Eastern Weather Clearing

By The Associated Press

Upstate New York and New England were fighting clear today of the four-day snowfall that bogged down travel, isolated some communities and closed many rural schools, but late winter was bringing new troubles to other areas.

In Maryland, 600 miles of secondary roads still were closed and two eastern shore fishermen died of exposure.

Kansas highway crews reported trouble keeping roads open as snow drifted deeply on the western prairies. Up to five inches of snow fell in parts of Kansas and Missouri.

Eastern Michigan's thumb district, where storms that began last week-end left snowdrifts reaching 12 feet, reported some families on rural routes still isolated. Food supplies were dropped by plane yesterday to the 600 snowbound residents of Hubbard lake, in Alpena county. A six-weeks-old girl, seriously ill, was flown to a hospital from one snowbound home.

Snow and rain struck central Illinois and Indiana.

Clearing weather yesterday and today returned milk deliveries in upper New York state cities to near normal, and many of the snow clogged highways and rail lines were opened.

In Albion, N. Y., four snowplows were used yesterday to get Mrs. Henry Horsch to a hospital for the delivery of a baby daughter. In the same area, Mrs. Marguerite Haag, 55, walked from her marooned car to the New York state training school, where she was a matron.

Stock Gains Fail To Hold

NEW YORK, March 6 (AP) — The supreme court's John L. Lewis decision touched off a speedy but brief bulge in today's stock market which generally failed to hold.

The list shifted somewhat irregularly in the forenoon with the pace relatively slow. After midday, when the high court's ruling was flashed, the ticker tape put on a fast sprint for a few minutes with leaders jumping 1 to around 3 points. There was no follow-through and top gains were reduced in most cases. Transfers were around 1,000,000 shares.

Norfolk & Western, at the last, was up 3 points at 251. Declines were shown for Bethlehem Steel, Western Union "A," N. Y. Central, Pennsylvania Railroad, Eastman Kodak and Electric Power & Light.

Boardrooms were disappointed that the upholding of the government's case against the coal union did not bring more of a market response.

Bonds were uneven.

Profit Taking Enters Grains

CHICAGO, March 6 (AP) — Heavy profit-taking swept into grain pits toward the close today and prices retreated in an active trade.

Earlier the market had displayed strength in response to Secretary of Agriculture Anderson's promise to aid in building up Great Britain's grain supplies this summer and autumn.

At one time wheat was up around 5 cents and corn and oats more than 3 cents. All oats deliveries made new seasonal highs.

The late selling was considered mainly of a technical nature and was not based on any specific news development.

While final prices were under the day's highs, they were still substantially above yesterday's finish.

Wheat closed 1⅛-4⅝ higher than yesterday's final price, March $2.60¼-½.
