Interesting Notes Gathered During The Week and Stated Briefly For Examiner Readers

Walter Dent was in from Old Ft. Warner last Friday.

Jesse Moore "AA" whiskey is called for everywhere. It is the drink of the people. Geo. Jammerthal, sole agent.

"Blackleg" has broken out among the cattle in Western Shasta.

For more than fifty years the famous Jesse Moore whiskey has been the standard brand of the world. Geo. Jammerthal, sole agent.

Peter Morris and John McDonough are digging a well for the Hotel Lakeview.

If you have never tested Jesse Moore "AA" whiskey, try it and be convinced that it is the best whiskey in the world. Geo. Jammerthal, sole agent.

England is now seeking American blood for their racing stables and breeding farms.

Millions of people are familiar with DeWitt's Little Early Risers and those who use them find them to be famous little liver pills. Never gripe. Lakeview Drug Co.

James Hays, of Price, Crook county, has reached Silver Lake, and will remain there several weeks.

Persons who cannot take ordinary pills find it a pleasure to take DeWitt's Little Early Risers, as they are the best little liver pills ever made. Lakeview Drug Co.

Mrs. Clara Vinyard is up from New Pine Creek on a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Barr.

Drink nothing but Jesse Moore whisky and you'll always be happy. On sale at Whorton & Fitzpatrick's. 33-tf

Felix Green says the range grass in California is high but of poor quality; the weather down there is cold and foggy.

"Get there, Eli!" Eli's Restaurant; best meals in town. Everybody knows Eli, the famous chef. Dinners to order. 30-6m

Register E. M. Brattain made a flying trip to "Salem" last week via Paisley and the elevated railroad. He was absent two days.

"The happy have whole days and those they choose;
The unhappy have but hours and those they lose."

The happy people are those who drink good liquors and smoke El Comandante cigars at Post & King's. 1-tf

As Bill Nye said about kissing a pretty girl, "If you begin advertising for business, don't try to grab it at once. Take your time. It's there."

"There is a charm by sages often told,
Converting all it touches into gold;
Content can soothe where'er by fortune placed,
Can rear a garden in the desert waste."

The contented people about town are those who enjoy their drinks and smokes at Post & King's. 1-tf

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Robnett of Willow Ranch came up last Thursday to attend the school entertainment, and remained over until Friday afternoon visiting friends.

T. J. Shackleford has returned to Burns after a visit in Lakeview. The Examiner should have been pleased to have its friend from Burns visit this office during his stay here.

On account of the heavy storms which retarded the shipment of butter, the last creamery pay day was two weeks late. Nearly six hundred dollars were distributed among the milkmen. Not bad for a stormy winter month.—Adin Argus.

Edward Christenson, teacher in Oregon district, below New Pine Creek, was visiting in Lakeview several days during the past week, his school having closed for a time on account of an epidemic of mumps among the pupils. Mr. Christenson was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Barr.

The Post says that Jim Benefiel saw a band of thirty deer near his place at Crooked Creek a few days ago and killed two of them. While he was watching the deer he saw a large panther leap from a cliff of rock and land upon the back of a deer. The fleet animal ran for a short distance, but was finally killed by the panther.

George H. Ayres & Co., Ayres & Schlagel and Post & King will receive the blessings of Lakeview pedestrians now and forever, Amen. These enterprising gentleman have completed a fine timber sidewalk from the Post & King corner on Water street to the end of the Lakeview Brewery corner on Main street. It is the only cross street sidewalk in town and the people appreciate it.

When you go to Klamath Falls don't fail to see C. D. Wilson the popular caterer at the Gem saloon. He carries the finest stock in town and will treat you right. The Gem is the popular resort. Try the Hermitage whisky there. 25-tf

A newspaper's appearance is considered an index to the town's desirability as a place of residence and business. Thus the hearty support of the advertising columns of a local paper helps along the growth of the town and adds to your business. It is discouraging to a newspaper to continually advocate the doctrine of buying from home merchants unless they show that they are interested by catering to the home trade by advertising in its columns.

The Lakeview Examiner says the city council of that place ought to pass an ordinance that persons should be punished by fine and imprisonment for molesting cows on sidewalks, claiming the cows have the right of way, while people must take the middle of the street. That used to be the rule some years ago in Yreka, and a terrible kick was made when it was repealed by forbidding cows or horses to roam the streets, under penalty of being jailed in the pound and sold for costs of feed and keeping.—Yreka Journal.

A powerful engine cannot be run with a weak boiler, and we can't keep up the strain of an active life with a weak stomach; neither can we stop the human machine to make repairs. If the stomach cannot digest enough food to keep the body strong, such a preparation as Kodol Dyspepsia Cure should be used. It digests what you eat and it simply can't help but do you good. Lakeview Drug Co.

Lon Long, the stockman of Silver Lake section, arrived in town Thursday to transact business and chat with old friends. Lon is doing well up north and says his section will one day become the garden spot of Northern Lake. Very little snow falls there and Jack Frost is almost an unknown visitor. He is thinking of raising a colony to go into the business of growing oranges. Lon would like to have settlers come to his locality, as there are several good untaken tracts for ranches adjoining him, and he would like to increase the population in order to establish a school district.

There is no better medicine for the babies than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Its pleasant taste and prompt and effectual cures make it a favorite with mothers and small children. It quickly cures their coughs and colds, preventing pneumonia or other serious consequences. It also cures croup and has been used in tens of thousands of cases without a single failure so far as we have been able to learn. It not only cures croup, but when given as soon as the croupy cough appears, will prevent the attack. In cases of whooping cough it liquefies the tough mucus, making it easier to expectorate, and lessens the severity and frequency of the paroxysms of coughing, thus depriving that disease of all dangerous consequences. Draft Horses Bring Good Prices.

The draft horse industry is certainly in a healthy condition, and the breeder of this type of animal can depend upon good profits for years to come, says the Breeder and Sportsman. A number of notable sales have been made on the Chicago market during the past three months. Six matched Clydesdale geldings sold for $3000; a pair of geldings (of same breed) sold for $700; many individual sales running from $200 to $350. Of Percherons, a pair of geldings sold last week for $700; a second pair brought $675; eighteen head averaged $250, and seventeen head averaged $233.

SHERIFF'S NOTICE OF EXECUTION SALE

UNDER AND BY VIRTUE OF AN EXECUTION issued out of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Lake, on the 18th day of February, 1901, to me directed and delivered in a suit wherein Meyerfield, Mitchell and Siebenhauer recovered judgment against Will T. Boyd and P. H. Murphy as defendants, on the 21st day of October, 1893, for the sum of fifteen hundred dollars and the cost of suit, I am commanded that out of the porsonal property of the said defendants, or if sufficient cannot be found, then out of the real property belonging to said defendants, or either of them, in Lake county, Oregon, on or after the said 21st day of October, 1893, to satisfy the sum of fifteen hundred dollars, now due on said judgment, with interest at the rate of eight per cent per annum from the first day of October, 1893. Having failed to find any personal property belonging to the said defendants, or either of them, within Lake county, Oregon, I have levied upon the following described real property, to-wit:

All of Lot No. eight (8) in Block No. three (3), in the town of Lakeview, Lake county, Oregon.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, that on Saturday, March 30th, 1901, at 2 o'clock p. m. of said day at the front and east side of the County Court House of Lake county, Oregon, in Lakeview, I will sell all the right, title and interest, which said defendants, or either of them, had in and to the above-mentioned and described premises on the said 21st day of October, 1893, or that they or either of them have since said date acquired, therein or thereto, at public sale, for cash to the highest and best bidder therefor, to satisfy said judgment, interest and costs of making this sale.

Dated this 19th day of February, 1901.

H. R. DUNLAP,
7-td Sheriff of Lake County, Oregon.
