Kathy Wright Weds Ken Kindred at Saturday Ceremony

Miss Kathryn Louise Wright became the bride of Kenneth Andrew Kindred at the Mill City Presbyterian church on Saturday, June 26 at 4 o'clock with the Rev. Wayne Blake performing the ceremony.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. James T. Wright and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Kindred all of Mill City.

The bride wore a floor-length satin gown with empire style waist and scalloped rose bodice with similar trim on sleeves and chapel train. A pearl rose cap held her veil of illusion. She carried a bouquet of orchids with pink carnations and gypsophila.

Miss Patty Reese of Portland was her cousin's maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Cindy Bethel and Miss Sheily Richards. They were dressed in pink cotton with flocked white flowers, made empire style waist accented with sashes. They carried baskets of white daisies.

Flower girl was Susan Wright, sister of the bride. The bridegroom's brother, Marlin Kindred was ring bearer.

Don Clark served as best man, and others were Bi Burlings, Rick Williamson and David Wright.

Lighting the candles were Walt Kindred, brother of the bridegroom and Jim Wright, the bride's brother.

Organist for the wedding was Mrs. Doris Williams with Mrs. Calvin Culbertson and Tim Culbertson of Mehama singing "The Lord's Prayer" and "More."

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Wright selected a mint green dress with beaded floral design on front panel and she wore a pink carnation corsage.

The bridegroom's mother wore a beige suit accented with a pastel pink blouse and she also had a pink carnation corsage.

A reception was held following at Fellowship hall of the church with the tiered wedding cake centered with a four-tiered cake and flanked by all pink flowers.

Serving the bride's cake were Mrs. William Walker, Dunsmuir and Mrs. Patricia McCleller with Mrs. Darrell Reese, Portland, and Mrs. Wayne Wright, serving Mrs. Bruce Duncan, Salem, presided at the gift table. The ladies were all aunts of the bride.

For the wedding trip to the coast the bride donned a pink afternoon dress embellished with pink colored embroidery. Her accessories were pink navy and she wore the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The young couple will make their home in Mill City and the groom will continue his work at the U. S. Plywood mill at Idanha.

Women's Group Prepares Bandages For West Pakistan

The Presbyterian Women's Association met at one o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, June 23, at Fellowship Hall with 7 ladies present. Lee Lyness was refreshment hostess before the meeting, after which she opened the session as president of the group.

Acting as secretary pro-tem was Mary Reilly who read the minutes of the previous meeting in the absence of Faye Werbeck.

The association suggested that the donation of a microphone and amplifier system for the sanctuary of the church be brought up and discussed in the future, as they felt there was a need for it.

As sewing chairman, Clara Epperson led the discussion on the set of surgeons to be sent to Pakistan, as well as to the Presbyterian Hospital in Anchorage, Alaska, and to the Presbyterian Hospital in Espanola, New Mexico, under the National Missions.

Discussion was held and plans made concerning the serving at the reception on Saturday afternoon, June 26, following Patty Wright's wedding. Several volunteered their services.

The meeting was closed with prayer. After an open opened earlier, the remainder of the afternoon was spent in tearing and rolling bandages for the Christian Hospital in West Pakistan.

Celebrates 75th Birthday Anniversary

Relatives of Miss Leona Lamb of Portland gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Moffatt Sunday, to help her celebrate her 75th birthday anniversary. Miss Lamb has visited at the Moffatt home here many times during the past several years.

Miss Lamb, who was born in Robertson, Iowa, finally wound up in North Dakota and in 1921 began training to be a nurse at Bismarck Evangelical Hospital in that city. After she became a graduate nurse, she worked for Quain and Ramstead clinic in Bismarck for 16 and a half years. She was then sent to New York City to take a course in physical therapy. Following her graduation there she returned to the Clinic where she worked until 1942 when she moved to Portland.

In the winter of that year she started work for Emanuel hospital, Portland, and was instrumental in establishing a physical therapy department there. She worked in this capacity alone for about nine years, and the department continued to grow until nine full-time therapists are now employed there.

Miss Lamb retired in 1967, and still remains in fairly good health. She maintains her own apartment, and does all her own work. She still drives her car, and makes periodic visits to members of the family.

Dinner Sunday was supposed to have been a pot luck picnic, but the weather failed to cooperate so the dinner was served indoors, buffet style.

Present for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Conibear and daughter, Mary; Mr. and Mrs. Douglas O. Winn, Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Catto, Mr. and Mrs. Cal Hulbert and son Terry, Mr. and Mrs. Chris McMann and Brody, Daphne Frace and Bob Person, all from the Portland area, and Mr. and Mrs. Donovan L. Moffatt and sons of Mill City.

Five generations of the family were represented at the gathering: Miss Lamb, niece, Mrs. Don Moffatt, great niece, Daphne Frace, great - great niece, Linda McMann, and great-great-great nephew, Brody McMann.
