The wagon bridge in the east end of town was closed to traffic Sunday, while workmen raised the west approach for the purpose of letting the track of the Mount Hood Railway pass beneath the bridge, instead of effecting a crossing on the old grade. The East Side farmers considered at first thought that they had a grievance against the county officials for permitting the company to go under the bridge, it being claimed that the west approach as raised makes a much heavier grade. The farmers turned out to protest en masse against such proceeding, but no action was taken, it being considered after careful examination that the court had acted with judgment in the matter. Had the railway crossed on the present grade, there would have been grave danger to occupants of vehicles. The railroad company could be made to pay large sums for a death, but this would not replace a life. This danger is obviated by the road crossing under the bridge, as is also the possibility of delays and blockades because of the shifting and switching of freight trains. How awkward it would be if parties on their way to the boat landing would have to wait until a long freight train passed up or down and in the meantime have the boat leave the landing without them. When the county has sufficient funds, the grade to the west approach can be filled in and a practically level street will be provided. Even as it is, Mr. Morse of the Transfer and Livery Co., tells us the grade with planking is easier than the old mud. There were those who suggested that the railroad pass overhead at this point. Had this been done it would have been impossible to have raised the west approach and to make the proposed fill in the street. Taken all in all, we believe the county court acted well in placing the railroad where it is, underneath instead of above or on the same grade as the wagon road.

Since March, 1905, when filings were authorized for trial at the fall term of the circuit court, 910 divorce suits—according to a correspondent for the New York World—have been filed in Kansas City. This correspondent estimates the number will reach one thousand before the period for filing terminates, and says: "As there are about 40,000 families in Kansas City the filing of 1,000 divorce suits in six months means that legal separations are being sought at the rate of 5 per cent a year. These 1,000 divorce suits will be divided among the five divisions of the circuit court, and will be sufficient to keep them all grinding at the rate of one case an hour, eight hours a day, during the entire month of October."

The Ione Proclaimer, by Harlie B. Carter, is one of the bright little weeklies of Eastern Oregon, which helps an exchange editor to ease up on the tired feeling acquired so often when glancing over the average country weekly of this state. The Proclaimer was once the property of A. Bennett, the Irrigator man, who christened the sheet with its present name. Morrow is said to be the richest county per capita in Oregon, and the Proclaimer declares Ione to be the best city in Morrow county.

Minors Can Not Smoke Cigarettes.

Boise, Idaho, now has an anti-cigarette ordinance. It provides that no minors should use or have in their possession cigarettes, cigarette papers, tobacco or compounds of tobacco for cigarettes. The penalty fixed was a fine not to exceed $20, or imprisonment in the city jail not to exceed five days, or both.

Better That She Make Pancakes.

This sounds like a pointer out of the book of experience; it is from the Milton Eagle: Young man, don't waste your time dreaming of the girl with the goo goo eyes. It's of more importance to know if she can make flapjacks and fry meat.

Died.

In Hood River, Saturday, October 21, C. B. Handy, aged 65. Mr. Handy came here last spring from Beelus, Neb., where he was the proprietor of a large hotel. Dropsy was the cause of his death. Deceased was a native of New York state. Funeral services were conducted in Nichols' undertaking parlors Sunday afternoon, under the auspices of the local lodge of Odd Fellows. The services were largely attended. W. A. Elkins of the Valley Christian church preached the funeral sermon. Besides a wife, deceased leaves several children.

Put Salt on Their Tails.

The Dalles Chronicle.

The proof of the rabbit pie is in eating; therefore The Chronicle cannot vouch for the truth of the statement, but "tells the tail as 'twas told to us." It is said that four hunters—Sherman Frank and Wm. Frost of Hood River, and Charles Twineham and Glen Allen of this city—went a hunting Saturday for to catch a jackrabit. Reaching Castle Rock they made Brer Rabbit jump and returned with seven dozen. There are all sorts of reports current as to who did the most shooting and one is to the effect that Twineham is only responsible for three deaths, and these fellows he found sitting on the fence and watching him go by. "Thereby hung a tail" and Charlie got his salt out and is now telling about his pot shots.

Nursery Trees.

Twenty thousand, carefully grown, choicest varieties—Apple, Pear, Peach and Cherry trees can be found at our True-to-Name nursery for the coming season's planting. We have never been able to supply the demand and hence you should file your orders at an early date to insure attention.

TO EXTEND ROAD TO MOUNT HOOD

Mount Hood people are jubilant over the assurance that the Oregon Lumber Co. will extend their railway to the upper valley in the very near future. While he Glacier was unable yesterday to secure a confirmation of this piece of news from Mr. Eccles the president of the company, yet it has the information from a reliable source that Mount Hood will very soon hear the toot of the iron horse.

The Oregon Lumber Co. has about completed a large dam on the east fork about a mile and a half above Winans City. A sawmill is also being installed here.

Right Of Way Suit Postponed.

The suit of the Mount Hood railway for right of way condemnation over property of the Winans Bros., which had been set for Tuesday of this week, as postponed on account of the delay of Judge Bradshaw with a water case at Prineville and will be heard next Monday.

New Light Plant About Completed.

The big five-foot hydraulic pipe supplying water to the 500 horsepower wheels of the Hood River electric Light and Power company's new plant was connected Tuesday. A few more days will complete the entire system, and the machinery will be put in operation within a week.

Missionary Meeting, November 1.

Rev. and Mrs. Pace, who are now under appointment of the Woman's Board to the Philippines, will be in Hood River and will speak at the U. B. church. Everybody is invited to come out and hear Rev. and Mrs. Pace, who are on their way to the Philippines with their message of love Services at 8:00 p. m.

G. M. BEELER.

Hart is Placed Under Bonds.

Allen Hart, the young man who was mixed up last week in a cutting fray in the lumber yard at Viento, appeared before Justice Nickelsen Monday, waived examination, and was bound over to await the action of the circuit court. His bonds were placed at $500, and being signed by Madison Hart and Henry C. Hart, he has his liberty. F. W. DeHart alleges Hart assaulted him with a dangerous weapon.

Recent Real Estate Transfers.

W. J. Baker reports the following land transfers:

R. R. Erwin to August Paasch, balance of holdings in Watson & Erwin's first addition.

D. F. Lamar, 13 acres to Mr. Demorest; consideration, $4,000. The purchaser comes here from Independence, and was formerly a resident of Iowa.

J. N. Bridges, 10 acres to O. J. Williamson of Ione, $3500.

Hood River Ministers Hold Meeting.

The ministers gathered Monday morning with Rev. W. C. Gilmore. Rev. G. M. Beeler of the United Brethren church, was welcomed to the association. Reports from the ministers were given concerning their respective fields, and matters of local interest were discussed.

Preparatory steps were taken for Thanksgiving service, and Rev. J. B. Spight of the Baptist church was requested to preach then.

The next meeting of the association will be at the U. B. reading room, Monday, October 30, at 10 a. m. Ministers of Hood River and the valley are invited. A living church is of vital importance to any community, and our pastors are honestly striving to be such to this locality.

Green Point Mill To Operate.

Owing to delay in receipt of machinery the new sawmill at Green point will not begin operation before Monday of next week. This mill is a rotary saw, with a capacity of 60,000 feet per day. The band saws will require much more time and additional machinery for placing them in position, and it is not thought that the larger mill will begin sawing until next spring.

The larger mill will have a combined capacity of between 150,000 and 200,000 feet of lumber per day. It is estimated that there is timber enough within reach of this mill to keep the same in operation for ten or fifteen years.

The reorganized Davenport Bros. Lumber Co. will be known as the Stanley-Smith Lumber Co. Frank Davenport, the former president, retains a considerable interest in the new company.

Inspect Proposed Railway Route.

Sunday afternoon the steamer Kellogg passed up the river having on board N. D. Miller, chief engineer, N. W. Bethel and Sims & Shields, head contractors for Northern Pacific construction work on the north bank road. Arriving at The Dalles, the party took the portage road for Celilo, where they boarded Dr. Blalock's launch, Island Queen, for the purpose of making a thorough examination of the proposed route down the north bank of the Columbia

Camps for engineers and construction parties are getting numerous along the north bank. A mile and a half above Celilo are located Caughren & Woldson, where a tunnel will be constructed. Two miles east of Lyle is another camp under their supervision, and here perhaps the largest tunnel on the road will be made. There are also three camps at Cape Horn, where Porter Bros. have charge.

The contractors believe that it will require two years at least to complete the construction work for the new road.

Rev. Gilmore on Two Committees.

At the Oregon State Congregational association held in Forest Grove last week, the report of Rev. D. B. Gray showed that in additions in membership there were 2204 members the largest number being made during the past two years. The contributions during the same period for benevolences amounts to $25,334. While the figures show much progress, yet the speaker condoned the use of them and argued that they could not be depended upon in dealing with church affairs. "What we want to know," said the speaker "is not the number of members, but what does the church and its membership stand for. Congregationalism does not stand for members; it stands for freedom in religious affairs."

Dr. E. L. House and Rev. L. D. Malone introduced resolutions relative to a federation of the churches of the state. The concensus of opinion showed that the Congregational churches were in favor of a closer comity with the other churches.

In the committee elections for the ensuing year Rev. W. C. Gilmore of Hood River was named on the Sunday school and Pacific University committees.

Dalles Take Foot Ball Game.

The local football eleven returned Monday morning from The Dalles sore and distressed in body and limb, but light in heart, for notwithstanding their defeat of 57 to nothing, the visitors were so well received by their host of the opposing team that an era of good feeling has been developed, which bids fair to leave the hatchet of old accounts buried too deep to reclaim.

"The boys did fine by us," reports Guard Withrow. "Too much credit cannot be given Coach Stubling and Manager Sexton. In the evening we were conducted to the rooms of the Commercial club, where everything was free to the boys from Hood River."

Describing the game, The Dalles paper says:

Hood River outweighed The Dalles on an average of thirty pounds to the man, but they were, nevertheless, unable to withstand the whirlwind work of The Dalles team. It can be truthfully said for the home team that every man was a star.

The Hood River team showed a woeful lack of team work and coaching, although there was some good individual playing. The boys played a clean game throughout and by their gentlemanly ways on and off the field won the good will of The Dalles people.

UNDERWOOD.

George Tyrell and family came over from Chenowith for a few days visit.

Mrs. Dark passed by Underwood on the Spencer last week, stopped off long enough to shake hands with those at the landing.

Mr. Freeman returned from Chenowith, Wednesday, where he has been for the past few weeks sowing a ton of grass seed on the 300 acres of grazing land for Mr. Curtis.

Charlie Moore was driving around Underwood Sunday accompanied by two friends who were looking at land.

The workmen on the school house are getting along nicely. They need more help, but have been unable to get it.

C. H. Cromwell has carpenters at work building an addition to his house.

An Indian man camping at the mouth of the White Salmon river, drying fish, died suddenly one day last week.

A number of strangers are visiting our part of the country, looking for orchard land.

Mr. Jansen has completed another nice cistern on his homestead.

George Ramsey came up from the Willamette valley last week for the purpose of running his mother's ranch for a few years.

A. J. Hayes made a business trip to White Salmon Tuesday.

Will Wendort made two trips to Chenowith last week with heavy loads.

Some of the neighbors are talking very strongly of building another telephone line.

Medford Has a Building Boom.

According to the Medford Mail eighty-four new dwellings have been or are being constructed in Medford aggregating $80,000 in cost.

Mrs. Castner Entertains.

Mrs. Charles Castner entertained a party of young ladies Thursday afternoon, Miss Gildersleeve of Jackson, Mich., a cousin of Mr. Castner, being the guest of honor.

At luncheon some interesting stories of camp life with side trips to Lost Lake were related, which made the cheerful dining room seem even more cozy than usual in contrast. The table decorations consisted of autumn leaves, entirely encircling the table. A pumpkin, carved into a basket and filled with fruit and leaves, made a handsome center piece.

Invited guests were: Miss Gildersleeve, Miss Cramer, Miss Baker, Miss Kelsay, Miss Wallace, Miss Hoadley, Miss Eltma Hoadley, Miss Blythe, Miss Olinger, Miss Bucks, Miss Walker, Miss Davidson, Miss Ingraham, Miss Shutes, Miss Richardson.

Evening Whist Club Reorganized.

The evening whist club met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Dumble, ready for a good time after the summer vacation, and each one bent on winning the prize, which was finally carried off by Charles Castner.

The club reorganized, several new members being present, and adjourned to meet Friday evening, November 3, with Mrs. Kinnard. The members of the club are:

Professor and Mrs. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Davidson, Dr. and Mrs. Dumble, Dr. and Mrs. Brosius, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Young, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Kelsay, Mr. and Mrs. Kinnard, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Bone, Mr. and Mrs. Will Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Castner, Mrs. Canfield and Miss Hoadley.

First Meeting Ladies' Whist Club.

The members of the ladies' afternoon whist club and invited guests met last Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles N. Clarkes for the first of the season's series of games. The prizes were won by Mrs. Kelsay and Miss Dano. Those present were Mrs. W. M. Stewart, Mrs. A. M. Kelsay, Mrs. Truman Butler, Mrs. C. H. Vaughan, Mrs. J. F. Watt, Mrs. O. J. Nelson, Mrs. E. N. Blythe, Mrs. N. W. Bone, Mrs. L. Clarke, Mrs. A. J. Graham, Mrs. E. H. Shepard, Mrs. Murray Kay, Mrs. M. F. Shaw, Mrs. C. T. Early, Mrs. Chas. N. Clarke, Miss Dano.

Refreshments were served. The club will meet on alternate Thursdays during the winter.

Royal Neighbors Enjoy a Dance.

Last Wednesday evening was the occasion of an entertainment given by the Royal Neighbors, Lodge No. 2889, at their hall at Mosier. There were present several out of town Neighbors, and these all helped to make the affair a complete success. After supper the floor was cleared for dancing, and they all enjoyed themselves greatly. Among those present from Hood River were Mr. and Mrs. Klinger, Mr. and Mrs. Coulter, Mr. and Mrs. Dakin, Mrs. Reese, Mrs. Mayes, Mrs. Lotts, Miss Brown, Misses Sharps, Mabel Riddell and Mr. Gorman.

...Send Your Washing to... Hood River Steam Laundry

Send it to them because they are doing it cheaper than you can do it at home; and then, too, it makes life lots easier. Hood River Steam Laundry washes, starches and delivers ready for ironing all family washing for

7c Per Pound

This term "family washing" includes such articles as underwear, handkerchiefs, socks, table cloths, napkins, etc. All flat pieces are ironed without extra charge.

This is an innovation which greatly simplifies the family laundry problem and will doubtless aid many Hood River housewives in making their daily duties less to be dreaded.

Do not fail to make inquiry regarding this offer.
