Klamath Girls Leave To Enter Colleges

A lot of Klamath Falls homes were in a flurry of school clothes, trunks, suitcases and other going-away necessities this week with the departure of many girls going away to school for the first time.

Traveling back to Columbia, Missouri, to attend Stevens college are Maxine Liskey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Liskey; Joy Kent, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Kent, and Margie Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Clark, who left Friday night to begin their first year there. In San Francisco they will be joined by Jean Underwood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Underwood, and Wanda Shaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Royal Shaw, who will enter their second year at Stevens.

Nancy Bennet, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Bennet, plans to leave Tuesday evening to enter her first year at Mills college in Oakland.

Mary Minton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Minton, left this last Tuesday for Milwaukee, Wisconsin, where she will attend Milwaukee-Downer.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Howry bid good bye to their daughter Helen on Friday morning. Helen will enter nurses training at St. Vincent's hospital in Portland.

Those planning to leave next week for opening days at the University of Oregon are Jeanne Long, daughter of Nicholas Long; Mary Ellen Wright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Wright; and Edna Kahl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Kahl.

Entering Oregon State college at Corvallis soon will be Jean Ostendorf, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ostendorf, and Letty Linman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Linman.

Many other girls will be leaving later on in the month or in October for schools which have later starting schedules to accommodate army and navy programs.
