WORK NECESSARY ON HIGHWAY 99, SAYS DELEGATION

PORTLAND, July 22 (UP)—National defense makes it an immediate necessity to improve Pacific highway, U. S. No. 99, a delegation from four southern Oregon counties informed the state highway commission Saturday.

They asked state aid in securing federal funds for the project and also for improvement of highway 30, along the Columbia river. They termed the Cottage Grove to Grants Pass section of No. 99 useless for movement of troops because it is narrow, crooked and inadequate."

Capt. S. M. Tuttle, Medford, said movement of a mechanized division one way on the Pacific highway would be impossible and movement of multiple columns was out of the question.

He warned that Germany started its program of armaments first by building roads and said America should adopt the same policy.
