Meneleys, Saturday night.

Uncle Billy Eastman, who has been in feeble health during the past winter, is now seriously sick.

Miss Alice Quigg, a teacher in the Portland academy, was a guest at the Alma Howe house Saturday.

George L. Davenport of the E. G. Partridge Co., Portland, made a business trip to Hood River Thursday last.

Col. Hartley says he lost his mustache at the Odd Fellows' blow out at Bingen, last Thursday night—the goat ate it off.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Sunderland of Portland are visiting friends in Hood River. If they can procure a dwelling house they will remain here for the summer.

Walter Shaffer, who has been visiting his brother in Hood River since his return from the Philippines, started last Friday for his home in Indiana. He served three years in the regular army and in all that time has not had a furlough home.

The Davenport Lumber Co. are receiving orders every day for lumber and railroad ties to be shipped East. They now have orders for 200,000 feet or more per week at prices better than ever. These orders come through the saw mill men's association, of which Frank Davenport is vice president.

Mrs. Rose McCoy and Elmer McCoy returned to Hood River last Thursday. They spent the winter in Southern California and report having a pleasant time. But they are glad to get back to Hood River, where we have plenty of fire-wood, and where when the weather is cool we can build a fire to take the chill off.

At the old armory building now occupied by the Waucoma Manufacturing Company, they have good fire protection. An inch and one-half pipe leads the water into the building from the two inch main in the street. With 75 feet of 1¼ inch hose and a ¾ inch nozzle they can throw a stream over any part of the building.

Henry Howe and son George came in from Burns, Oregon, last Friday. Mr. Howe is chief clerk in the United States land office at Burns. He is off duty on a month's vacation. Mrs. Howe and her daughter Mary arrived from Minnesota on Tuesday. Her daughter Helen, who has been with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bishop, at Warm Springs, came home also and met her father at The Dalles.

People sometimes have a sick horse or cow that needs treatment but the animal is neglected because the owner doesn't know how to treat it. M. E. Welch of Hood River is a graduate of the state university of Illinois where he took a thorough course in veterinary and is skilled in the treatment of live stock of all kinds. Call on him when his services are needed. His charges are reasonable.

The game of basket ball held at the gymnasium, last Saturday evening, drew a good crowd to witness the game. The boys played a good game, which was won by Captain Earl Bartmess' team with a score of 9 to 10. The gymnasium is a great thing for the boys and it seems to be well appreciated by them. Mr. Shaffer deserves great credit for the interest he has taken in the welfare of the boys of Hood River.

Paul Kruger, the fruit tree agent, is in the valley selling trees. He has been selling nursery stock all over the upper country and probably sells more trees than any agent in the field. He is very accommodating and when a man wants the best he can always get it from Kruger. One party asked him for 100 good strawberry plants. He told him he could sell him 100 Clark's Seedling plants far $2. The man didn't want any seedlings at any price. "All right," said Mr. Kruger, "I have the Hood River berries at $10 per 100." He made the sale at the latter figures.

C. F. Waldo returned last Friday from a trip to Tacoma, Seattle and Puyallup. At the latter place he found the hop growers digging up their hop vines and planting instead blackberry and raspberry vines. They grow the everbearing blackberry and find it very profitable. Mr. Waldo was surprised to learn of the productiveness of the soil in the Puyallup valley. Places of two or three acres are making good livings for whole families. From one and three-quarters acres a man took off 800 crates of red raspberries that sold at an average price of $1.25 per crate. The net price was 83 cents a crate. The berries are shipped to Montana. The crates hold 24 pint cups. He found no Hood River climate there and is back again in Hood River.

A serious runaway happened on the East Side last Thursday. Mark Thomas and two sisters were driving down the hill from their place when Mark got out of the hack to cut a switch. He gave the lines to his eldest sister, but she soon after got out of the wagon and in getting out accidenally threw off the brake. The wagon started onto the horses and the team started down the road. Izette, a child seven years old, was left in the wagon. Mark ran and overtook the team and climbed into the wagon, but just as he had about succeeded in stopping it, he was thrown out by a lurch made by the wagon on a side hill. The little girl was also thrown out or jumped out. The boy's right arm was broken; the little girl was picked up insensible and sustained a serious injury to the eye.

An Odd Fellow's lodge was instituted at Bingen, Wash., Thursday evening, April 3d. A big delegation went from Hood River. District Deputy Gillette of Stevenson installed the new officers and members. A supper was served by the ladies, and the delegation from this side the Columbia did not return till Friday morning. The following composed the delegation from Hood River: J H Furgeson, H J Hibbard, W O Ash, Geo Thompson, Allen Macrum, Albert McCamey, F F Barnard, A Decan, O B Hartley, J W Taylor, L C Haynes, Jas Reese, C F Stauffer, S C Jackson, O A Rinehart, J M Lakin, E W Udell, J E Hanna, L E Morse, J L Henderson, A C Parrott, Wm Ganger, A J Gatchell.

W. K. Nash of Grand Forks, N. D., wholesale fruit man was here looking over the strawberry situation for the coming season. His house has handled nearly half of the berries shipped by the union the past two years, and with his connections expect to be able to handle three cars a day this year. He buys the berries f. o. b. Hood River. After a drive through the strawberry section, he expressed the opinion that Hood River had a great future.

The equinoxial storm was a little late this year and struck Hood River last Saturday evening. Since then we have had rain and snow and wind with an occasional streak of sunshine. The hills have been white with snow since Sunday morning. In the valley where the snow fell it melted as fast as it fell. If we don't get severe frosts when the weather clears up we will be fortunate.

Geo. Gifford of Portland was in town Saturday, completing arrangements for handling strawberries the coming season. He has handled the strawberry business in Montana the past two years for both the union and Davidson Fruit Co., and has succeeded in getting from 50c to $1 more for Hood River strawberries in Montana than was formerly received under the old competitive system.

J. A. Chrisman, who arrived from Missouri Monday morning, bought ten acres of wild land of W. P. Watson in the Frankton district, paying therefor $350. The sale was made through Driggs, Culbertson & Co. Mr. Chrisman will build upon the place at once and go to preparing the land for strawberries.

Badly Mixed.—S. E. Bartmess on Friday received a postal card from Omaha addressed by typewriter as follows:

"S. E. River Bartness, Hood, Ore.,"

The fact that the card arrived at its destination proves the efficiency of Uncle Sam's postal clerks or else that S. E. Bartmess is widely known.

A serious accident happened at Mt. Hood last Friday. H. H. Tomlinson was using an emery wheel when it bursted. A piece of the wheel struck him in the head laying bare the skull. Dr. Dumble was called and dressed the wound. The doctor went up to see him again on Monday and reports him doing nicely.

Amos Underwood was over from the booming town of Underwood on Wednesday. He said he was at Stevenson the day before and hurried home for fear he would be snowed in along the river. He says some people forget that we have had just such storms before in the history of this section.

The Meneley's Trio of Chicago, who will be here Saturday night, have appeared in Los Angeles, Salem, Portland and The Dalles a number of times to crowded houses. Hood River is fortunate in having such a distinguished company to stop here. At Congregational church Saturday evening, 25 cents.

Frank Caddy finished setting about six acres of strawberries on his place last Saturday. Frank has cleaned considerable land during the past winter and now has his place in excellent shape to produce something. No better land in the valley, after the rocks are taken off, than that in the Frankton district.

Rev. Lord, author of the work "Birds of Oregon," and for two years pastor of the First Unitarian church of Portland, preached in A. O. U. W. hall Sunday. He also visited the schools on Monday and gave a talk to the pupils. Mr. Lord is expected to return here in the near future and give us a lecture on birds.

The monthly tea of the ladies aid of the Congregational church will be held today, April 11th, at the home of Mrs. Entrican, at the Glenwood, between the hours of 2 and 5. A good literary programme is being prepared. A general invitation is extended to ladies and gentlemen.

The Waucoma Manufacturing Co. ,in the old armory building, started their machinery Monday morning. Everything worked smoothly. This company is now prepared to furnish anything in the line of wood work for house furnishings. Home industries of this kind help to make Hood River.

J. R. Crosby sold his place on the East Side, 20 acres, to L. Clark, who recently bought the John Monroe place. Consideration $950. Mr. Crosby had the Monroe place leased for five years. He also sold his lease and has moved to his place in the Odell district, where he has 30 acres of excellent land.

Have you seen the picture of Hood River in Rand's store window? While you admiringly gaze at the picture, don't forget there are other things in the window that may interest you more than the picture. Window advertising is an art that is becoming quite popular.

A citizen of Dukes valley tells this on our correspondent "Ike." Meeting him, he said: "Hello Ike; how are things in Dukes valley?" "I left there two weeks ogo," said Ike. "Any other improvements?" querried the Dukes valley citizen.

The Hood River Commercial Co. butchered a beef Wednesday that was a wonder for fatness. The fat hung in rolls from the quarters as they hung in the market. Fred Bailey raised and fattened the animal.

The Brotherhood of Andrew and Philip is indebted to Mrs. Crowell, Mrs. Dr. Dumble, Mrs. E. L. Smith, Mrs. J. E. Rand, Leslie Butler, J. E. Hanna and others for valuable magazines contributed recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. P. Scobee of the East Side have purchased the Scobee Bros. 40 acres, for $2,500. This is a good buy. The place has about 20 acres cleared and five acres in apple orchard five years old.

Mrs. Lindsley Hoyt of Portland is visiting her father, Capt. H. C. Coe. Mrs. Hoyt expects to go to the Sandwich Islands this spring. Her husband is master mechanic of the railroad shops in the islands.

Jack Binns gave the Glacier man a Jonathan apple on Wednesday that was as firm and sound as might be wished for. Jack grows good apples at his place, and they are good keepers, too.

For the benefit of newcomers and such as have no money to burn, Dr. Adams of Paradise farm is offering nice potatoes at 90 cents a sack.

Letters are advertised at the post office this week for Mert Armstrong, Roy Emerson, Walter Goodwin and Andrew Osburn.

Wm. Orser of Chenoweth was in town Wednesday. He reports two inches of snow at his place Wednesday morning.

C. L. Rogers moved up from Portland Tuesday. They don't stay away from Hood River long nowadays.

The Davidson Fruit Co. have fine displays of fruit from their cannery in store windows in town.

H. D. Stewart of Portland was in town Saturday. Mr. Stewart's family reside in the valley.

Miss Pauline Shelley came up from Portland on Monday and will visit two weeks at home.

G. J. Gessling went to Portland Wednesday on a business trip for the fruit union.

Meneleys, Saturday evening at the Congregational church.

The Davidson Fruit Co. have strawberry plants for sale.

Mrs. Rose McCoy, who recently returned from California, remembered the Glacier office with a fine assortment of different kinds of oranges and grape fruit. At Riverside she visited the orchard of J. S. Kastleman and procured some fine specimens of fruit. Mr. Kastleman has 30 acres in oranges, for which he said he wouldn't take $75,000. His income for one year has been as high as $12,000. The expense of cultivating and gathering the fruit is about $2,000 a year.

J. H. Cradlebaugh has come back to Hood River to live. John always did know a good thing when he saw it and of course knows there is no better place than Hood River. He has formed a partnership with S. F. Fouts and will deal in real estate. Mr. Cradlebaugh's name has been mentioned for congress on the democratic ticket, but he says he couldn't afford to accept the nomination. Hood Rriver would give him nearly a solid vote if he would be candidate

Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Davidson celebrated their wooden wedding Tuesday evening. Whist was played and the fortunate players were Miss Lizzie Roberts and H. F. Davidson. The unfortunate players were Mrs. J. F. Watt and C. A. Bell. A number of presents were received. A dilicious lunch was served and everyone enjoyed a pleasant evening.

A big slide on the railroad at Dodson's place, below Bonneville, delayed trains on Monday, and the track was not cleared till about 3 o'clock Tuesday morning. The mail and passengers on the morning overland trains were transferred, and the Spokane train due here at 8:25 Monday night did not arrive till 5 o'clock Tuesday morning.

A court of Foresters of America was instituted in Hood River last Saturday night, with 84 charter members. About 30 members of the Dalles court came down on the steamer Shaver to assist in the ceremonies. Dr. Brosius is chief ranger of the new court, which will be known as Court Hood River, No. 42.

The Dalles Nursery stock will be in charge of Paul G. Kruger at the Glenwood hotel Saturday, April 12th. All who have ordered goods will please be on hand promptly to receive them. There will be a few extra trees and those desiring a good variety of trees can procure them of him then.

O. T Smith and family, from Colorado, are stopping at the Glenwood. Mr. Smith expects to lease the Hibbard place for three years. They come to this country hoping the change of climate will benefit their little eight-year-old daughter, who has been an invalid for seven years.

The supreme court has sustained the decision of the district court in the case wherein the D.P. & A.N.Co. was sued for damages for the death of Harper Hanson, who was drowned in the Columbia river August 8, 1898, by his small boat being struck by the steamer Sarah Dixon. The steamboat company won the suit.

M. F. Loy, now residing in Clark county, Wash., was in Hood River Monday. He had been out to Camas Prairie. His son Will is now second mate on the Bailey Gatzert and holds a pilot's commission for service on the Columbia. Will is a good boy and richly deserves his promotion.

An interesting lecture is announced, that of Rev. B. B. Burton at the Valley Christian church next Monday evening. Those who can attend should not miss it. See announcement in another column.

Miss Emma Bonney, accompanied her sister-in-law, Mrs. Clyde Bonney, to her home at Tygh valley last week. Miss Bonney will remain for a while at her homestead before her return to Hood River.

J. R. Rand came up Tuesday from Portland where he has secured a situation as motorman on the City and Suburban street railway. He went to Portland Thursday.

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Watson gave them a surprise Monday evening. It was in honor of Mrs. Watson's birthday, she being 67 years of age.

L. W. Morton, wife aud son of Illinois are visiting with J. W. Morton. They are favorably impressed with Hood River, especially with the spring water.

Miss Lloyd, a sister of Mrs. B. Warren, arrived here from the East, last Thursday, on a visit to her sister and fam-ily and relatives on Puget sound.

Regular meeting of Canby post, G. A. R. and W. R. C., tomorrow, Saturday. A full attendance is necessary, as there will be important business.

The Davidson Fruit Co. is setting 13 acres to strawberries on Willow Flat, East Side. They are also setting 600 peach trees.

Rev. Archer and family of Wasco have been visiting in Hood River and returned home the first of the week.

Notice the ad for Capt. Coe in another column. He has some of the choicest lots in town for sale.

The comedy show advertised for Monday evening was postponed till next Monday evening.

Examinations in the Hood River school commenced Wednesday and will today, Friday.

Rambler and Columbia bicycles for sale or rent at the People's Store.

Strawberry crates at the box factory now ready to be hauled out.

S. J. LaFrance of Portland has been in town during the week.

The Hood River school will close two weeks from today.

A Happy Birthday Gathering.

Mrs. Anna Flagg was given a surprise Wednesday. The Canby Relief Corps, of which Mrs. Flagg is a loyal and honored member, came in a body to give her a surprise on her 78th birthday. The ladies of the corps brought along good things to eat, and Mrs. Flagg prepared the dinner, making excellent biscuit with her own hands. About half a dozen members of the G. A. R. dropped in about 2 o'clock, when the ladies deserted their needle work and music on the piano by Mesdames Jackson and Martin, and singing in which the G. A. R. boys joined, was in order. A handsome relief corps emblem, in gold, the gift of the corps, was presented by the corps president, Mrs. Alida Shoemaker, in the following pretty little speech:

We have been hearing a great deal about nobility of late, and some very naughty things have been said because there has been a disposition shown in America to honor nobility. All of which has made me glad that I live in a land where we all have a chance to belong to the nobility, where nobility of character is placed above the mere accident of birth. We have come today to honor one in whom we recognize true nobility, and though she may not be able to boast of belonging to a long line of kings, she is no less one of God's noble women. I think it is not necessary for me to tell you today how we appreciate Mrs. Flagg in the corps, how like a valiant soldier, we always expect to find her at her post of duty, and how we miss her when her chair is vacant; but wishing something a little more tangible than words to show our appreciation, we have brought you this pin, an emblem of our order, which I now present to you in the name of the corps, hoping you may have as much pleasure in receiving as we have in giving it to you. You know the good book says: "It is more blessed to give than to receive," therefore you have placed us under obligations to you for giving us this pleasure. May you be spared to us many years yet, and may your light grow brighter even unto the perfect day is the wish of your sisters in Canby W. R. C.

Mrs. Flagg was deeply touched by the kindly remembrance of her sisters in the corps and in thanking them for this token of their esteem assured them that the emblem presented would be cherished by her while she lived second only to her grateful remembrance of the donors.
