Murray Case Back In Court

The 9-year-old Murray building equity suit involving the Main street structure which houses Woolworth's, Matt Finnigan's sporting goods store and Recreation bowling alleys, is back in court this afternoon.

The case, which is becoming a historic one for Klamath county, involves the building owned by E. J. Murray and the late Rebecca Murray, and claims upon the building by Wilson S. Wiley, G. Q. D'Albini, Marie D'Albini, Mary L. Moore, Merle S. West, Emma West, C. J. Martin, Lynna Martin, Tom Watters and Evelyn Watters.

It has been through the entire state court structure since the original filing March 22, 1938, and the latest ruling, a mandate by Circuit Judge Ralph S. Hamilton of Bend, grants the defendants a lien of $20,257.73 on the property.

Today's court hearing is on a final audit. The file of the highly entangled case is now the size of a large law book.

Stock Session Very Slow

NEW YORK, Feb. 28 (AP)— Stocks today limped through one of the slowest market sessions of the year and, with scattered exceptions, leaders generally sought moderately lower levels.

From the opening on it was evident there would be little follow through on the recovery of Thursday. While a few favorites did fairly well, declines of fractions to a point or so predominated at the close. Transfers of around 700,000 shares compared with 970,000 in the preceding session.

Coppers such as Anaconda, Kennecott and Phelps Dodge stiffened at the last when the reconstruction finance corp. announced it would raise its selling price for the metal to 21½ cents per pound.

In the backward division were U. S. Steel, Youngstown Sheet, U. S. Rubber, Goodrich, General Motors, Sears Roebuck, Montgomery Ward, American Telephone, American Smelting, Du Pont, J. C. Penney, Homestake Mining, Texas Co., Southern Pacific and Norfolk & Western.

Cotton, toward the finish, was off 35 cents to up 70 cents a bale. At Chicago wheat ended ahead 8½ to 10 cents a bushel, corn 6½ to 8c (the daily limit) and oats 2½ to 4½c.

Grain Market Soars Again

CHICAGO, Feb. 28 (AP)—A runaway market erupted in the grain pits on the board of trade today and prices soared under aggressive short-covering and new buying demand.

The March wheat contract jumped 10 cents, limit permitted in a single session, to a new 27 year high for any wheat delivery at $2.53. Other deliveries were sharply higher. May, July and September wheat were at the best levels for these specific contracts in 30 years.

The advance continued through to the end.

Wheat closed 8½ to 10 cents higher, March $2.53.

Wheat futures were up as much as 10 cents at Kansas City and Minneapolis. At Winnipeg rye jumped 10 cents.

Cash wheat at Kansas City skyrocketed 12½ to 20 cents a bushel.
