Seal Fights Angler For Salmon

SEATTLE, Aug. 12 (AP)—Add to the hazards of the amateur salmon fisherman—the hijacking seal.

Policeman Harry Howard told today of a 25-minute battle with a Puget Sound seal which took a liking to the salmon on his fishing companion's line. The fisherman won, after the seal towed their outboard-powered boat on a merry chase, but it certainly took all the fight out of the salmon.

Once mated, a male fox remains single the rest of his life if his mate dies; but if the male dies, the female gets a new mate.
