Camp Fire News

Birthday Activities

The city-wide Blue Bird evening of Monday was judged a great success by those in attendance. About 150 persons enjoyed the entertainment provided by groups throughout Klamath Falls. Mrs. Robert Thompson was in charge of the program, and introduced each group of girls as they presented their part of the program. Mrs. Thompson has just recently assumed the office of Blue Bird program chairman in the Leaders' association, and the entire organization is most appreciative of her interest and achievements.

The meeting was opened with a short talk by Mrs. J. W. Leonard, the executive director in Klamath Falls, who outlined the general program of the Blue Bird division of the Camp Fire Girls organization. Following songs and skits by each group, most of which had been planned and rehearsed by the girls, the parents and visitors viewed a display of handcraft work made by all Blue Bird groups.

Sunday was Church day for Camp Fire Girls throughout the Klamath area. In the city, girls of the Protestant faith attended the First Methodist church. Catholic girls attended early mass in their uniforms at Sacred Heart church. In outlying districts, each group attended a local church in uniform, as a prelude to the beginning of Camp Fire Birthday week.

There are two window displays completed, one in the window of the United States National bank, and one in "Everybody's" drug store. The latter portrays the birthday theme of "Going Places," featuring dolls of all nations collected by Camp Fire Girls.

Friday night will climax the celebrations, with the grand council fire at Fremont auditorium at 7:30 p. m. A color guard of Boy Scouts will open the program, followed by the ceremonial in which girls will receive special awards and ranks.

Council Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the Camp Fire Girls council was called to order Tuesday night by Mrs. James Kerns, president. The board members spent the major part of the meeting discussing plans for the improvement of the summer camp, Camp Esther Applegate, at Lake o' the Woods. Any girl who is registeerd in a Camp Fire, Blue Bird, or Horizon club group is eligible to attend summer camp, to be held this year during the first two weeks of August. In addition, plans were discussed for a dinner meeting of the council on April 10, at which time the regional field secretary of the national organization will be in Klamath Falls.
