Oregon Spuds Due To Spoil

PORTLAND, Feb. 5 (AP)—Thirty million pounds of Oregon potatoes are going to spoil unless the department of agriculture finds a source other than the regular food market.

The production and marketing division of the USDA reported sale of 337 railroad carloads of 500 sacks each for livestock feed and 35 cars given free for school lunch programs. This is in addition to 375 cars disposed of earlier for other uses.

Before May 1 the department must get rid of 600 more carloads stored in the state's potato growing areas.

The problem is a result of wartime policy when the government guaranteed a market for potatoes at 90 per cent of parity to encourage production. The U. S. paid $2.30 a sack, has the potatoes—but few customers.

Market Keeps Lower Level

NEW YORK, Feb. 5 (AP) — Motors showed the only burst of speed in an otherwise narrow stock market today.

Leading automotive shares added gains of 2 points or more. Selected textiles enjoyed a late run-up. Some prominent rails continued on the down-grade from recent highs. Dealings, active at the opening, slowed thereafter except for brief spurts of buying. Transactions approximated 1,100,000 shares.

Optimism over the outlook for automobile companies continued to be stirred by General Motors directors' action in returning the stock to a higher dividend rate. Recent enthusiasm for rail shares subsided. Some profit taking, following the market's gradual rise of the past two weeks, was reported placing a damper on bidding.

Grain Market Takes Drop

CHICAGO, Feb. 5 (AP)—Wheat ran into fairly heavy profit-taking following its recent advance on the board of trade today. The bread cereal dropped as much as 2½ cents at one time, but a late rally reduced extreme losses.

Some selling in wheat was traced to houses with southwestern connections and may have represented hedging against purchases of cash grain. Mills gave the market support early. Great Britain overnight purchased 250,000 hundredweights of flour, completing March allocations.

Corn was down slightly most of the session. Support came from shipping interests. The local office of the commodity credit corporation announced purchase of 500,000 bushels of corn for export yesterday.

Near-by oats deliveries were steady on hopes this grain will be exported during the second quarter of the year. Lard firmed on a higher hog market.

Wheat closed ½-1⅝c lower, March $2.17½.
