MRS. HARTJE WINS DIVORCE CONTEST

hich Pittsburger's Charges Have No Weight With Judge.

LETTERS NOT CONCLUSIVE

Attacks on Wife's Reputation Fall to Ground-Husband Will Fight to End-Suit for Alimony Still Pending.

PITTSBURG, Dec. 12.-Judge Robert S Frazer handed down his decision in the famous Hartje divorce case this after-noon. The petition of Augustus Hartje, the millonaire paper manufacturer, for divorce from his wife, Mrs. Mary Scott Hartje, whom he charged with intimacy with Thomas Madine, a former coach-man, is inconclusive, the decision says, and in substantiation of this inconclusiveness Judge Frazer cites the following

The servants' stories of Mrs. Hartje's wrongdoing are quite different from those based on Mr. Hartje's petition. The story of Susie Wagner, a maid, was grossly exaggerated and built up; she was prejudiced and under the influence of Hartje's family. Mrs. Hartje perhaps visited the stable too often, but her fondness for horses sufficiently explains what might be convidend an influence for considered an indiscretion

Letters Prove Nothing.

The letters introduced are open to sus piclon and are conclusive of nothing. Experts' testimony is of little value. The scaling of the gaid letters from Madine's room, as testified to, shows those who produced them to be lawbreakers. The preponderance of testimony shows the letters were not in Mrs. Hartje's hand-writing, and at the trial Hartje abundoned all his charges except the one relating to Madine. The decision does not refer to the question of alimony, but Mrs. Hartje has a motion in court for the granting of temporary allmony, counsel feels and $30,000 expenses of trial. The two children, Mary Louise Hartje and John Scott Hartje, will remain with their mother. The entire cost of the proceedings is placed on Mr. Hartje and the suit for divorce filed by his wife will be tried when it is reached in the egular order. Hartje announced he would take an ap-

Most Sensational in City.

The divorce case was the most seasational ever tried in this city. The wealth and prominence of the principals and the ugly charges alleged, and, later, after, the trial had begun, additional charges against Mrs. Hartje in connection with a second coachman, Clifford Hooe, a negro, tended to make the case sensational in the extreme. Following the introduction of the Hooe incident, Mr. Hartje and a business friend, John S. Welshons, together with Clifford Hooe, the negro, were all arrested on charges of conspiracy.
Hooe was also charged with perjury, was Hooe was also charged with perjury, was convicted and is now awaiting a new trial. Mrs. Hartje, who has been in Redlands, Cal., with her children, arrived home yes-terday in answer to a summons from her attorneys, to whom Judge Frazer intimated that a decision could not be rendered unless the woman and her children were within the jurisdiction of the court. Mrs. Hartle was not able to be in court today, on account of illness. Her Mother, Mrs. Scott, denied the that Mrs. Hartje would residence in California would take

"I am greatly surprised and disappointed," said Augustus Hartje this afternoon, "but we will fight the case through every court we can, believing that we are right." added that an appeal would be taken

"I am very well pleased with the de-cision of the court," said Mrs. Hartje, and I consider the decision a vindication

She refused to have anything to say relative to pressing her claim for divorce, and would not talk about the disposition of the children.

JOHNSON'S SALARY RAISED American League President Gets

$15,000 Yearly.

CHICAGO, Dec. 12-At the meeting of the American Baseball League to day the salary of President Ban Johnson was increased from $10,000 to $15,000 a year. Charles W. Summers, of the Cleveland club, was re-elected vice-president. There was no election to the presidency, as Mr. Johnson's tein of office does not expire until 1910. Chief interest in the meeting centers in the trades and purchase of players.

The most important of these is the disposition to be made of Stahl, ex-manager of the Washington club. Nearly every club in the league is willing to take him, but Boston and Detroit are apparently most anxious to secure his services. Another trade of importance is that involving James Collins, late manager of the Boston team.

SHERIFF FILES RETURN

Of Thirty-nine Veniremen Brought Into Court for Service Ten Are Excused-Many Plead Old Age and Illness.

TACOMA, Wash., Dec. 12.-(Special.)-Deputy Sheriff Keener at 5 o'clock this afternoon made his return of service on the 50 veniremen drawn Tuesday afternoon for examination as to their qualifications to sit as jurors in the trial of Chester Thompson, charged with murder in the first degree. Thirty-nine men were in court and the Sheriff stated that II had not been found.

An effort was made by counsel for the state to have the inquiry proceed, entalling a night session. Judge Snell stated that he did not favor night sessions at this time, and ordered all veniremen to appear in court at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning. morning.

Ten were excused, leaving 29, and proba Ten were excused, leaving 29, and probably there are some more who will be excused. One of these is George S. Long, resident agent of the Weyerhacuser Timber Company. Mr. Long's son is very ill with typhoid fever, and the strain of nursing has told on the strength of Mrs. Long to such an extent that Mr. Long must bear a part of the burden.

When the Sheriff's return had been properly entered as a matter of record the properly entered as a matter of record the court asked if there were any summoned who were not electors or who were non-residents of Pierce County. There were

On this ground the following were excused: E. N. Curl. aged 72; W. J. Heath, aged 74; Karl Wassmund, aged 76; George Reynolds, aged 62; Joel Bever, aged 62; L. W. Wade, aged 62; S. D. Sherman, aged 71; James Honner, aged 61. aged 74; James Hopper, aged 61. George Chapman, of Hunt's Prairie, sought to evade jury service by telling the court that he only has his second papers of naturalization.

"Do you vote in Hunt's Prairie pre-cinct?" asked Judge Snell.

"Yes, sir."
"Then I'll not excuse you." Henry Meyer, of Tacoma, said he was uffering from nervous progration and had seen under the treatment of a physician or seven or, eight months. He was ex-

BIG GRAFT IN CREAMERIES

Washington State College Professor

SPOKANE, Wash., Dec. 12.—(Special.)— Professor Elliott, of Washington State College, at the meeting of the Washington State Dairymen's Association, made a startling expose of creamery promoters' operators in Washington. He declared that a number of plants had been constructed on co-operative plans, several of which had never turned a wheel. The promoters had made profits of $1800 to $2000 on plants worth $4500.

At the final meeting of the Washington Livestock Association these officers were elected: President, A. J. Splawn, North Yakima; vice-president, Murdo McDonald, Walla Walla: secretary, F. M. Bothrock, Spokane; treasurer, Levi Monroe, Spokane.

The association memorialized Congress for reciprocal relations to assist in in-creasing exportations of meats and their products, to prevent passage of the bill placing cost of inspection of meats on packers instead of on the Government nd for liberal appropriations for farmers' institutes.

A committee will be sent to the State Legislature. The next livestock asso-ciation meeting will be held in Spekane December 17 and 18, 1967.
