BLOOD POISON.

Mercury AND Potash Make Wrecks, Not Cures

In some cases the external signs of Contagious Blood Poison are so slight that the victim is firmly within the grasp of the monster before the true nature of the disease is known. In other cases the blood is quickly filled with this poisonous virus and the swollen glands, mucus patches in the mouth, sores on scalp, ulcers on tongue, sore throat, eruptions on skin, copper colored splotches, and falling hair and eyebrows leave no room for doubt, as these are all unmistakable signs of Contagious Blood Poison.

Doctors still prescribe mercury and potash as the only cure for Blood Poison. These poisonous minerals never yet made a complete and permanent cure of Contagious Blood Poison. They drive the disease back into the system, cover it up for a while, but it breaks out again in worse form. These powerful minerals produce mercurial rheumatism and the most offensive sores and ulcers, causing the joints to stiffen and finger nails to drop off. Mercury and potash make wrecks, not cures, and those who have been dosed with these drugs are never after free from aches and pain.

S. S. S. acts in an entirely different manner, being a purely vegetable remedy; it forces the poison out of the system, and instead of tearing down, builds up and invigorates the general health. S. S. S. is the only antidote for this specific virus, and therefore the only cure for Contagious Blood Poison. No matter in what stage or how hopeless the case may appear, even though pronounced incurable by the doctors, S. S. S. can be relied upon to make a rapid, permanent cure. S. S. S. is not a new, untried remedy; an experience of nearly fifty years has proven it a sure and unfailing cure for this disease. It is the only purely vegetable blood medicine known.

Mr. H. L. Myers, 100 Mulberry St., Newark, N. J., says: "I was afflicted with a terrible blood disease, which was in spots at first, but afterwards spread all over my body. These soon broke out into sores, and it is easy to imagine the suffering I endured. Before I became convinced that the doctors could do me no good I had spent a hundred dollars, which was really thrown away. I then tried various patent medicines, but they did not reach the disease. When I had finished my first bottle of S. S. S. I was greatly improved, and was delighted with the result. The large, red splotches on my chest began to grow paler and smaller, and before long disappeared entirely. I regained my lost weight, became stronger, and my appetite improved. I was soon entirely well, and my skin as clear as a piece of glass."

He bought a bottle of it from the druggist here and informed me that one dose cured him, and he is again at his work." For sale by S. Howorth & Co., druggists.

A number on the ballot easy to remember and that voters are generally going to place their mark opposite is No. 40. There are some very good things to be said of Dr. Nelson's conduct of the county clerk's office. The additional work brought on by the registration law cannot be estimated by anyone who doesn' have it to do, and adjoining counties put on an extra man at $50 per month to perform this work, the law justifying them in so doing. Yamhill county was saved this expense by the clerk and his deputy working all the harder and oftentimes into the night, to keep this work up with all their other duties. The work of the office has generally been well performed, and the endorsement of another term is going to be given Dr. Nelson.

The Alumni of Lafayette Seminary.

At the entertainment given by the Psi Phi literary society Monday evening at Lafayette, Miss Nellie Whiteaker had editorial charge of the "Olive Branch," the school paper. Among many interesting items was the following concerning the graduates of the seminary throughout its whole career:

Another school year has come to a close and once more upon the sea of life are launched a brave few to battle with the storms and tempests as best they may. Each past year has seen the force strengthened. Some have long and successfully struggled, others have quietly passed away leaving nevertheless "foot prints on the sands of time."

Eleven years ago the first graduates of Lafayette seminary bid farewell to school work and stepped bravely forth to find their place in the busy world. The small class was composed of two gentlemen, Chas. Earhart, now a traveling man and G. A. Ormsby a resident of Portland.

They were quickly followed by the class of '91, one member of which is well known to us, namely, Prof. E. V. Littlefield, county school superintendent, now residing in McMinnville. The other members of this class were, W. W. Carl, H. H. Carey, Edwin Carey and Miss Annie Younger.

Another year's work brings a larger class to the front, composed of Misses Bell and Eva Farnsworth and Rebecca Perry, Frank Odell, C. W. Kantner, now professor of music of Lafayette seminary and Rev. T. L. Weaver, the first and only one that the Master has seen fit to call from the ranks.

The class of '93 consisted of five members, Miss Mable Baker, now studying music in Chicago, Rev. E. Curran, Miss A. E. Forrest, wife of Prof. Littlefield, P. Marshal and Rev. J. J. Schneider.

The two graduates of '94 are well known to most of us, Mrs. Haight, formally Miss Viola Smith, and Rev. F. E. Billington, now a divinity student of Eugene and pastor at Cottage Grove.

They were followed by two more brave students, Miss Isora Edmiston and Mr Geo. Hansen.

The class of '96 was composed of three members: Mr. E. A. Hill, city recorder of Lafayette and law student; Mrs. Effie Smith-Boozer, wife of Rev. Boozer pastor of United Evangelical church at Corvallis; Mrs. Caroline Milloy-Shaw, wife of Mr. Shaw, general merchant of Mills City, Or.

Swift flying years bring the class of '97, where we find many familiar names. Prof. W. B. Dagget, now teaching at Pleasantdale; Ladie Hill-Thornton, Arthur Lindberg and E. H. Thornton, an eminent physician of Portland.

The graduates of '98 were Miss Viola Guenther, Miss Myrtle Hewitt, Alex Smith and L. H. Baker, principal of the Lebanon schools.

The names of the members of the class of '99 are still fresh in our minds, and the progress of each member is closely followed. Prof. A. F. Bittner, professor in Lafayette Seminary; Allen P. Bates, still clinging to his native town; Archie Gubser, now teaching in Washington; Hubert Edson, general agent for Chicago book establishment; Ernest Munch, book-keeper in Aurora; Rev. S. Ed Launer, pastor at Brooks.

Still pass the years and soon another class will take its place and begin its work, and as each rolling season takes its due, soon the graduates of Lafayette seminary will fade away, "Only remembered by what they have done."

C. C. Linden of Sheridan occupies a unique position on the ballot for the coming election. He is the candidate for justice of peace for district No. 1, and is the only man on the ticket put up by both the republican and Bryan parties. This is certainly a high compliment.

LAFAYETTE.

Mrs. Maud Bryan of Portland has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Dan Johnson.

Mrs. Caroline J. Shaw and Master Cyril Glenn Alton Shaw of Mill City have been down attending commencement and visiting with grandmother, Mrs. Watts, for a week. Mrs. Shaw was a graduate of the class of '96.

Mrs. Cyrene Bird of Portland is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. C. B. Carey.

Rev. Lindsey of the Second United Evangelical church of Portland preached last Sunday night.

Prof. D. M. Metzger preached the baccalaureate sermon on last Sunday with power, to the class of eight graduating students.

Mrs. E. Harris of Forest Grove is on a visit with relatives here.

Dr. Thornton and Ladie were up from Portland on a visit. The doctor returned to Portland Monday morning, but Mrs. Ladie Thornton remained at her mother's, Mrs. Hill, to attend the closing of the seminary year. She was a graduate of this school.

Dr. Coe and wife of Portland were visitors to our town this week, returning to Portland Monday morning.

Miss Edna Belcher of Portland is here visiting with relatives.

Miss Bitner of Portland, sister of Prof. Bitner, is visiting with Miss Cecil Olds and attending commencement. All the commencement exercises have been well attended from the first.

The graduating class of music of three young ladies, Miss Frankie Dupuy, Miss Cecil B. Olds and Miss Nellie Loleta Whitaker rendered well their program on the piano. Prof. Kantner showed great skill as a teacher in their instruction. Rev. C. C. Poling gave the charge and presented the certificates to the worthy class.

Miss Mary Hurley of Portland is here visiting and taking part in the school exercises. She was raised here.

Dr. Kellogg of Portland gave a very able and instructive lecture on Tuesday night to the literary class.

The music class under Prof. Kantner showed great progress.

Rev. Pratt of Salem is here. Visitors from McMinnville, Salem, Dayton and and Newberg were here.
