Cure Your Kidneys

Do Not Endanger Life When a Klamath Falls Citizen Shows You the Cure

Why will people continue to suffer the agonies of kidney complaint, backache, urinary disorders, lameness, headaches, languor, why allow themselves to become chronic invalids when a tested remedy is offered them?

Doan's Kidney Pills is the remedy to use, because it gives to the kidneys the help they need to perform their work.

If you have any, even one, of the symptoms of kidney disease, cure yourself now, before dropsy or Bright's disease sets in. Read this Klamath Falls testimony:

Mrs. George Bell, Washington street, Klamath Falls, Ore., says: "Some time ago I began to suffer from pains in my back, due to disordered kidneys. The kidney secretions were also unnatural, causing me annoyance. Hearing of Doan's Kidney Pills I procured a supply and began their use. They completely cured me. I can highly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to other kidney sufferers."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

M'CARTY IS NOW CHAMP ASPIRANT

THE HEAVY HITTING MISSOURI BOY ALL BUT PUTS THE PUEBLO FIREMAN TO SLEEP. GETS THE DECISION

Special to The Herald

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 11.—Luther McCarty, by giving Jim Flynn a severe beating last night, leads the "white hopes" for the championship of the heavyweight division. He will try conclusions with Al Palzer New Year's Day, and, if he is victorious, will be hailed as the champion.

The Pueblo fireman never had a chance in last night's going. It was only his remarkable vitality that saved him from going out. As it was, he took an awful licking, and in the sixteenth round the referee stopped the fight, awarding the decision to McCarty, who left the ring with scarcely a mark on him.

SCRAPPERS ARE LEARY OF BUD

CALIFORNIA LIGHTWEIGHTS DO NOT LIKE THE IDEA OF MIXING THINGS WITH THE VANCOUVER FIGHTER

Medford friends of Bud Anderson, the clever lightweight, are endeavoring to get a fight for him with one of the best of California lightweights. Court Hall, the Medford fight promoter, has received the following letter from H. G. Lowry, sporting editor of the Oakland Tribune:

"Regarding Bud Anderson, I want to advise you that Mr. Moffitt (an Oakland promoter) has him in mind, but he finds difficulty in finding a suitable boy for him, as those hereabouts impress us that they are afraid to tackle him. Both McFarland and Edwards were offered a bout with him and declined, and even Frankie Burns gives one this impression also. Nevertheless I shall continue to see what can be done for him. In the meanwhile I ask you to send me a photo or two of Anderson."

SOCIAL WAR IS IN PROGRESS

COMPETITION IS KEEN FOR THE HONOR OF BECOMING INAUGURAL CHAIRMAN FOR PRESIDENT-ELECT WILSON

United Press Service

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 11.—The merriest little social war the national capital has known for decades is now on. The prize of war is the honor of being named as inaugural chairman, taking charge of the ceremonies by which President-elect Woodrow Wilson becomes successor to William H. Taft on March 4th. The social war comes about because there are a score or more women who want the honor of being the "first lady in the land" for a few fleeting minutes on March. The wife of the inaugural chairman is always the new president's partner in the grand march which ushers in the brilliant inaugural ball.

OREGON HIGHWAY PROGRAM SCORED

COMPARISON WITH THAT OF WASHINGTON UNFAVORABLE. GOOD ROADS ASSOCIATION IS NOW GETTING ACTIVE

Comparison of the Washington and Oregon road legislation programs made within the last two days by leaders in the Oregon good roads movement have been very much to the disadvantage of this state, it is pointed out.

Without a dissenting voice the Washington State Good Roads Association has recommended to the legislature great advances along all lines, while in Oregon there is such a difference of opinion as to method of road construction between road advocates that no uniform recommendations have been made. The Washington recommendations include a proposal that the state road tax levy be increased from one-half mill to one mill. Oregon has no state road tax whatever.

Washington's road association recommended that the permanent road fund levy be fixed at three mills. Oregon has no permanent road fund levy.

The recommendation of the Washington people that the state road fund be apportioned between Eastern and Western Washington in proportion to taxes paid by each section has no parallel in Oregon because there is no provision for state aid of counties in road-making here.

Abolishing the office of county engineer in each county and substituting therefor a highway department created for each county is another of the recommendations of the Washington association. Such a plan, is is asserted, would be good for Oregon and in line with former recommendations.

That convicts be used in building state highways, that the legislature designate a day in June of each year as "good roads day"; that the maximum grade on trunk lines be 5 per cent and on laterals 9 per cent; that the pork barrel system of distributing road funds be abolished, and that city streets connecting with permanent roads be improved by agreement between city and county authorities, were other recommendations.

Oregon has power now to use both state and county prisoners on the roads, and will as soon as recommendations are made to meet the cost of camps and materials. Oregon has had but one good roads day, but on proclamation of the governor. The Oregon plan for distribution of road funds, which, bill 340, defeated at the last election, provided the very plan that the people of Washington now seek to put into effect.

One of the Washington recommendations was that the extensive road scheme of Ranier National Park be indorsed. Similar support for a good program about Mt. Hood would be as valuable to Oregon as Ranier is to Washington, for tourists and sightseers, it is said.

The Washington Good Roads Association also went on record as unanimously approving a $500,000 appropriation for the Washington building at the 1915 exposition in San Francisco. Oregon has been asked to appropriate a like amount.

JOHNSON BOOSTS FOR THE CITY

IN A PORTLAND INTERVIEW, THE WELL KNOWN PROPERTY OWNER HERE TELLS OF PROGRESS MADE IN KLAMATH FALLS

W. Paul Johnson, in an interview in Portland the other day, did a lot of boosting for Klamath Falls.

"One section of Oregon that is going ahead with great strides is Klamath Falls and the country around it," said Mr. Johnson. "It would surprise some of the people from this part of the state who have regarded Klamath Falls as a sort of a frontier Western town, to see the big brick business blocks and the generally substantial nature of the development there."

"I have been interested in Klamath Falls and the country around it for many years, and have seen it grow from the shack stage to its present position. And it is only beginning to grow. Its development is all of the most substantial kind.

With five sawmills running at capacity and the settlers learning how to use the best advantage the water from the ditches in the big irrigation project on which the United States government has spent $4,500,000, the town and country about it are enjoying remarkable prosperity. Klamath Falls will be one of the big cities of Oregon. Nothing can stop it, for its people are of the enterprising kind."
