Belmont on Taxing Wealth.

"No subject can bring greater good to this country if correctly solved," said he, "or greater harm, if for wise and just taxation punitive spoilation and the destruction of our boundless spirit of enterprise through hampering regulations be substituted." Government by injunction was characterized by Mr. Belmont as "another burning subject to be discussed." He said he was not sure that President Roosevelt's proposition for coinvestigation of industrial disturbances is advisable. He doubted the wisdom of Government interference, but the greatest justification for such a policy would be in the case of quasi public orporations.

Mr. Belmont also called attention to that portion of the President's mess-age, wherein the President denounced the effort to prohibit all combination Injustice by Injunction.

The Federation then took up the governmen by injunction question. Carl Spelling, general attorney for the American Federation of Labor, said today in labor disputes judges have sent forth decrees which were special legislation and have paralyzed and rendered abortive all the efforts on the part of the laber side of that dispute. An injunction, he said, should never be granted except to protect property or property rights. He continued:

or property rights. He continued:

It is depicrable that men should be advised to commit crime, but more deplorable if irresponsible men on the banch are to be allowed to usurp authority above the law and become unrestrained despots; to take one side in every dispute; to decide ex-parte that hundreds of thousands of men are about to violate the law and send forth special decrees to paralyze and destroy the rights of all these men. That is the most dangerous tendency in our Government. If these victous and far-reaching precedents are to be recognized or the courts permitted to go on building more on top of these, they will soon constitute and creet a power as despotte as that which destroyed Rome.

The authorities probably will not allow it to be held in Vatican is convinced that the French government, with what church officials call "Briand's blackmailing circular" and the offense against the rights cular and the offense against the rights of man committed when the government expelled Monsignore Montagnini and took possession of the papal archives, has placed the position maintained by the church on a sound basis, which insures her the moral support of all right-minded people. Referring to this support Cardinal Merry del Val, the Papal Secretary of State, said: of State, said:

"It is essential to victory." Secret Agent in Paris.

Several months ago Monsignor Mon-tagnini asked the Papal Secretary of State to be allowed to return to Italy because of the death of his mother. The Secretary replied that he would be giad to grant this permission, but he wanted Monsignor Mentagnini to con-sider whether it would be opportune to leave his post at a moment when the French government might seize the oc-casion not to allow him to re-enter France. Monsignor Montagnini there fore remained at his post. This inci-dent is worthy of recording, as it proves that Cardinal Merry del Val foresaw the possibility of the expulsion of the individual who represented the papal authority in France, as indirectly did Monsignor Montagnini.

ORDERED CLERGY TO DISOBEY

Cause of Montagnini's Expulsion. Move to Submit to Law.

PARIS, Dec. 12.—The day of grace granted to the churches of Paris in the plan of the law providing for the separation of church and state post-pones until tomorrow the measures for its enforcement. The delay, however, has only served to increase the excitement caused by the expulsion from France yesterday of Monsignor Mon-tagnini, secretary of the papal nuncia-

The formal charge on which Monsignor Montagnini was expelled was that he carried out an order contained in a tele-gram from Papal Secretary of State Merry del Val, received December 8, to instruct the French clergy to refuse to make applications under the law of 1881 or to obey the law of 1965. The government obtained a copy of the message at the telegraph office.

It turns out that the papers seized at the papal nunclature yesterday placed in the government's hands important evidence, which may prove exceedingly embarrassing to the Vatican if open war is to take place. They include besides all the diplomatic records covering the correspondence ex-changed before the rupture with the Vatican, recent instructions from Car-dinal Merry del Val, the papal secre-tary of state, a mass of letters from prelates over the world and letters in the handwriting of Deputies of the Right party. M. Jaures, the Socialist leader, asserts in his paper that the seized documents even prove the ex-

Prosecutions have been begun against the ultramontane abbes of the Churches of St. Pierre du Gros Caillou, St. Augustine and St. Roch, where the greatest resistance to the taking of the inventories occurred, and it has been decided to immediately take over the buildings belonging to the coclesiastics, stop the pensions of the clergy, compel aspirants to the priesthood to fill their military obligations and, if necessary, treat the clergy as subjects of a foreign power. This constitutes a sufficient demonstration of the spirit with which the government threads to with which the government intends to meet resistance. The reception of Premier Clemenceau's speech in the Chamber of Deputies last night also shows that he has Parliament at his back. Nevertheless, M. Clemenceau was careful to say that there was still time for Catholics to conform to the law. That the rank and file of the liberal Catholics disapprove of the intrans-igent attitude of the authorities at igent attitude of the authorities at Rome is evidenced by the fact that the editor of the Renaissance. Felix Robin, has of his own initiative filed with Prefect of Police Lepine an application under the public meetings law of 1881 for permission to hold religious meetings in all the churches.

It was first announced that the government had instructed the prefect to accept the application, but it developed later that he only formally acknowledged its receipt and decided that a general application covering all the churches was irregular. He also announced that, unless applications were filed by two authorless applications were filed by two author ized persons in behalf of each church measures for reporting violations of the law would commence at the time for

CALLS EXPULSION ODIOUS ACT

Vatican Indignant Over Montagnini Father Wornz to Rescue.

ROME, Dcc. 12 .- The Vatican au thorities characterize the action of the French Government in having Mon-signor Montagnini, the expelled secre-tary of the papal nunciature at Paris accompanied to the frontier by police as "an odious act," showing a desire to humiliate those who because of their weakness cannot retaliate. It is much regretted in Vatican circles that, con-trary to the propositions of some of cardinals Monsignor della Chiesa. the assistant papal secretary of state, was not sent to Paris after the rupture of diplomatic relations between the Vatican and France, as in view of his Francophile attitude under the late Pope Leo he was the only person cap-able of reaching an understanding with the French Government. It is be-lieved even now that notwithstanding the gravity of the situation France would not find it difficult to conciliate the Vatican if negotiatons on the subject were opened.

In the meanwhile the Vatican forces have been mobilized to take part in the campaign. Even Father Wornz, the General of the Jesuits, has joined the belligerents. The latest instructions sent to the French ciergy are in substance that they are to look upon the situation with the worst possible aspect and organize private religious services. Thousands of telegrams, it is announced here, have been sent from Free Masons, anti-Clericals, Republican and Liberal clubs and politicians, to the French Premier, M. Clemenceau, and Minister of Public Worship Briand, congratulat-ing them on their energetic attitude to-ward the Vatican and Clericalism. On the other hand, the Vatican authorities have received thousands of telegrams of sympathy and encouragement from bishops, Catholic clubs and prominent Catho-lics, Italians and foreigners, condemning the action of the French government. The Pope, when he heard that Cardinal Richard, archbishop of Paris, had been compelled to leave the ecclesiastical residence, telegraphed immediately placing the palace of the nunciature in Paris, which is owned by the Vatican, at his disposal and at the same time expressing his cordial sympathy with the variety ble his cordial sympathy with the venerable
