TOWN TEAM vs. HIGH SCHOOL

NEXT BASKETBALL GAME WILL BE HOTLY CONTESTED. LINE-UP OF THE TOWN TEAM HAS NOT BEEN DECIDED ON

Town team versus high school will be the next basketball game, arrangements being completed for a game at the Pavilion Saturday night. Both teams are practicing hard.

Just who will be included in the Town line-up has not been decided. Elliott, DeLape Three, Ambrose, O'Connell, Barnes, Van Riper and Ruehl are out for places, but the line-up has not been fixed definitely.

There is great rivalry between the two teams, and every year, a series between the Town and school team means hard fast games.

HOUSE COMMITTEE STARTS AN INVESTIGATION THAT WILL LAST A MONTH. INTEREST OF RAILROADS IS A PUZZLE

United Press Service

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—The merchant marine committee of the house commenced an investigation of the shipping trust today. The hearings will continue for a month. Numerous owners and agents are here to testify.

Special efforts are planned to discover what interest the continental railroads have over the sea freight and passenger carriers, and to what extent foreign nations subsidize their own vessels.

REVILED BRIDE; WOMAN CHOKED

MAN CALMLY TELLS POLICE OF HIS CRIME AND THE REASON FOR COMMITTING IT. HUSBAND FINDS BODY

MINNEAPOLIS, Jan. 7.—Entering police headquarters tonight without the faintest suggestion of agitation or remorse, John Conley, 36, called the desk sergeant aside and told him quietly that he strangled Mrs. Bertha Anderson to death because the woman had reviled his bride of three months.

Almost at the same minute Anthony Anderson, husband of the murdered woman, stumbled over her body when he returned home from work. With one of her husband's neckties tied tightly around her neck, she lay dead on the floor and her two pets, a white poodle dog and a white angora cat, lay on her breast.

Conley declared his frenzy at hearing his wife's name reviled was his only motive for the murder. He told of fleeing from the place because of the dying woman's eyes.

MRS. BARFOOT SEEKS A DIVORCE

During times the wife has been incapacitated from working to support the family by washing, Barfoot, says the complaint, has failed to make any provision for their comfort, and they have suffered many times from the lack of food, clothing proper bedding and fuel.

In addition to his failure to support his family, the complaint filed today by Renner states that Barfoot has continually heaped abuses and epithets upon his wife in the presence of his children and others. That he is a man of uncontrollable temper is also alleged.

"I wish you would die," is one of the usual speeches Barfoot would make to his wife while she was sick [illegible] from the effects [illegible] other reasons [illegible] while she was bed ridden drove her to distraction, and so shattered her nervous system that she is still under the care of a physician.

In her complaint, Mrs. Barfoot asks for a divorce, the custody of the four children, and sufficient alimony to provide for the family.

Perform Operation

Earl Foster was today operated upon for empyema of the right lung. The operation was performed at the Blackburn hospital by Dr. Merryman, Dr. Truax and Dr. White. Foster is recovering nicely.

Motion Overruled

Circuit Judge Henry McGinn today overruled a motion to make the complaint in the action of Rollo C. Groesbeck, trustee against J. C. Rutenic more definite. This action grows out of the bankruptcy of E. W. Muller, Groesbeck being trustee of the estate.

PARCELS POST WORKING FINE

A FEW MISTAKES HAVE BEEN MADE BECAUSE OF LACK OF KNOWLEDGE OF THE PROVISIONS OF NEW POSTOFFICE ACT

Donts for Parcels Post Users

Don't put ordinary stamps on merchandise, which is now carried entirely by parcels post. It will be unmailable and the chances are that you will never see it again.

Do not use parcels post stamps on miscellaneous mail matter. They will never carry anything but merchandise.

Don't forget your own address if you are the sender. Otherwise the package will be opened and sent to the dead letter office.

If the above regulations are followed by patrons of Uncle Sam's newest postal service they will have no trouble. All the other regulations, in regard to size and weight of parcels, have been absorbed, apparently, because no mistakes in those respects are being made. But the thing that has caused many a Christmas present to be held up in the local postoffice has been the forgetting of the proper stamps or the return address.

ROSECRANS PILES ON SAND SPIT

There were two men clinging to the rigging when the vessel sank.

The life saving crew stood by the wreck, but a 60 mile gale prevented a line being thrown to the vessel.

The Rosecrans was owned by the Associated Oil Co., and, with cargo, was valued at $300,000.

Last summer the steamer was wrecked on the Southern California coast, but was salvaged and taken to San Francisco, where she was repaired. The vessel has been off the dry dock but a short time, and was on one of her first trips since being overhauled when she struck Peacock spit.

REAL PRET NOTE GOES TO MADERO

United Press Service

NEW ORLEANS, Jan 7.—An ultimatum containing stinging comment on the manner in which the Mexican government failed to keep its promises to protect Americans lives is on route to Madero this afternoon with Pedro Lee Currain, Mexican minister of foreign affairs, who conferred here with Chairman Smith of the senate committee investigating troubles along the Mexican border.

The ultimatum makes plain the attitude of President Taft and says that the United States will enforce protection not only of American citizens but all foreigners in Mexico.

LOCAL DEBATERS READY FOR TRIP

PRELIMINARY ARGUMENTS ARE MADE BY MEMBERS OF THE LOCAL TEAM. MAY GET CHANCE AT STATE CHAMPIONSHIP.

Preliminary to the debate at Ashland Thursday night, Forrest Piel, a member of the high school debating team, gave his argument before the high school assembly today. Tomorrow Miss Annie Hales and Edwin Cox the other members of the team, will give their arguments, and the following morning the trio and Prof. Coates their coach, leave for Ashland.

The question for debate is "Resolved: That life imprisonment, with restricted power of pardon, would be a desirable substitute for capital punishment in Oregon." The Klamath County high school team takes the affirmative side.

The debate will be the first in the Southern Oregon district of the Oregon High School Debating League. In case the local team is victorious, they may debate for the state championship.

IRWIN MAKES INITIAL BOW

NEW COUNTY ATTORNEY'S FIRST OFFICIAL ACT IS APPEARANCE FOR STATE IN SUIT OF MRS. BENSINGER FOR DIVORCE

District Attorney John Irwin made his initial appearance in his official capacity when he represented the state in the Bensinger divorce proceedings in the Circuit court this afternoon.

After hearing the testimony offered, Judge McGinn granted Carrie Bensinger the decree she sought, and awarded the custody of the children to the father, Alfred Bensinger, who was the defendant in the action.

TAX LEVY TO BE FIXED TOMORROW

Owing to the failure of the state officials to send here the state levy, the county court was unable today to fix the tax levy for the ensuing year.

The court spent the day considering the matter, and, in the event of the necessary information arriving here from Salem tomorrow morning, the tax levy will be announced in the afternoon.
