"Henry, I wish you had better manners. I noticed you dusted the chair at Mrs. Bink's house before you sat down, and her little son was watching you."

"Yes, and I was watching him, too. I'm too old a fish to be caught on a bent pin."—Tit-Bits.

GRANGE, LABOR ENDORSE MEN

Organizations Select Candidate for Political Office

The Klamath County Grange Council and Organized Labor's Political League each met Saturday and each organization voted endorsements of candidates for county and district offices.

The Klamath County Grange Council, composed of masters of each Grange in the county, endorsed the following candidates for office: Arthur Schaupp, Cliff Dunn and Archie Rice for republican candidates for the legislature; Roy Nelson, republican, for assessor; and Deputy District Attorney T. R. Gillenwaters republican, for district attorney.

The Grange Council also suggested that the grangers vote for George Joseph, republican, and George R. Wilbur, democrat, for candidates for governor.

The Organized Labor Political League committee made recommendations and then voted endorsements of the following candidates for office: Roy Nelson, republican, for assessor; Arthur Schaupp and Archie Rice, republicans, for representative posts; and David R. Vandenburg, republican, and Harry D. Boivin, democrat, for district attorney nominations. Vandenberg secured the endorsement by one vote afetr both he and Deputy District Attorney Gillenwaters had appeared before the organization and stated their platforms. Rice also appeared before the group.

The largest rabbitry in the world is near Sudbury, England. Rabbits are specially bred here for their fur-yielding naturally colored pelts in chinchilla, blue beveren, musquash, and ermine skins.
