Small orchard, house, barn, and nearly all under fence; 80 acres in cultivation; plenty of good water, 3 large springs. Call on or address Geo. T. Prather, Hood River, Or.

A water famine is threatened in town. Too many are letting their faucits run to avoid freezing. Bad time for a fire to break out.

Mr. and Mrs. James Graham and Mr. and Mrs. N. Tostevin spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Wait on the Parker place.

Hon. E. L. Smith went to Milton on Monday, where he is on the programme for an address at the farmers' institute at that place this week.

For Sale—Sun lot and building on Main street, Hood River. Fine new 16x36 building, costing $400, and 50x100 foot lot, all for $600. The lot alone is worth it. Easy terms. Address the owner, S. P. Shutt, Granite, Oregon.

Wallace Husbands and family of Mosier are visiting Robt. Husbands and family in Hood River. About December 1st they will take a trip to California to visit his father and mother and may make their home in that state.

Our old friend Van Johnson presented the Glacier with 17 potatoes that weighed 37½ pounds. They are of the Buffalo White variety, and grown in Mr. Johnson's sandy soil, are very fine eating, indeed. If you want choice spuds for the table, order of Van Johnson.

The revival in the Valley Christian church closed Sunday evening with a full house. There were eight conversions, and two members were received into the church by letter. Evangelist Stephens and wife left Tuesday for the Willamette valley, where they will hold another meeting, beginning Sunday next.

Prunes are not grown very extensively in Hood River, but still our income from this crop has been considerable during the present year. J. H. Shoemaker last week shipped to Minneapolis 16 tons of dried prunes, and B. F. Shoemaker shipped at the same time 13 tons. F. H. Stanton and others are still holding their prunes for better prices.

Articles of incorporation were filed last week in the office of the county clerk by the Hood River Electric Light, Power and Water Co. The business of the corporation is to "construct, maintain and operate electric light and power plants, waterpipes and pipe lines, flumes, ditches, conduits, electric lines, railroads and electric motor roads and manufactures, to sell, lease or use water for domestic use, irrigation or power, water power or electric power, to buy and sell implements, machinery, electric appliances and building material on its own account or for others, and to do such other business as may be necessary to carry out the objects of the corporation." The incorporators are E. E. Savage, N.C. Evans, C. A. Bell and Leslie Butler. The capital stock is $5,000 in shares of $25 each.

A party of young folks gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Disbrow, Tuesday evening, November 20th. A pleasant evening was spent in playing games, after which a lunch was served. Those present were Orphy, Iris, Gladys and Audry Markley, Rosa Boggs, Mary Gerking, Hattie Hansbery, Clara Hinrichs, Mary Disbrow, Pearl Disbrow, Edith Moore, Ruth Disbrow, E N. Benson, Max and Ralph Hinrichs, Donald Hill, Alfred and Fred Ingalls, Bert Kelley, Charles Gibbons, March Morse, Harvey Boggs, Mr. and Mrs. Disbrow, George Disbrow.

Job Leavenworth and family arrived here from Michigan last Saturday and are the guests of Richard Kirbyson and family, old neighbors in Michigan. Mr. Leavenworth is looking for a location to make his home in Oregon. He is a farmer, and coming from one of the best farming sections of the Eastern states, he don't see how much can be made at farming in Hood River, where farms are small and conditions are so different from what he has been used to.

The executors of the A. H. Tieman estate made sale of the ranch at Mount Hood to a man in San Francisco for the sum of $2,500. The executors have since bought a lot of E. L. Smith, on Second street, opposite Mrs. Mercer's place, and in the spring will build a two-story brick Masonic hall, in accordance with the wishes of the late A. H. Tieman. The price paid E. L. Smith for the lot was $1,000.

The recital in music and elocution given by Mrs. Louise Boyden and her pupils of the Congregational church, last Friday night, drew a full house. Mrs. Boyden is a master elocutionist, and her pupils in their recitations showed the good training they had received. All did well, and the entertainment was voted the best of the series as well as of the season by all present.

The ladies' aid society of the Congregational church will give a rhyme social at A. O. U. W. hall on thanksgiving evening the 29th inst. The ladies request the public to make no engagements that will keep them away from this social event. A programme of special interest will be presented by the best local talent. Programme will appear in next week's Glacier.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Perry returned to Hood River on Tuesday, after a visit of about two months with the families of their sons, W.B.Perry of Sumner, Wash., and Fred Perry of Portland. They had a pleasant visit but are glad to get back to Hood River. Mr. Perry will look after the ranch of his son Fred, near Tucker, the coming summer.

Davenport Bros. have purchased J. T. Nealeigh's homestead and will move their mill down to the canyon west of the York place. The timber on the places of C. L. Rogers, George Williams and I. C. Nealeigh, two million feet or more, will be available for this new location. A force of men are now employed cutting logs and building the mill and bunk houses.

Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Kreps of Camas Prairie, parents of Mrs. W. B. Cole, went to Bingen on Tuesday. They started in their hack from Bingen Wednesday morning for their home, with a drive of 25 or 30 miles ahead of them. Mr. Kreps served during the civil war in the 3d Missouri militia and the 7th Missouri cavalry.

Poultrymen, Attention.—A meeting of all interested is called to meet tomorrow, Saturday, Nov. 24th at 2:30 o'clock p.m., at the office of Judge Prather, to organize the Hood River Poultry club. Prof. J. M. Garrison, who has helped to organize like associations in different parts of the Northwest, will be present.

A. A. Bonney has bought Harpham Bros. place at Wyeth and has started a wood camp. Mr. Bonney intends to cut every stick of wood that he can sell, and parties wishing to cut wood can have an opportunity to do so.

White Salmon can now take a back seat. W. P. Watson presented the Glacier office, last week, with a beet that weighs 15 pounds and two potatoes, one of which weighs over 4 pounds. Who can "beet" it?

A literary programme and basket social will be given at Pine Grove school house, Nov. 29th. A prize will be given for the highest sold basket. Proceeds to be used for the school library. All are cordially invited.

Mrs. Anna Ries of Mt. Hood presented the Glacier with two carrots weighing 11 pounds and ten ounces, one turnip weighed 7 pounds 9½ ounces. They were grown on her ranch at Mt. Hood.

John Leland Henderson is in The Dalles, where he appears for the defendant in the suit in the circuit court of the town of Hood River against Fouts.

Rev. H. K. Hines, D. D., the pioneer missionary, will spend next Sunday in this city. He will preach at the Congregational church at 11 a. m.

S. J. La France, now a resident of Portland, was taking in the sights of Hood River, and shaking hands with old friends, last Monday.

Mrs. C. T. Bonney and baby Rex returned home from Tygh Valley on the early Sunday morning train and are now at their home.

Mrs. Sam. Smith and daughter Marie left for their home at Dallas, last Saturday, after a pleasant visit with friends in Hood River.

The ladies aid society of the M. E. church will meet with Mrs. Jackson on Friday afternoon of this week, at 2:30 o'clock.

Clyde T. Bonney expects to remain in Hood River in charge of his father's Hood River business and Wyeth wood camp.

Mrs. H. K. Hines has been visiting friends in the country for the past week. She is now the guest of Mrs. G. P. Crowell.

The suit in the circuit court of Warren vs. Davenport was dismissed on Monday, on motion of the plaintiff.

You can't afford to wear that old suit while new suits can be bought at the Denver Clothing store so cheap.

The ladies aid society of the U. B. church will meet with Mrs. H. C. Shaffer, Friday afternoon.

E. C. Rogers is building a story and a half house 24 by 32, on his five acres bought of M. H. Nickelsen.

Geo. T. Prather made sale of J. O. Pugh's place at White Salmon, to Mrs. C. A. Shurte of Arlington.

Be sure not to forget the poultrymen's meeting at Judge Prather's office, 2:30 p. m. Saturday.

Read the new ad of the Denver Clothing Store, where they are slaughtering prices.

A good many farmers have taken advantage of the cold snap, to butcher their hogs.

Rev. J. G. Alford has purchased five acres of M. H. Nickelsen at Belmont.

Dr. H. K. Hines will preach in the M. E. church Sunday evening next.

The snow was 26 inches deep at Davenport's big mill last Monday.

Canby post, G. A. R. and W. R. C., meet tomorrow at 1 o'clock.

Now is the time to cut wood. Apply at Reciprocity corner.

Waterproof oils for shoes and harness at J. Hullt's.

Denver Clothing Store is slaughtering prices.

A gentleman named Waldo arrived in Hood River Wednesday, from Southern California. He had heard of Hood River through a friend who lately embarked in the business of apple growing in California. This friend had received advice from an apple dealer in New York, who told him if he wanted to succeed in apple growing he should take lessons from the growers in Hood River, who sprayed their trees and packed their apples in good shape and shipped the best apples that came to the New York market. Mr. Waldo had never heard of Hood River, but after receiving the information, he resolved to visit the place that had become renowned for its fruit. He will stop a week or so in Hood River, and if he finds things as represented, may conclude to locate here.

Next week the Glacier will be printed on Wednesday, to give all connected with the paper a chance to observe Thanksgiving, fill up on turkey and do full justice to a square meal. All changes in ads, communications, church notices, etc., must therefore be handed in not later than Tuesday.

Rev. H. C. Shaffer announced last week that he would preach a sermon Sunday evening to the business men of the town. There was quite a sprinkling of business men in the large congregation that had the pleasure of listening to an excellent sermon.

Now is the time to buy goods of Sam. Bartmess and get your ticket punched for one of those excellent thermometers he is giving out with each $5 worth of goods purchased. If you will ever have use for a thermometer you have it right now.

Mr. and Mrs. Emery Harris of Vancouver visited the family of A. L. Phelps last week. Mr. Harris is a pioneer, having crossed the plains in 1859. He served in the 1st Oregon cavalry during the civil war.

Commissioner N. C. Evans and Supt. C. L. Gilbert are in attendance at the convention of judges and assessors in Portland. Mr. Gilbert is proxy for Commissioner Harriman.

A. F. Hershner has purchased John Bradley's bakery and will become, with his family, a permanent resident of Hood River. See his announcement in another column.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Williams will move into the cottage next to the U. B. church. Mr. and Mrs. Bert. Graham will move back to their cottage on River street.

Mrs. C. L. Henderson arrived from Chicago last Friday. She is in good health and says the big storm followed her all the way from Chicago.

The Emma G. Robinson place, adjoining A. I. Mason on the East Side, is offered at $750 if sold in the next ten days.

The local teachers' association will meet at the school house tomorrow, Saturday, at 2 o'clock.

B. F. Belieu went to Portland Tuesday, on a business trip.

Mrs. J. F. Watt and daughter Avis are visiting in Portland.

Capt. P. S. Davidson has returned from his trip East.

Sherrill's new ad will interest you.

Obituary.

William K. Cole died at the residence of his son, W. B. Cole, Hood River, on Saturday, Nov. 17, 1900, aged 77 years, 3 months and 2 days. The birthplace, in 1823, of deceased was in Washington county, Virginia. When 4 years of age he came with his parents from Virginia to Indiana, where he lived until 21 years of age. He then moved to Missouri. When gold was discovered in California, in 1849, he went to that Eldorado, but soon returned to his home in Missouri. About 30 years ago Mr. Cole came with his family to the Pacific coast, residing at several places in Western Oregon. Twenty years ago he settled on his farm in Camas Prairie, which has since been his home, although temporarily residing for a few years at Bingen, Wash., and Hood River. In the state of Illinois, many years ago, he was united in marriage to Sarah Richards, his now bereft companion. To this union there were born six children, five of whom are living. They are W. B. Cole of Hood River, B. B. Cole of Alaska, J. M. Cole, Mrs. Herman Vertschi and Mrs. Albert Vertschi of Camas Prairie. In 1854 Mr. Cole was made a Mason of Oquawka lodge, No. 123, Oquawka, Ill. During the civil war deceased faithfully served his country for four years, enduring with a heroic spirit the privation and suffering incident to those dark days. He was a member of the 13th Missouri regiment and was captured with his regiment at the battle of Lexington, Missouri, in 1861. Afterwards he served in the second battalion of the Veteran Reserve Corps. When 21 years of age he professed faith in Christ, and from that day until the day of his death his family and neighbors bore him the happy testimony of a consistent and practical Christian life. He was a life-long member of the Baptist denomination, the church of his choice.

Services were conducted at the White Salmon church by Rev. J. L. Hershner, on Monday, and the burial was in the cemetery adjoining the church. Of the departed it may be said, in the language of one of old, "Thou hast come to thy grave in a full age, like as a shock of corn cometh in in his season."

Death of Mrs. Mary Joslyn.

Mrs. Mary Joslyn, wife of Hon. E. S. Joslyn, died at her home in Colorado Springs, Colorado, Nov. 1st, aged about 76 years. Mrs. Joslyn was well known to all old settlers of this section. Mr. and Mrs. Joslyn settled at White Salmon in 1852, where they lived until 1876, when they moved to Colorado. Their home at White Salmon was known to all as being ever open to their friends, and the most hospitable of places. In early days it was a custom for young people to make up parties and visit Mr. and Mrs. Joslyn, who were the most accomplished entertainers, and many of the pleasantest recollections of those who have grown to womanhood and manhood in The Dalles are associated with these visits to the Joslyn homestead. A Colorado paper giving an account of Mrs. Joslyn's death states that a niece, Miss Tuck, was spending the evening with her while Mr. Joslyn was attending prayer meeting. Mrs. Joslyn arose from her chair, apparently in good health, but fell to the floor and died instantly.—Mountaineer.

Announcement.

Having bought the Bradley Bakery, we desire to announce to the public that we will continue to conduct a first-class Bakery, where everything in the bakery line will be supplied at reasonable prices. Special orders will be promptly filled. We will also have in stock fruits, confectioneries, fine teas and coffees. We most respectfully solicit a share of the patronage of the people of Hood River and vicinity. A. F. HERSHNER.

Union Thanksgiving Service.

The churches of Hood River will unite in holding a thanksgiving service on Thursday at 11 a.m. at the M.E.church. In accordance with the custom observed, of the churches and pastors taking their turn in entertaining this service, and preaching the sermon, it falls to the lot of Rev. J. L. Hershner of the Congregational church to preach the sermon.

THE PEOPLE'S STORE.

Played Out.

Dull headache, pains in various parts of the body, sinking at the pit of the stomach, loss of appetite, feverishness, pimples or sores are all positive evidences of impure blood. No matter how it became so it must be purified in order to obtain good health. Acker's Blood Elixer has never failed to cure scrofulous or syphilitic poisons or any other blood diseases. It is certainly a wonderful remedy, and we sell every bottle on a positive guarantee. Williams & Brosius.

Married.

At the home of Mrs. C. B. Atterbury, November 20th, by the Rev. J. L. Hershner, Mrs. Louise Boyden of Hood River, and Grenville W. T. Goddard of San Francisco, California.

Mr. and Mrs. Grenville Goddard are stopping for the winter with Mrs. C. B. Atterbury, and contemplate making Hood River their future home.

Buying Trees.

We have much sympathy for the grower who waits for years to get his trees into bearing, only to find that he has been victimized; such experiences are disappointing, and in some cases attended with serious loss. The case with which a label may be changed from one tree to another, and the long time it takes for a tree to bear, are inviting to an unscrupulous agent, and some fall into the temptation.

The majority of the trees raised in the state of New York are grown by honest nurserymen—men who know their business, and who keep their varieties "true to name." Some of these nurserymen employ agents to sell their trees, and are responsible for the actions of those agents. If a stranger calls on you to sell you trees, do not believe anything he says unless he proves it. If he claims to be "one of the proprietors" of a nursery, take his references and write to them. If he says he is a "special" or "general" agent, he can show a certificate of his agency, and you are to see that it is of recent date. If you make a purchase, have him give you a duplicate of the order, and see that it is correct, and that it has his name written thereon, and then write to the firm who sent him to you, giving a full account of the transaction, and they will acknowledge it.

Any one who buys trees should be as cautious about is as if he were buying any other commodity. Satisfy yourself that you are dealing with reliable established and responsible nurserymen or their accredited agents. Plant freely of varieties of established value, invest but little in new things until you have tested them on your land, and avoid all purchases of varieties when unreasonable claims are made for them.—Geo. G. Atwood in Country Gentleman.
