News Notes and Comment

By MARY O'BRIEN

Operating under its heaviest schedule to date, the Script and Mike booked or broadcast five local shows by 11 tonight. Beginning at noon over KFLW, Chuck Martin was heard on his Gem Session program. The saxophone quartet from the music department was booked to play over 1450 Matinee, a KFLW broadcast heard at 3:30. Tonight Script and Mike Member Wes Robinson will help out on high school sports news over Don Neal's sports program, again on KFLW. The regular basketball broadcasts made by the Herald and News station will be of the county playoff games tonight, and Rosemary Bigbie will take over the half-time broadcasting period. Finally Dee Miller will emcee a half-hour show from 10:30 to 11:00 on KFJI tonight. It was hoped that Wendell Noble and Steve Allen, the originators of "Smile Time," could be on hand as featured guests.

Army To Take Bodies Home

MEDFORD, Ore., Feb. 14 (AP) The army laid plans today to take four coast guardsmen on a final air flight, this one to their home in Port Angeles for burial.

Killed in the crash of their PBY into Diamond rock last Tuesday, their bodies were brought down from the snow-covered mountain last night by a crew of forest rangers, army air rescue team members and coast guardsmen.

Lt. John Miller of the army said they would be flown home. They were: Lt. Cmdr. John MacIntosh, Lt. (jg) Ralph E. Osterberg, Aviation Chief Machinist's Mate Roy Mason, and Aviation Radioman Ruffin E. Crosby. All were crew members of the PBY.

Meanwhile the two survivors, passengers who had arranged rides to the east coast, were reported improved. They were Seaman 1/c Melvin E. Savage, Plymouth, Mich., who suffered severe burns, and Seaman 1/c Randolph M. Creasy, 18, Lynchburg, Va., who was nearly ready for release from the hospital.

The coast guard plane was on a flight from Port Angeles to the east coast via Los Angeles at the time of the crash.
