Selling Slows Grain Prices

CHICAGO, April 18 (AP)— Selling pressure dominated grains today despite a quick run up in wheat following a statement by Former President Herbert Hoover that the world food crisis next year is likely to be worse than this year.

Wheat closed 1 cent lower to ⅛c higher, May $2.58⅞-⅞; corn was ⅛ to 3⅛c lower, May $1.75-1.75⅛, and oats were ⅛c lower to ⅛c higher, May 85⅛-89⅛c. Active lard futures were 40 to 95c a hundred pounds lower, July $22.55.

DEAR PAW:
Just a line to tell you that things ain't going so good. Nobody are raising no baby chicks and our chick feed business is tol'ble put. . . .

Them that knows says feed is too high — they be right, but Ben Franklin or some old sage said, "Everything that accentuates must descentuate," so we ain't got nothing to worry about . . . we speculate big drop in prices when new grain crop is gettin' in.

So if I was you, Paw, I'd git me 50 or 100 chicks right now, if you don't you may have to scrape your vest this winter and buy eggs by the pound. . . . You might tell Uncle Silvester 'bout what I sed, too.

Yes, Paw, I'm still with the PEOPLES WAREHOUSE, down 6th street by the tracks, and they still handle HODGEN BREWSTER POULTRY and DAIRY FEEDS. . . . Bye, Paw. 4-18

"GONNA MOVE?"
Then call 7425. We can move you locally or long distance.
* We guarantee to do as poor a job as anyone else.
* Our men are inexperienced, slow and decrepid.
* They are discourteous and make every effort to make your move as disagreeable as possible.
* We always bang up your furniture and there's plenty of muss and lots of fuss when moved by us.
Oh shucks! What's the use of going on. Next time do it yourself.
