Ralph is said to have stayed out until about 2 o'clock, when he too sought the shelter of the camp.

"Does Williams talk religion to you?" said the Chronicle reporter to Cooke, the lad who is serving three months time in the county jail for stealing. "I don't know what religion is" answered the boy, who gave his age as 13 years. "He tries to teach me to draw pictures," added Cook. Williams is quite an artist, sitting up till the "wee sma' hours" some mornings sketching and then rises somewhere near the noon hour. He is still deeply religious. Refuses to look at cards and reads nothing but religious literature.

Again the Hood River Tigers and the M. O. M's. of The Dalles met in a basket ball contest at the Vogt last night, and again did The Dalles do them up, this time, however, more modestly in a score of 18 to 26. The Tigers have a strong team, but the team work of our home team was excellent and did the work. The game was umpired by E. Cramer and the personel was as follows: Tigers—Scheller, Brosius, Davenport, Filsinger and Bartness. M. O. M.'s—Humphrey, Conrow, Roberts, Kent and Curtiss.—Chronicle.

At a late conference at the office of State Superintendent J. H. Ackerman, a committee of county school superintendents decided that no county teachers' institutes should be held during the present year, and that a portion of the institute fund should be contributed to the educational conference fund, to be held during the Lewis and Clark fair. The authority for devoting a portion of the institute fund for that purpose was granted by a special act of the recent legislature. The educational conference will be held in the department of congresses and conferences, and during the week beginning August 28 and ending September 2.
