WHEAT

CHICAGO, March 18 (AP) — After drifting along in a slow indifferent early trade, grain futures prices attracted fairly aggressive support most of the time today at substantially higher prices.
Oats, which barely held steady part of the time in the initial transactions, later were bid upwards as much as a cent a bushel when commission house buying forced out some short covering. The May delivery went back to the 83-cent ceiling on an advance of ½ cent, but the distant deliveries had more room and allowed the rally to run itself out.
Brokers said the strength in cotton and securities induced some of the demand for oats. At the same time, May rye moved ahead around 2 cents a bushel on word that the delivery at Winnipeg was up more than 4 cents.
Both oats and May rye extended their gains in the final few minutes of trading, with oats finishing ¾-1⅛ cents above Saturday's close. May 83-cent ceiling; rye unchanged to 3⅞ up, May $2.19⅜-⅝.
Wheat and corn held at ceilings at $1.63½ and $1.21½. Barley was unchanged to ⅛ cent up, May $1.20½ ceiling.
