Most Stocks Show Losses

NEW YORK, April 3 (AP)— The coal situation, among other factors helped depress most stock market pivotals today although scattered favorites managed to edge forward and selling never was really urgent.

Dealings were slow, except for a short professional liquidating flurry in the second hour. Extreme losses running to 2 or more points were reduced in the majority of cases at the close. Transfers for the full stretch held to around 700,000 shares.

Modest advances were recorded for Chrysler, General Motors, Southern Pacific, Great Northern Railway, U. S. Lines, Eastern Air Lines, Transcontinental, Western Aid and United Aircraft.

Casualties included U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Goodyear, Goodrich, J. I. Case, Dow Chemical, Du Pont, Eastman Kodak, American Woolen, Schenley, Barber Asphalt, Kennecott, Sears Roebuck, Chesapeake & Ohio, Santa Fe and Southern Railway.
