WOULDN'T TELL WHAT WAS USED

OHIO DRUGGISTS WILL ASK THE PAPERS OF THAT STATE NOT TO TELL POISONS THAT ARE USED BY SUICIDES

United Press Service

COLUMBUS, Ohio, June 17—When the Ohio State Druggists Association met here today it was expected that an attempt would be made to have endorsed a resolution advocating the passage by the legislature of a law prohibiting Ohio newspapers from publishing the names of drugs which are used by suicides.

Delegates to the convention, which was largely attended by pharmacists from all over the state, contended that the publishing of the names of drugs used in self destruction is a large influence in increasing suicides.

Lady Churston, is Being Sought

Lady Churston, who was once Denise Orme, a popular singer and actress, is missing from London, and Scotland Yard has been asked to find her. She was married to the Hon. John Yarde-Buller in 1907, when he was a captain in the Scots Guards, and heir to the second Baron Churston. Later the captain was sued by Mrs. Mabel Louise Atherton for breach of promise, and though she won she got no damages. Then Lady Churston reappeared on the stage, and it was believed that she had left her husband.

INDIAN RIDERS AWAIT RODEO

YAINAX REDS WILL HAVE AN ENTRY IN EVERY EVENT—WILL ALSO BRING IN A NUMBER OF HORSES

W. A. Holman, sub agent at Yainax, has sent word down that the Indians of that portion of the reservation will attend the Elks Rodeo in full force. The Indians are not only coming themselves, but they are going to take part in the big attraction.

It is stated that the ranges in the vicinity of Yainax are being scoured for every possible fast or bad horse, and that this Indian settlement will be represented in every event on the program.

The best riders to be found will be here to contest with the white buckaroos.

Polite Chinamen consider it a breach of etiquet to wear spectacles in company.

PROMISES TO GET CHINA PHEASANTS

STATE GAME COMMISSIONER C. F. STONE SAYS HE WILL GET A STOCK OF GAME BIRDS IF PRESERVE IS MADE

Providing that the sportsmen of this county can secure a lease on a tract of land of 1,000 or more acres from the farmers which can be set aside by the state as a game preserve and stocked with Chinese pheasants, Game Commissioner Stone promised that he would secure 500 pheasants for Klamath county.

"All we need," said Mr. Stone, "is sufficient land where these birds can be turned loose with the assurance that they will be protected." According to Mr. Stone, pheasants do not damage crops, but rather are a benefit, as they wil destroy the insects and bugs, which very often damage the crops. It is believed that there will be very little difficulty in securing the consent of a number of the farmers in the Klamath Basin, probably along Lost River,, to permit the stocking of the places with pheasants. These birds will have to be protected for at least five years, and permitted to propogate.

Mrs. H. C. Cunningham Passed Away

Mrs. Howard C. Cunningham of Maricopa, California, died in Bakersfield of that state May 28, 1913. For months Mrs. Cunningham had been critically ill and while having made splendid progress toward what seemed to be full recovery, her already overtaxed strength unable to withstand the strain of a temporary trouble, she succumbed within a short time. Mrs. Cunningham, nee Eva Belle Kingdon, was born in East St. Louis, Ill, October 16, 1873. Her parents moved to Detroit in 1881 and later the family resided in Lyndon, Washington, where Miss Kingdon took an active part in church and social circles. In 1899 she was married to Howard C. Cunningham of Fort Klamath, Oregon, and the couple made their home there for a number of years. Besides her husband, the deceased is survived by two children, Leonard H. and Evalyn V. Cunningham, aged 11 and 13 years respectively. Her mother, Mrs. Sarah B. Kingdon, and brothers Warren D. and Samuel R. Kingdon, are residents of Portland. Another brother Justin T. Kingdon resides in Berkeley, California.

Mrs. Cunningham's amiable disposition and beautiful character had won for her a host of friends. As wife and mother she gave an unselfish devotion to her husband and children. Truly it can be said of her that a noble woman has been taken away.

SHH! LADIES! SECRET TO DARKEN FADED OR GRAY HAIR--USE SAGE TEA

Sage Mixed With Sulphur Restores Natural Color and Lustre to Hair

Why suffer the handicap of looking old. Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance.

Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks dry, wispy and scraggly just a few applications of Sage tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred fold.

Either prepare the tonic at home or get from any drug store a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," ready to use; but listen, avoid preparations put up by druggists, as they usually use too sticky. Get "Wyeth's," which can always be depended upon to darken beautifully and is the best thing known to remove dandruff, stop itching and falling hair.

By using Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair. It does it so naturally and evenly—you moisten a much sulphur, which makes the hair sponge or soft brush, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time, which requires but a few moments. Do this, it disappears; after another application or two its natural color is restored, and by morning the gray hair has disappeared; after another application or two its natural color is restored, it becomes glossy and beautiful and you appear years younger.
