not known, for the punching match took place at the Fair grounds this afternoon.

While the mysterious one was at Lone Oak he got away with the slugging match. His freedom lasted until he decided to clean up Salm. Three of the Capital's finest heard of Billy's intention and upset the dope. They caught Smith as he was coming up Commercial street and took a reef in his maul.

Billy objected, but the big exhibition did not take place until the jail was reached. Once inside the jail, Billy took a swing at one of the officers. He is sorry now for he got his. After a proper beating he was thrown into a narrow cell—one in which there was no room to repose his corpulent self.
