Bailey has been at Barnes hospital in Vancouver, Wash., for the past month receiving treatment. His condition is highly improved.

SCHULTZ TAKES JOB MANAGING SETZER BOX

Freeman Schultz, manager of the Algoma Lumber company, has accepted a position as manager for the Setzer Box company of Sacramento, Calif., and will move soon to the California capital.

Setzer Box has operations at Sacramento, Greenville, Engelmine, and Willows.

Schultz is making the change as a result of the stoppage of operations of the Algoma Lumber company at Algoma, where he spent 18 years. He expects to divide his time for a while between Sacramento and Algoma, continuing in charge of dismantling and disposal operations at the Klamath county point.

All of the Algoma lumber inventory has been shipped, but some 55 men are still at work there in connection with the dismantling of the plant and removal of equipment.
