

TROOPS FOILED BY WILY INDIANS

Stampede Captured Ponies and Save Them From Cavalrymen.

UTES GIVE PURSUERS SLIP

Soldiers Accuse Scouts of Playing False—Cheyenne and Crow Warriors Turned Back From War-path—Sioux Marching South.

Butte, Oct. 31.—A special to the Miner from Sheridan, Wyo., says: Reports of the first brush between troops and Utes have reached here by telephone from Birney. A troop of the Tenth Cavalry rounded up and attempted to drive off 50 head of ponies being grazed by the fugitive Indians. The herders sent the alarm to the main band. As the soldiers were driving the ponies away a band of 100 bucks came riding up, and circling the troops, succeeded in stampeding the ponies and recovered all but five, which were shot by the soldiers.

Suspect Scouts of Treachery.

The Indians are outwitting the troops now in the field. A troop of the Tenth Cavalry marched all Tuesday night in hope of capturing a small band of Utes on Bitter Creek, arriving there only to find the band had moved. Later a scout reported the Indians 20 miles away. The troops then made a forced march to Powder River.

Cheyennes and Crows Healed Off.

Another detachment of the Tenth Cavalry met and turned back a band of Cheyennes under Chief Two Face. He said they were hunting and they were started toward the reservation. The band of a hundred Crows under Star Mouth, which hurriedly left Sheridan Monday night, was also met and turned back by the Tenth Cavalry.

Indians are making forced marches at night to elude the soldiers, and, owing to the poor work or treachery of the scouts, the soldiers are unable to keep track of them.

Sioux March to Join Utes.

Railroad men running into Sheridan tonight report having passed a band of a hundred Sioux marching southeast within 60 miles west of Sheridan. Neither Indians nor troops have arrived at Birney. The settlers are fearful of a Cheyenne uprising if the Utes reach the reservation border near Ashland. Troops from Fort Keogh and Fort Meade are converging on Ashland.

NO PROSPECT OF CLASH YET

Indians Quietly Hunting and Moving North Into Montana.

OMAHA, Oct. 31.—Advices received at Army headquarters here as late as 5 o'clock this afternoon from Major Grierson, in command of the detachment of the Tenth Cavalry which first took the field in pursuit of the Utes in Wyoming, say that there is no prospect of a clash between the troops and the Indians. The latter are quietly hunting in the mountains near their camp on the Powder River, instead of moving toward the Cheyenne reservation.

Utah at Mouth of Tongue River.

SHERIDAN, Wyo., Oct. 31.—The Utes have crossed the Wyoming line and are apparently making for Ashland, appointed as a meeting place with the Cheyennes. They are going down Hanging Woman Creek and reached its mouth on Tongue River today. The troops under Colonel Augur left Sheridan today, but will be unable to reach Birney before tomorrow night. Unless the Utes are headed off by troops coming overland from Fort Keogh, they may join the Cheyennes Friday night. Two additional companies of Fort Mackenzie infantry will be started from here tomorrow. An effort is being made to mount them.

Shinglemen Call a Meeting.

SEATTLE, Oct. 31.—A mass meeting of the shingle manufacturers of the state has been called by the shingle mills bureau, to be held in Seattle on the night of November 10 to discuss arrangements for a close-down of the mills, which the bureau is advocating to start December 22, to continue 60 to 90 days. Invitations are being sent out to the manufacturers throughout the state, numbering upwards of 300.

LABOR DENOUNCES RUEF

(Continued from First Page.) and other city and county officials, occupied seats on the platform. All the speakers denounced the newspapers and declared that the present charges and the investigation into alleged corruption, were the results of a conspiracy between the Spring Valley Water Company and the Citizens Alliance, to disrupt the labor organizations and get control of the administration. Langdon, who was called the "Benedict Arnold of San Francisco," and Heney, the "Man from Arizona," were hissed and defied.

Ruef's Violent Mouthings.

Ruef was the principal speaker of the evening. He denounced the press of the country for its attacks upon him and the administration, defied Heney and Langdon, assured his audience that he was guiltless of the charges of graft and that there was no probe was no probe to disrupt the labor organizations and get control of the administration. Langdon, who was called the "Benedict Arnold of San Francisco," and Heney, the "Man from Arizona," were hissed and defied.

IN POWER OF A HYPNOTIST

Oregon Girl Victim of Strange Mania at Bellingham.

BELLINGHAM, Wash., Oct. 31.—Believing that she is in the power of a hypnotist, Professor Dupres, who has been performing at the Bellingham Theater, Miss Ada Humphries is confined in St. Luke's Hospital suffering from a form of insanity that is new to local physicians. Although the professor maintains that he has never seen the girl before, she still insists that he has exercised his strange Francisco. It was claimed that over 12,000 names had been turned in tonight. The following resolutions were adopted by the meeting: Resolved, That this organization denounces the false and malicious attacks upon the municipal government and hereby calls attention to the fact that these unwarranted attacks and reports are not only hurting the fair name of the community, but are discouraging our citizens, driving away capital, retarding the construction of buildings and interfering with the development and growth of our city.

RUEF'S LAWYER MAKES PLEA

Fights to Secure Grand Jury Favorable to Boss.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31.—The inquiry into the eligibility of the men called to serve as grand jurors was continued today before Superior Judge Graham. Although the crowd in attendance was much smaller than on previous days, a detail of about 40 policemen was present to preserve order. Assistant District Attorney Heney renewed his objection to George L. Dealey, a saloonkeeper, on the ground that his name was not on the assessment rolls.

S. M. Shortridge, on behalf of Abraham Ruef, attempted to show that Dealey had paid taxes on personal property, but Heney contended that this did not appear in the records of the Tax Collector's office, and that these records constituted the best evidence regarding the matter. Extended arguments ensued, during which it was asserted that the record wanted had been destroyed in the great fire.

LANGDON DEFIES THE BOSS

Refuses to Answer Questions of Ruef's Lawyer.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31.—On the ground that an attempt was being made to learn the secrets of the prosecution against the alleged grafters, District Attorney Langdon today refused to answer certain questions put to him by counsel for Abraham Ruef, when summoned to give his deposition before Notary Public Knox. Langdon was called in the injunction suit brought by Langdon restraining Ruef from acting as District Attorney, and when the Board of Supervisors ousted Langdon last Thursday night.

HAS CONFIDENCE IN COURTS

Archbishop Montgomery Says He Believes Honesty Will Triumph.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31.—At the commemoration of the Sisters of Notre Dame, at Notre Dame College, Archbishop Montgomery, who is assisting in the function, consented to express an opinion on the San Francisco conditions that have become so sensational in the last few weeks. "I do not believe that we are worse than other cities and if the outside cities regard us so, we have ourselves to thank for it. We have been making rather an ugly confession of our own sins lately, but if the saying proves true in this instance that 'an open confession is good for the soul,' we must have good times ahead of us."

power over her, and that she will not be well again until she has released her.

From information learned today it is supposed that Miss Humphries has been following the hypnotist from place to place, just as she followed him to this city, and that in some way she has become infatuated with him.

Dupres left the city several days ago, but before going he went to the room of Miss Humphries by request of the proprietors of the lodging-house, who had heard her strange tale, and placed the young woman in a hypnotic trance and then freed her, so he claimed. This act was performed in the presence of witnesses to exonerate the hypnotist.

At the hospital Miss Humphries lies on her cot and smiles and laughs at everything that is said or done. She seems to be rational on many subjects, but is insistent in saying that she is still hypnotized. The Associated Charities has taken charge of Miss Humphries, and she is to be sent to the home of her sister in Oregon. Their mother is an inmate of the sanitarium in Oregon, where she has been for several years.

GUilty OF BLACKMAILING

Milwaukee Clerks Make No Defense and Are Sentenced.

RACINE, Wis., Oct. 31.—Frederick Stocking and Hiram Miller, the two Milwaukee clerks who on September 18 wrote a letter to Mrs. Richard Robinson, wife of the secretary of the Case Writing Machine Company, demanding that she deposit $20,000 in the First National Bank of Chicago and threatening the lives of Mrs. Robinson, her husband, son and daughter, yesterday decided to plead guilty and be sentenced. Ben had intended making a defense in the Circuit Court, November 12. Stocking pleaded guilty to the charge of blackmailing and was sentenced to 18 months in the state prison at Waupun, while Miller, who was charged with being an accessory after the fact, pleaded guilty and was fined $200 and costs, which were paid by his father-in-law, James Richards, a well-to-do resident of Oshkosh.

Stocking, who had superintended the interior decoration of the Robinson home and found the Robinsons liberal in the expenditure of money, conceived the plan, but did not inform his brother-in-law, Miller, of the deal until after the money had been placed on deposit to the credit of Miller by one Luther Roman, alias Frederick Stocking.

Evidence of Foul Murder.

REDONDO, Cal., Oct. 31.—An old murder was uncovered here yesterday with the finding of a decomposed body in a gulch in the east of the town. It seemed to be the body of a Mexican, and must have lain there three or four months. The skull showed a hole at the top of the head; the skull on either side of this hole was cracked as though from a blow from some blunt instrument.

Great Northern's Plans.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—The pamphlet report of the Great Northern Railway, made public yesterday, describes in detail the development work that has been done by the system in the last year. One of the most important new projects now engaging the attention of the Great Northern management, apart from the construction of the New Canadian line, is the building of a new line traversing Central Montana and connecting the Great Northern with the Northern Pacific and the Burlington. This road will have a length of 190 miles from Armington to Laurel, Mont.
