Merrill

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Sharp were business visitors in Redmond the early part of the week.

Merle "Bud" Woodley, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Woodley has reported to San Diego for navy training. Young Woodley graduated last spring from the Malin high school where he was a member of the football and basketball squads.

Mrs. Roberta Edwards, San Jose, is a guest in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Warren Fruit* and family.

Help is badly needed at Red Cross headquarters here and instructors are asking that anyone who can spare an hour or two Wednesday and Friday afternoons, appear to help out with surgical dressings. The daily quota for Merrill is 400 dressings and the few who appear to help have difficulty is keeping up.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter K. Olds, San Francisco, were recently guests at the home of Mrs. Olds' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Robison. Mrs. Olds who will be remembered here as the former Martha Robison is secretary to Robert H. Lamb, San Francisco attorney. Olds is also practising law in San Francisco. Their marriage was an event of July 21 in the Children's Chapel of the First Presbyterian church, San Francisco. While here they visited also with Mrs. Olds' sister, Mrs. Hilary Winebarger, her family and with other relatives.

The homemaking committee of the Women of the Moose headed by Mrs. Helen Shroyer and the hospital guild with Mrs. Eleanor Jondahl as chairman will sponsor a public dance in the Merrill community hall, Saturday night, October 14. Music will be by the Tulelake Guardsmen.

Plans for the dance were completed at a recent meeting of the society at which time it was reported that $60 was made on a recent rummage sale and $7.50 on a cooked food sale sponsored by the Tooseheart committee.

Poe Valley

Word was received here from Ben Nork from a Portland hospital that it was necessary to use penicillin, sulpha drugs and hot packs to check the infection in his leg. He recently came back to Klamath Falls after a second operation on his leg, but was forced to return to Portland.

Mr. Zuckerman is having his spuds dug this week. He employed about 85 Mexicans and hauled them to work and back to the home place in buses. He had around 500 acres in potatoes this season. He is almost through digging.

A benefit shower was held for the Warren Moore family who lost their home and belongings in a recent fire. Many useful gifts were received by the Moores.

Mrs. Hallie Haines was a shopper in Klamath Falls Friday.

Bo Tucker bought 80 acres of land adjoining the Emil Wells place recently. The ranch was formerly known as the McClure place.

Vic Brown was a caller in Klamath Falls Monday to get more help for potato loading.

The Mexicans are now getting seven cents for picking a 60-lb. sack of potatoes. They refused to work for five cents per 60 pounds any longer. They are picking for Bo Tucker this week.

Joe Nork has nearly all of his fall rye sown on the home place.

Bly

Warren McCain who is in the navy and has been attending electric school at Wahpeton, N. D., spent five days here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. McCain. Warren left Sunday, Oct. 8th to report for duty at San Pedro, Calif. Here he will be assigned to aeroplane tender.

Mrs. James Boyd and daughter Sharon left Wednesday, Oct. 4 for Florida. They will spend some time there with James Boyd who is stationed at Camp Gordon Johnson, Florida.

Mrs. Red Smith and children and Mrs. Russ Smith were business visitors in Klamath Falls Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Herb Hadley, Darlene and Butch spent the weekend visiting relatives at Paisley.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Lynch and Johnny spent the weekend at Paisley, Ore.

The kingbird chases hawks, crows, and even eagles, but it will flee from the attack of a humming bird.

New Pine Creek

Everything is all set for the PTA benefit dance to be held in New Pine Creek. Music for the occasion has been arranged by chairman of the music committee, Mrs. Erma Sanders. All other committees have been assigned and are functioning with full cooperation, it is reported.

Juanita Collins, who was working at the Willow Ranch box factory, has quit her job and has signed up to join the WACs. She leaves sometime next week to engage in her new type of work, about which she is quite thrilled. Her parents will take care of her children. She will either be in the medical or air corps.

Eldora Lightle announces her engagement to Sailor Alexander Charles Taylor of Los Angeles, who is at present stationed at the Lakeview air base. They were to have been married Wednesday of this week. Miss Eldora has also been working at the Willow Ranch box factory.

It is understood that Pat Hallinan and his family will move soon to the Ousley ranch which he has recently purchased.

Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Johnston came up from Vallejo, Calif, last Sunday, accompanied by Aunt Julia Edwards. They plan to stay about two weeks during which time Kay will enjoy his beloved sport of hunting the deer and shooting the waterfowl. Sarah will exchange gossip with her many friends. Mrs. Edwards will make a good referee to decide hunting issues between Kay and his father Lee, both experts.

Artie V. Reid also caught a chance to come up from Alameda to try his luck shooting the illusive antlered targets that roam the hills and dales at night and hide in the thick brush by day (until after hunting season.)

Two local women now claim undisputed honors over their husbands for being first to get their deer this season. Fannie Fisher showed her husband, Raymond, how it was done on the opening day of the Oregon season, by bagging a nice three pointer.

Mrs. Carrol Cloud got a big five pointer in the neck last Monday morning at 9:30. She was hunting in a party with her husband and his brother Ernest and his wife, Francis, the latter having just come up from Vallejo for a week or two to visit and hunt. The big deer dressed out around 207 pounds, and is incidently the largest deer that has been taken here this season.

The Home Economics club met at the Grange hall Thursday afternoon, October 5, with a very small attendance of four members and two guests, Mrs. Westergaard and Janice Hammersley. The afternoon was spent piecing on a quilt for the bazaar to be held sometime this fall. Mrs. Frank Deter donated a large dish towel to the grange. The hostess, Mrs. Elizabeth Alexander served apple-rolls with whipped cream and coffee. Mrs. Lyda Bishop will be next hostess on October 19.

The Happy Hour club met with Mrs. Mary Cannon at Willow Ranch last Tuesday afternoon, week ago, with eight members present. A game about baseball was played by the members and won by Amy Cloud and Ella Oliver. Very tasty chicken sandwiches and coffee were served for refreshments. The next meeting of the club will be with Mrs. Thelma Butler October 17.

Ben Cloud, father of Mrs. Ernest Robinett is reported ill in the Lakeview hospital.
