Klamath Man Held In Theft

Silas M. Barkley, 41, Klamath Indian described by sheriff's officers here as "a man who would do anything," is held in Portland on $25,000 bond for a preliminary hearing January 27 on a federal charge of breaking into a Grays River, Wash., post office.

He will also be questioned in connection with three men held in Roseburg as suspects of several safe-cracking jobs and post office robberies.

Barkley is from Chiloquin and is well known to officers here. His record for the past 23 years shows that he is a four-time loser in state and federal penitentiaries. He was sentenced to five years from Klamath county in 1934 for assault with intent to rob, and again for five years in 1939 for burglarizing the Pelican cafe.

U. S. Postal Inspector R. G. Sheldon in Portland said Barkley was an acquaintance of the trio held in Roseburg after they were arrested last week near Coos Bay in an auto containing $8000, weapons and burglar tools.

The men are C. O. Jones and Amos Jones, brothers, and Floyd Backman. They are accused of looting a safe at Glendale, Ore., suspected of two safe-breaking jobs in California and are named in federal warrants for robberies of post offices at Lakeside and Westport.

JOVIAL BANDITS

PORTLAND, Jan. 22 (AP)—Two men who joked and drank beer with tavern customers, suddenly pulled guns and held up Dely's tavern last night, herding the other drinkers into a rest room before fleeing with $200.

Stock Market Shows Upturn

NEW YORK, Jan. 22 (AP)—The stock market registered its first upturn of the week in today's session under the leadership of steels and motors.

After following a narrowly irregular course in extremely quiet dealings, the industrial list encountered a brief flurry of demand in early afternoon. Although not all of the advances were held and a number of issues even stayed on the losing side, gains of fractions to more than a point predominated at the close. Transactions approximated 700,000 shares.

Higher were U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Chrysler, GGeneral Motors, U. S. Rubber, Santa Fe, Great Northern preferred, Chesapeake & Ohio, U. S. Gypsum, Boeing, J. I. Case, American Smelting, General Electric, Western Union "A" and Air Reduction. John Morrell & Co. climbed as much as 4 points after a 2-for-1 stock split proposal was announced. Laggards included Allied Chemical, Westinghouse and Texas Co.

Railroad bonds edged ahead. Wheat at Chicago closed ahead 1⅞ to 2⅞ cents a bushel, corn was down ⅛ to up ⅛ and oats up ⅛ to ¼. Cotton near the finish was $1.70 to $2.40 a bale higher.

Curb advances were Hummel-Ross, Electric Bond & Share, Cities Service, Middle West Corp. and Pantepec Oil.

Export Rumor Boosts Wheat

CHICAGO, Jan. 22 (AP)—Wheat staged a rally on the board of trade today when reports from Washington said the agriculture department was planning to speed up its export program. Early losses were erased by a short-covering movement in the bread cereal.

Oats advanced with wheat but corn tended to lag behind the upturn in other cereals. Corn was held back by withdrawal of a leading industry from the cash market.

Washington reports said the agriculture department was planning to ship 400,000,000 bushels of grain aboard by March 31.

Wheat closed strong on gains of 1⅞-2⅞c, January $2.17⅞.
