Vegetables to Come Under Support Plan

CORVALLIS, April 12 (AP)—All vegetables grown in Oregon will come under the canning support program which guarantees farmers certain minimum prices on sales to certified canners.

Previously the program applied only to peas, snap beans, corn and tomatoes. Canners have until May 10 to apply for certification on the other vegetables now added to the list.

Oregon support prices per ton for the new vegetables: asparagus No. 1 $160; No. 2 $100 (¼ a cent a pound additional for delivery); green lima beans $115; beets $21; kraut cabbage $15; carrots $20; spinach, $35-$50; all other vegetables—canner's 1942 price plus 20 per cent.
