Alsab Out of Whirly Race At Arlington

CHICAGO, Aug. 1 (AP)—Today was the day when Whirlaway was expected to match noses at the finish with Alsab. But the game little Alsab was on the sidelines until Monday's opener at Washington park and today's $25,000 handicap, closing event on a 36-day program at Arlington, was between the long-tailed Whirly and "eight other horses."

A total bankroll of $31,600 was in the offing, if all nine horses start. Whirlaway's all-time earnings of $454,336 had a chance to be swelled by an additional $24,000 should Warren Wright's perennial champion come through again today.

By admission of Trainer Ben Jones, a fellow who ought to know, Whirlaway was in tip-top shape for the Arlington windup. But anxious to test this declaration were Rounders, which finished second to Whirly in the Massachusetts handicap; Sirocco, 1940 Arlington classic winner; Louis B. Mayer's Reading II, No Competition, Staretor, Pumpgun, Best Seller and Equitable.

Neyland Selects Five Gridders for Eastern All-Star

NEW YORK, Aug. 1 (AP)—Four soldiers, one a commissioned officer and all with experience in the national pro football league, are the first players selected by Col. Bob Neyland, once of Tennessee, for the eastern all-army grid machine which will participate in eight games for army emergency relief.

Colonel Neyland picked Corp. John Mellus of Villanova and the New York Giants; Lieut. Mike Gussie, West Virginia U. and the Brooklyn Dodgers; Corp. Ben Kish, Pittsburgh U. and the Dodgers; and Pvt. Michael (Mike) Basca of Villanova and the Philadelphia Eagles.

Willamette Guard Slated for Duty With Army Gridders

SAN DIEGO, Calif., Aug. 1 (AP)—The war department has ordered five Camp Callan soldiers to report for training with the army's all-star football teams, scheduled to play this fall.

Among them was Joseph B. Holland, Willamette university (Oregon) guard, who will report at Yale university, New Haven, Conn., training headquarters for the eastern squad.

A FINE REPAYMENT

DENVER, Aug. 1 (AP) — Workers at the Buckley field air corps school chipped in $400 to buy baseball equipment for the airmen.

Then they challenged the air students to a game.

Strutting in their new uniforms, the airmen beat their benefactors, 7 to 6.

BRUNOS IN FINALS

PORTLAND, Aug. 1 (AP) — Bruno Studio of Portland won the first game, 8-3, last night in a playoff with Gresham for the right to meet Albany in the finals of the Oregon American Legion junior baseball tournament.

The teams will meet again tonight.

RAILS KEEP LEADERSHIP IN MARKET

NEW YORK, Aug. 1 (AP)—Rails continued to maintain rising leadership in today's stock market while many industrials seemed to have run out of recovery stream.

Weekend hesitancy ruled at the start. Minor fractional advances were well distributed at the close although the minus column was fairly well filled.

Transfers for the two hours were in the neighborhood of 100,000 shares.

Distilling company stocks had the benefit of the O. P. A. order lifting ceilings on liquor prices to compensate for higher costs and taxes.

Loew's jumped to another new top since 1939 as the outlook for expanding box-office receipts brightened for the moving picture field.

Steels settled down to a do-nothing position.

Atlantic coast line touched a new 1942 peak. In front the greater part of the time were Santa Fe, Union Pacific, N. Y. Central, Great Northern, Goodrich, Chrysler, American Telephone, Philip Morris and American Can.

Occasional laggards included Sears Roebuck, Woolworth, Standard Oil (NJ), and American Smelting.

Bonds were steady and commodities mixed.

CHICAGO WHEAT

CHICAGO, Aug. 1 (AP)—Wheat prices fell fractions to new seasonal lows and corn more than a cent to bottom quotations for a month today as the grain futures market absorbed hedging sales against dealer purchases of large amounts of cash grain to come to Chicago. Wheat later recovered most of the loss.

Dealers bought more than 100,000 bushels of corn and practically as much wheat to arrive here. The wheat, new No. 1 northern spring, was taken from a large northwest elevator concern for August delivery reportedly at a price slightly below the September future. However, some traders said hedging sales in the wheat pit were lighter than might have been expected.

Wheat closed ⅛c lower to ⅛c higher compared with yesterday, September $1.16⅞, December $1.19⅞-⅛; corn ⅛-⅛c lower, September 87⅞-⅞c, December 90⅛-⅛c; oats ⅛-⅛c off; soybeans ⅛-⅛c higher; rye ⅛-⅛c down.

Wheat Stocks in Storage Set All-Time Carryover

SEATTLE, Aug. 1 (AP)—Federal and state agricultural statisticians here reported jointly this week that the stocks of wheat on hand July 1 in interior mills, elevators and warehouses set an all-time carryover. A bumper harvest, just starting, complicates the problem of storage and handling.

The percentages of increase over July 1, 1941, holdings of old wheat was 600 per cent for Oregon; 305 per cent for Washington, and 59 per cent for Idaho. The national carryover of old wheat was 92 per cent over the figures of a year ago.

"From a national standpoint, the 'ever-normal wheat granary' is not far from being filled," reported Haven C. R. Stewart, senior federal agricultural statistician; his assistant, George R. Harvey, and Arthur E. Cox, state director of agriculture.

"But localizing the problem to the Pacific northwest, or better still to Washington, we find this situation:

"Grain harvesting has begun with slightly in excess of 78,000,000 bushels of wheat, oats, barley, corn, rye and dry field peas to be harvested and threshed or combined.

"Total capacity of all grain storages in the state . . . was 77,376,021 bushels last February 16. Since that date new construction totalled 3,407,000 bushels by July 1 and 700,000 bushels during July to date. State total capacity, therefore, is about 81,500,000 bushels, of which, on July 1, there was only a space available for storage of 48,000,000 bushels. The remainder was occupied.

"Estimated disappearance of grain stocks between July 1 and 'peak harvest' is seven or eight million bushels, possibly 12 million bushels by the end of the main harvest.

"The storage problem of Washington State, therefore, is where to store the excess 18 or 22 million bushels that present estimates indicate will have to be held mostly by farmers on their farms. (They already are holding 3,669,000 bushels of wheat on their farms, additional to the 19,481,000 bushels on hand in the interior warehouses.)"
